Reality Of Aid 199697:

The Reality of Aid, 1996-97 Tony German, Judith Randel, 1996 This work provides an evaluation of the aid policies of the major donors and their effectiveness in fulfilling their official purpose of relieving poverty and assisting development It concentrates on small scale community based projects analyzing the performance of 24 major donors The East Timor

Question Stephen McCloskey, Paul Hainsworth, 2000-08-11 Originally colonized by the Portuguese East Timor was brutally invaded and occupied by Indonesian military forces in 1975 According to the UN this resulted in the death of about a third of the population through massacres starvation and disease Subsequent events in Indonesia however have given rise to expectations of a fundamental change in its position on East Timor Considering the potential for change against a backdrop of growing popular and political support for the Timorese cause this book addresses its emergence as an issue of global importance The authors set out to show how local grassroots individual organizational and campaign initiatives have contributed to this state of affairs in the context of an increased international relations emphasis on ethics international morality and human rights HIV/AIDS Resources Marion L. Peterson, 1995 ACFOA Development Dossier, 1996

EU development cooperation Karin Arts, Anna Dickson, Anna K. Dickson, 2018-07-30 It is increasingly recognised that EU development cooperation policy has failed to meet its stated aims In this book Arts and Dickson ask the obvious and important question if the policy doesn't work why bother with it The authors assess why EU development policy has become largely ineffective citing among the external causal factors the liberalisation of trade and the growing influence of US and international actors such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund upon EU policy It also considers contributing factors within the EU such as the enlargement of its membership and the resulting shifts in priorities It is this analysis of internal and external factors affecting the decline of EU development policy that makes this study both innovative and unique It brings together an impressive range of contributors from different disciplines resulting in a thorough and intelligent assessment of the debate This study will appeal to advanced level undergraduates and academics of European politics in general EU integration development studies and International Relations An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence Will to Live João Biehl, 2021-10-12 Will to Live tells how Brazil against all odds became the first developing country to universalize access to life saving AIDS therapies a breakthrough made possible by an unexpected alliance of activists government reformers development agencies and the pharmaceutical industry But anthropologist João Biehl also tells why this policy hailed as a model worldwide has been so difficult to implement among poor Brazilians with HIV AIDS who are often stigmatized as noncompliant or untreatable becoming invisible to the public More broadly Biehl examines the political economy of pharmaceuticals that lies behind large scale treatment rollouts revealing the possibilities and inequalities that come with a magic bullet approach to health care By moving back and forth between the institutions shaping the Brazilian response to AIDS and the people affected by the disease Biehl has created a book of unusual vividness scope and detail At the core of Will to Live is a group of AIDS patients unemployed homeless involved with prostitution and drugs that established a makeshift health service Biehl chronicled the personal lives of these people for over ten years and Torben Eskerod represents them here in more than one hundred stark photographs Ethnography social medicine and art merge in this unique book illuminating the care and agency needed to extend life amid perennial violence Full of lessons for the future Will to Live promises to have a lasting influence in the social sciences and in the theory and practice of global public health

Regional and Global Regulation of International Trade Francis Snyder, 2002-07-05 The processes of legal and economic integration at a regional and global scale have created powerful legal and economic dilemmas They challenge the paradigms of constitutionalism including the State's monopoly of constitutionalism the autonomy of national political communities and the traditional forms of participation and representation The phenomena of globalisation and regional forms of governance have promoted the interdependence of national political communities and destroyed the artificial boundaries upon which national constitutional democracies are found and from which they derive their legitimacy Furthermore it is inevitable that the development of international trade and economic integration will raise claims for some form of global distributive justice to complement the wealth maximisation arising from free trade This will come from the gradual development of global forms of political discourse and law making challenging State constitutionalism and requiring some of the instruments and theories of constitutionalism The essays in this collection written by leading scholars in international trade law argue the pros and cons of greater regional and global regulation They conclude that whatever the final framework for international trade the critical decisions about institutional form and content will be decided in an emerging global political arena They help to identify this political arena who governs it and according to which rules and identify the different institutional alternatives in that global political arena

Access to Justice in Africa and Beyond, 2007 Japan's Official Development Assistance Japón. Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores, 2001 Global Institutions and the HIV/AIDS Epidemic Franklyn Lisk, 2009-09-10 Lisk examines the different perspectives of the global response to HIV/AIDS and the role of the different global institutions multilateral public and private involved including their impact on outcomes
