Food, Sex, Wine and Cigars : A Memoir Lisa Stalvey, 2015-07-02 My memoir spans the first twelve years of my life as a professional chef I was living in hell from September 1980 until 1993 facing many unforeseen challenges in every aspect of my life I planned on making this a cookbook twenty two years ago Then one day in 2011 it came to me that it needed to be a memoir so I just sat down and wrote While writing this book I found myself craving to feel hungry again and with that came misery The old habits of anorexia truly never leave They linger around waiting for the chance to pounce again I think that both my parents being artists of sorts gave me an interesting view of life We were totally allowed our freedom and they gave us their trust As I was being rushed to the hospital staring at three of my severed fingers floating in ice water I couldn't believe what just happened At age twenty four I was pretty thin and working as a line cook among Hollywood's elite I was about to get married but it all came to a screeching halt in 1980 when I severed three of my fingers in an industrial Cuisinart in the kitchen where I worked I describe my journey through the most difficult time of my life suffering from anorexia and living with a disability How could my life continue after losing three of my precious fingers and on my right hand no less Miraculously I pulled myself out of anorexia by finally seeing my body as it really was I began to slowly heal though it took almost thirty one more years I read self help books recited affirmations and began to seriously search for the missing piece of my heart This is my account of being a woman in a male dominated industry complete with a complicated relationship with food and a man resulting in a long self destructive streak I have been cooking for thirty eight years professionally including an apprenticeship in 1980 with Wolfgang Puck ultimately becoming his head chef at Spago Sunset I can't wait to read anything that she writes Marc Vetri Philadelphia restaurateur named one of the Top Ten Chefs in America

Beyond Worship James Admans, 2022-10-20 Beyond Worship started as a digital zine published Fort Washington Collegiate Church's website with only a few contributors Under the direction of Minister James Admans they then and funded by the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship the zine Beyond Worship sought to collect any written material by LGBTQIA authors that could be shared in a worship space The goal was to not only demonstrate that LGBTQIA members of the church are accepted but part of the community and have something to contribute When Publisher Lori Perkins a member of Fort Washington read the zine she was immediately inspired to expand upon the idea of belonging in a community not just to LGBTQIA members of Fort Washington but any LGBTQIA person struggling to find a sense of belonging in a community that they can call home and wanting but struggling to find their relationship with a higher purpose Beyond Worship seeks to show LGBTQIA people that they are divine here for a reason and have so much to contribute to their communities Whether a poem a short story a psalm a meditative guide or an academic paper each LGBTQIA author in this anthology explores what it means to find community and love in a society that tells them they are undeserving of both From all over the world and from a variety of faith traditions each author s piece shows readers different ways of being in a world worth experiencing

Different Sexual Worlds Dick Skeen,2023-12-21 Through an in depth look at the sexual lives of real people Different Sexual Worlds illustrates the myriad dimensions of human sexuality Developed as a supplementary text for college level courses this innovative book charts the sexual development and maturation of ten men and women in order to help students gain an integrated perspective on human sexuality Among those whose stories are told are Libby who overcame emotionally dependent behavior and achieved a satisfying sexual identity Ed a gay man who lived with and eventually died from the AIDS virus Jennifer who chose to become a prostitute to escape a disastrous home life and Nick whose sexual exploration helped him grow and find the perspective he needed to be able to commit to a long term relationship Dick Skeen s thoughtful analysis of the unique stories contained in the book and the intriguing questions he poses for discussion make this book required reading for courses on human sexuality

McClure's Magazine ,1916 The Edge of Sex Lisa Speidel,Micah Jones,2019-11-27 The Edge of Sex is an anthology of voices from the margins bringing together 37 writers to discuss their experiences of sex and sex education in America The anthology explores often overlooked and excluded identities with pieces on sexuality and disabilities survivors of assault sex work as women of color kink and BDSM being Muslim and queer reproductive rights and the challenges of culture and identity when grappling with gender fluidity and gendered expectations. As they trace the negative effects of a restrictive fear-based sex education particularly on marginalized individuals, these stories unearth larger themes: tensions with race and religion, expectations from heteronormative society, and pressures of femininity and masculinity. Importantly, they also highlight the resilience and empowerment of marginalized individuals within a culture designed to ostracize them. The rich, diverse, and intersectional stories of The Edge of Sex paint a contextualized picture of sex education and make an urgent case for better representation and more inclusive, consistent, and comprehensive content. By reading this anthology, casual readers may learn more about their sexual selves, clinicians can apply the material to their practices with clients, and educators and students can expand their knowledge of feminist theory, intersectional theory, queer theory, and sex education.
