Real Fictions Four Canadian Artists:

Real Fictions Linda Michael, 1996-01-01 Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century Joan Murray, 1999-11 Joan Murray discusses social and political events in combination with the movements ideas attitudes styles and important groups in Canadian art of this century The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Reenactment Mark Franko, 2017-11-15 The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Reenactment brings together a cross section of artists and scholars engaged with the phenomenon of reenactment in dance from a practical and theoretical standpoint Synthesizing myriad views on danced reenactment and the manner in which this branch of choreographic performance intersects with important cultural concerns around appropriation this Handbook addresses originality plagiarism historicity and spatiality as it relates to cultural geography Others topics treated include transmission as a heuristic device the notion of the archive as it relates to dance and as it is frequently contrasted with embodied cultural memory pedagogy theory of history reconstruction as a methodology testimony and witnessing theories of history as narrative and the impact of dance on modernist literature and relations of reenactment to historical knowledge and new media A History of Canadian Fiction David Staines, 2021-08-05 The first one volume history of Canadian fiction covering its growth and development from earliest times to the present day Recounting the struggles and the glories of this burgeoning area of investigation it explains Canada s literary growth alongside its remarkable history Culture + the State: Landscape and Ecology ,2003 Mining the Media Archive Dot Tuer, 2006 Mining the Media Archive gathers together an exciting collection of essays by writer and cultural theorist Dot Tuer Ranging from monographs on new media artists to a history of Canada s most controversial artist run centre the CEAC to testimonial writing on cultural politics and post colonialism in Canada and Argentina Tuer s writings address issues of global media and local remembrance through a unique blend of storytelling archival research and cultural analysis Profiles in Canadian Literature 8 Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991-01-01 Profiles in Canadian Literature is a wide ranging series of essays on Canadian authors Each profile acquaints the reader with the writer s work providing insight into themes techniques and special characteristics as well as a chronology of the author s life Finally there is a bibliography of primary works and criticism that suggests avenues for further study I know of no better introduction to these writers and the studies in question are full of basic information not readily obtainable elsewhere U of T Quarterly The Still Life in the Fiction of A. S. Byatt Elizabeth Hicks, 2010-08-11 This book explores the ways in which English writer A S Byatt s visual still lifes descriptions of real or imagined artworks and what are termed verbal still lifes scenes such as laid tables rooms and market stalls are informed by her veneration of both realism and writing It examines Byatt s adoption of the Barthesian concept of textual pleasure showing how her ekphrastic descriptions involve consumption and take time to unfold for the reader thereby highlighting the limitations of painting It also investigates the ways in which Byatt s still lifes demonstrate her debts to English modernist author Virginia Woolf French writer Marcel Proust and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood of nineteenth century Britain A number of Byatt's verbal still lifes are read as semiotic markers of her characters particularly with regard to economic status and class. Further, her descriptions uniting food and sexuality are perceived as part of her overall representation of pleasure. Finally, Byatt's employment of vanitas iconography in many of her portrayals of death is discussed, showing how her recurring motif of Keats's Ode on a Grecian Urn teases out the still life's inherent tension between living passion and cold artwork.

The Art of Caregiving in Fiction, Film, and Memoir Jeffrey Berman, 2020-10-29 Bringing together the human story of care with its representation in film, fiction, and memoir, this book combines an analysis of care narratives to inform and inspire ideas about this major role in life. Alongside analysis of narratives drawn from literature and film, the author sensitively interweaves the story of his wife's illness and care to illuminate perspectives on dealing with human decline. Examining texts from a diverse range of authors such as Leo Tolstoy, Edith Wharton, and Alice Munro, and filmmakers such as Ingmar Bergman and Michael Haneke, it addresses questions such as why caregiving is a dangerous activity, the ethical problems of writing about caregiving, the challenges of reading about caregiving, and why caregiving is so important. It serves as a fire starter on the subject of how we can gain insight into the challenges and opportunities of caregiving through the creative arts.

Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction Julie Mehta, Harish Mehta, 2024-09-13 Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction is a comprehensive study of the novels of the Sri Lankan Canadian author and poet Michael Ondaatje. This survey of the Booker Prize-winning novelist's works locates him as a powerful voice that urges globalization and multiculturalism in a world that is closing its borders. It reconnoitres Ondaatje's search for a homeland by cracking open the core of his evocative, inventive, and innovative concepts that undergird his art of storytelling. The contributors in this volume examine themes such as literary cosmopolitanism, Sri Lankan identity, diasporic identity, race, and racism, home and belonging, trauma in the Sri Lankan civil war, war games, and uncertainty theory. An important contribution to Ondaatje studies, the book is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of Sri Lankan literature, diasporic and world literatures, South Asian and Canadian studies, cultural studies, postcolonial fiction, and history.

Science Fiction and Fantasy Book Review Neil Barron, R. Reginald, 2009-11-01 Science Fiction and Fantasy Book Review was founded in 1979 to provide comprehensive coverage of all the major and minor books being released in the genre at that time. This was the golden era of SF publishing, with a thousand titles old and new hitting the stands and the bookshelves each and every year. From the older classics to the newest speculative fiction, this was the period when the best and the brightest shined forth their talents. SF FBR included reviews by writers in the field, by amateur critics, and by litterateurs and University professors. Over a thousand books were covered during the single year of publication, many of them having been reviewed nowhere else before or since. The January 1980 issue includes a comprehensive index of all the works featured during the preceding year. This reprint will be a welcome addition to the literature of science fiction and fantasy criticism. Neil Barron is a retired bibliographer and literary critic, editor of the acclaimed Anatomy of Wonder series. Robert Reginald was the publisher for twenty-five years of Borgo Press and
