Really Great Time:

The Next Day Tim Leiphart, 2011-10-05 Is it possible to spend an entire lifetime running as hard as you can only to look up sweaty and panting and find that you've barely left the starting line? It's very easy to get off track without the clear and steady voice of God directing and guiding you to the finish. But what does God's voice sound like? What is He saying? Where is He leading? God speaks into the everyday life of the Christian and the language He uses doesn't require a seminary degree or a position on the church staff for understanding. God asks only for eyes to see and ears to hear. Fishermen and tax collectors learned many of their most valuable lessons when they followed Jesus out of the synagogues and into the streets, marketplaces, hillsides and seas to discover how God still speaks. Let's join the conversation. The Real Events Industry:

Touring in a van, meeting your idols, juggling a programming job with music, keeping control and credibility, the perils of an independent record label and the greater perils of a major. Marshack chronicles the band's day to day life and punctuates her account with excerpts from her tour reports and hard learned lessons on how to rock, program and teach while female. She also details the ways Poster Children applied punk's DIY ethos to digital tech as a way to connect with fans via then new media like pkids listservs, internet radio and enhanced CDs. An inside look at a scene and a career. Play Like a Man is the evocative and humorous tale of one woman's life in the trenches and online. Deadheads Linda Kelly, 2015-06-02 One of the best books on the Grateful Dead.
