Reason And God Encounters Of Philosophy With Religion:

Reason and God John E. Smith,1967 Reason and God John Edwin Smith,1961 Maynard Adams Glenn Blackburn,2009 Maynard Adams 1919 2003 was a profound philosopher and civic humanist at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill A major intellectual figure of the second half of the twentieth century Adams developed a comprehensive philosophy of civilization that applies to all humanity but has a distinctly Southern dimension The Humanity of Christ and the Healing of the Dysfunction of the Human Spirit Donald L. Alexander,2015-08-13 The book represents a personal quest in what Anselm referred to as faith seeking understanding The primary focus centers on proposing an interpretation of the nature and function of the human spirit and its relationship to the divine spirit and the living of a godly Christian life Thus the book has a dual concern namely an academic one and a spiritual one The undergirding premise is that apart of the human spirit the divine spirit is personally unknowable This premise contains the following supporting concepts First the core of human personhood resides in the human spirit and constitutes the unique capacity for personal self relatedness Second as the result of humanity s idolatrous displacement of God a radical reversal occurred with the human spirit When restored to its original relationship with the divine spirit the human spirit as James Loder writes is called out of its futility and perversity into the light and truth of the divine spirit Religion Robert Cummings Neville,2015-01-08 Religion is the third and final volume in Robert Cummings Neville s systematic development of a new philosophical theology Unfolding through his earlier volumes Ultimates and Existence and now in Religion philosophical theology considers first order questions generally treated by religious traditions through philosophical methods while reflecting Neville s long engagement with philosophy theology and Eastern and Western religious traditions In this capstone to the trilogy Neville provides a theory of religion and presents a sacred worldview to guide religious participation His philosophical theory of value enlightens religions approaches to ethics spirituality and religious institutional living and collaboration With a detailed examination of plausibility conditions for sacred worldviews the book concludes with an exploration of religionless religion for which institutions of religion are of penultimate value Through the development of philosophical theology Neville has built a unique multidisciplinary comparative nonconfessional theological system one that addresses concerns and provides tools for scientific and humanistic scholars of religion postmodern thinkers intellectuals from both secular and religious backgrounds and those interested in the global state of religion today Being in America Brian G Henning,David Kovacs,2014-04-10 Since its founding in 1950 the Metaphysical Society of America has remained a pluralistic community dedicated to rigorous philosophical inquiry into the most basic metaphysical questions At each year s conference the presidential address offers original insights into metaphysical questions Both the insights and the questions are as perennial as they are relevant to contemporary philosophers This volume collects eighteen of the finest representatives from those presidential addresses including contributions from George Allan Richard Bernstein Norris Clarke

Vincent Colapietro Frederick Ferr J Jorge J E Gracia Joseph Grange Marjorie Grene George Klubertanz Ivor Leclerc Ralph McInerny Ernan McMullin Joseph Owens John Herman Randall Jr Nicholas Rescher Stanley Rosen John E Smith and Robert Sokolowski Also included are Paul Weiss s inaugural address to the Society an introduction chronicling the history of the Society and an original Foreword by William Desmond and Epilogue by Robert Neville Aquinas on Simplicity Peter Weigel,2008 Peter Weigel offers an in depth examination of what divine simplicity means for Aquinas and how he argues for its claims Simplicity and other divine predicates are analysed within the larger metaphysical and semantic framework surrounding Aquinas philosophy of God Behind the Masks of God Robert Cummings Neville,1991-02-12 Behind the Masks of God develops an abstract concept of creation ex nihilo to compare and contextualize many of the symbols and more concrete ideas of divinity in world religions The first focus is Christianity and the book is put forward as an essay in Christian theology In addition the essay asks how creation ex nihilo serves to relate Christianity to other religions particularly those of China Neville addresses both Buddhism and Christianity and to a lesser extent Taoism as test cases for the applicability of creation ex nihilo as a fundamental comparative category for connecting theistic religions with non theistic ones C.S. Peirce and the Nested Continua Model of Religious Interpretation Gary Slater,2015-11-26 This study develops resources in the work of Charles S Peirce 1839 1914 for the purposes of contemporary philosophy It contextualizes Peirce s prevailing influences and provides greater context in relation to the currents of nineteenth century thought Dr Gary Slater articulates a nested continua model for theological interpretation which is indebted to Peirce s creation of Existential Graphs a system of diagrams designed to provide visual representation of the process of human reasoning He investigates how the model can be applied by looking at recent debates in historiography He deals respectively with Peter Ochs and Robert C Neville as contemporary manifestations of Peircean philosophical theology This work concludes with an assessment of the model s theological implications A Korean Theology of Human Nature Jung Sun Oh,2005-01-31 This remarkable study articulates a Korean Confucian Christian theory of human nature theory of justification sanctification and salvation by means of a reformed concept of filial piety The book investigates in depth the theological anthropology of Robert C Neville and the inclusive humanism of Tu Wei ming Neville and Tu represent contemporary Christian and Confucian approaches to religious anthropology Furthermore they have engaged in an extended and productive dialogical encounter on the themes of comparative thought and religious renewal in Asia and North America This book argues that Neville s and Tu s insights into human nature have great relevance for a comparative contemporary Korean theology by focusing on the role of a reformed version of filial piety as a new component of Korean theology The articulation of filial piety as a potential key of contemporary Korean theology is an example of creative appropriation of a Confucian theme of the Christian praxis of sanctification and ultimately the soteriology of divine grace and transformation This study construes human nature to be such that any living theology will reflect the creative engagement of Christian theologians as public intellectuals in search of the articulation of

the gospel
