Ancients of 318 Jesse Aaron Blackbourne, 2011-05-23 Hex Sortilege knows he cannot learn from the mistakes of his past if he does not know what they are Instructed by Emperor Enoch Oberon to document the important events of his time Hex narrates a fantasy tale like no other describing a hidden version of Shreveport Louisiana populated by angelic demonic and lycanthropic humanoids After King Enoch sends Hex to investigate a young elf known to have a dark aura about her his normally peaceful life rapidly turns into a nightmare When he encounters the feisty elf in an underground bar she informs him she has come to Shreveport to escape the Ancients pathetic High Council and all its rules Unfortunately the elf has already broken two rules and Hex must take her by force to see the King immediately But when she meets the King Enoch all hell breaks loose she unleashes her fiery temper and reveals the true reason for her presence to the Shreveport monarchy Everyone knows the Ancients of 318 kneel before nothing not even their own vices But it is only a matter of time before the King and the residents of Shreveport are unintentionally entangled in the inexhaustible drama that surrounds a manipulative elf

Where Music Helps: Community Music Therapy in Action and Reflection Cochavit Elefant, Mercédès Pavlicevic, Dr Gary Ansdell, Professor Brynjulf Stige, 2013-06-28 This book explores how people may use music in ways that are helpful for them especially in relation to a sense of wellbeing belonging and participation The central premise for the study is that help is not a decontextualized effect that music produces The book contributes to the current discourse on music culture and society and it is developed in dialogue with related areas of study such as music sociology ethnomusicology community psychology and health promotion Where Music Helps describes the emerging movement that has been labelled Community Music Therapy and it presents ethnographically informed case studies of eight music projects localized in England Israel Norway and South Africa The various chapters of the book portray music s help in action within a broad range of contexts with individuals groups and communities all of whom have been challenged by illness or disability social and cultural disadvantage or injustice Music and musicing has helped these people find their voice literally and metaphorically to be welcomed and to welcome to be accepted and to accept to be together in different and better ways to project alternative messages about themselves or their community and to connect with others beyond their immediate environment The overriding theme that is explored is how music comes to afford things in concert with its environments which may suggest a way of accounting for the role of music in music therapy without reducing music to a secondary role in relation to the therapeutic that is being just a symbol of psychological states a stimulus or a text reflecting socio cultural content Pioneers of Digital Mel Carson,Paul

Non-Western Popular Music Tony Langlois,2017-07-05 This collection provides readers with a diverse and contemporary overview of research in the field Drawing upon scholarly writing from a range of disciplines and approaches it provides case studies from a wide range of non-Western musical contexts In so doing the volume attends to the central themes that have emerged in this area of popular music studies cultural politics identity and the role of technology This collection does not seek to establish a new theoretical paradigm but being primarily aimed at researchers and students offers as comprehensive a view of the research that has been carried out over the last few decades as possible given the global scope of the subject Inevitably the experience of globalisation itself runs through many of the contributions not only because musicians find themselves part of an immense flow of international culture technology and finance but also because Western scholarship can also be considered an aspect of such a flow The articles selected for the volume take different disciplinary approaches many are close ethnographic descriptions of musical practices whilst others take a more historical view of a musical scene or even a single musician Some essays consider the effects of emerging technologies upon the production dissemination and consumption of music whilst the political context is central to other authors The collection as a whole serves as a resource for those who wish to be better acquainted with the diversity of research that has been carried out into non-western pop whilst also highlighting the broader themes that have so far shaped academic approaches to the subject

Digital Prohibition Carolyn Guertin,2012-04-26 The act of creation requires us to remix existing cultural content and yet recent sweeping changes to copyright laws have criminalized the creative act as a violation of corporate rights in a commodified world Copyright was originally designed to protect publishers not authors and has now gained a stranglehold on our ability to transport read write teach and publish digital materials Contrasting Western models with issues of piracy as practiced in Asia Digital Prohibition explores the concept of authorship as a capitalist institution and posits the Marxist idea of the multitude la Antonio Negri and Michael Hardt and Paulo Virno as a new collaborative model for creation in the digital age Looking at how digital culture has transformed unitary authorship from its book bound parameters into a collective and dispersed endeavor Dr Guertin examines process based forms as diverse as blogs Facebook Twitter performance art immersive environments smart mobs hacktivism tactical media machinima generative computer games like Spore and The Sims and augmented reality

Dead People's Music Sarah Laing, 2011-08-26 The first novel from one of New Zealand's prize winning emerging writers Classical is karaoke just playing covers of dead people's music or so Wellingtonian Rebecca concluded at her London conservatorium She's sabotaged her scholarship there but wants to keep playing the cello like her grandmother Klara Now unmoored from her classical training she's in New York City where Klara grew up As Rebecca investigates her Jewish refugee heritage she starts to compose her own songs but has to contend with diabetes and other burning issues is she with the right man or should she swap stability for lust And how much longer can she live with a neurotic junk scavenging flatmate on the verge of murdering another zebra fish
