How Documentaries Went Mainstream Nora Stone,2023 Since the 1960s documentary films have moved closer to the mainstream thanks to the popularity of rockumentaries association with the independent film movement support from public and cable television and the rise of streaming video services Documentary films have become reliable earners at the U S box office and ubiquitous on streaming platforms while historically they existed on the margins of mainstream media How do we explain the growing commercialization of documentary films and the conditions that fueled their transformation The growing commercialization of documentary film has not gone unnoticed but it has not been sufficiently explained Streaming and the growing interest in reality TV are usually offered as initial explanations whenever a documentary enters the cultural conversation or breaks a box office record but neither of those causes grapple with the overlapping causal mechanisms that commercialized documentary film How Documentaries Went Mainstream provides a more comprehensive and meaningful periodization of the commercialization of documentary film Although the commercial ascension of documentary films might seem meteoric it is the culmination of decades long efforts that have developed and fortified the audience for documentary features Author Nora Stone refines rough explanations of these efforts through a robust synoptic history of the market for documentary films using knowledge of film economics and the norms of industry discourse to tell a richer story This periodization will allow scholars to compare the commercialization of documentary film with other genres Drawing on archival documents industry trade journals and popular press and interviews with filmmakers and film distributors Stone illuminates how documentary features have become more plentiful popular and profitable than ever before

Fatherhood in the Borderlands Domino Renee Perez,2022-12-06 A contemplative exploration of cultural representations of Mexican American fathers in contemporary media Latina/os and the Media Angharad N. Valdivia, 2010-02-15 The US mainstream media have a love and hate relationship with Latina/os This book brings together the scholarship of communication studies scholars working on issues of Latinidad and presents it in a coherent vibrant and accessible form to shed light on the complex relationship between Latina/os and the media My Own Directions Sheldon Epps, 2022-09-27 Life in the theatre is often a rollercoaster ride with all the excitement and occasional anguish that come with the highs and lows The author's journey in the American theatre has been amplified by his experience as a Black man who has frequently been one of the few the first or even the only His directing career has been full of rewards and opportunities as well as huge challenges and frustrations along with the anger that has come from being chased by race for so many years Much of the author's experience comes from two decades artistic director of Pasadena Playhouse one of the oldest and well known theatres in America and for a time early in his career one of the whitest This is the story of how the author came into leadership at Pasadena Playhouse after a successful career directing on Broadway in London and all over the world It relates how the theatre was radically changed and reignited by his leadership including his insistence on making diversity a priority onstage and off This is the very personal story of a person who wanted his race to be recognized but never used as a reason to be less than fully respected In many ways this memoir tells the story of what people of color in America must face repeatedly to make their lives matter Mediating Chicana/o Culture Scott L. Baugh, 2008-12-18 Mediating Chicana/o Culture Multicultural American Vernacular covers an unconventional array of topics from handkerchiefs votives and graffiti to food football and the Internet as well as cutting edge literature cinema photography and more In its cross disciplinary approach this collection makes an invaluable contribution to the scholarship on Chicana and Chicano culture and provides engaging readings for courses in race ethnic studies media studies and American studies Collected chapters critically interrogate the underlying tensions between personal expressions and public demonstrations in their ongoing negotiation of Chicana and Chicano identity Drawing on the revolutionary work of Gloria Anzaldúa Tamas Ybarra Frausto Emma Pérez Alfred Arteaga Chela Sandoval Julia Watson and Sidonie Smith the Latina Feminist Group among others chapters in this collection closely read the processes that seem built into the actions and behaviors the products the art the literature and the discourse surrounding the search for identity in the rush of our diverse 21st century existence Mediating Chicana/o Culture lays bare the methods by which we define ourselves as individuals and as members of communities examining not only the message but also the medium and the methods of mediating identity and culture

Embracing the Beat of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Real Women Have Curves 96 Edition

In a world taken by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate communication, the melodic beauty and mental symphony created by the published word usually disappear in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives.
