Reason And Revelation In The Middle Ages:

Reason and Revelation in the Middle Ages Etienne Gilson, 1948 Reason and Revelation in the Middle Ages
Etienne Gilson, 1964 Reason and Revelation in the Middle Ages... Étienne Gilson, 1954 God and Reason in the Middle Ages Edward Grant, 2001-07-30 Between 1100 and 1600 the emphasis on reason in the learning and intellectual life of Western Europe became more pervasive and widespread than ever before in the history of human civilization Of crucial significance was the invention of the university around 1200 within which reason was institutionalized and where it became a deeply embedded permanent feature of Western thought and culture It is therefore appropriate to speak of an Age of Reason in the Middle Ages and to view it as a forerunner and herald of the Age of Reason that was to come in the seventeenth century The object of this study is twofold to describe how reason was manifested in the curriculum of medieval universities especially in the subjects of logic natural philosophy and theology and to explain how the Middle Ages acquired an undeserved reputation as an age of superstition barbarism and unreason Jonathan Edwards's Philosophy of History Avihu Zakai, 2009-02-09 Avihu Zakai analyzes Jonathan Edwards's redemptive mode of historical thought in the context of the Enlightenment As theologian and philosopher Edwards has long been a towering figure in American intellectual history Nevertheless and despite Edwards's intense engagement with the nature of time and the meaning of history there has been no serious attempt to explore his philosophy of history Offering the first such exploration Zakai considers Edwards's historical thought as a reaction in part to the varieties of Enlightenment historical narratives and their growing disregard for theistic considerations Zakai analyzes the ideological origins of Edwards's insistence that the process of history depends solely on God's redemptive activity in time as manifested in a series of revivals throughout history reading this doctrine as an answer to the threat posed to the Christian theological teleology of history by the early modern emergence of a secular conception of history and the modern legitimation of historical time In response to the Enlightenment refashioning of secular historical time and its growing emphasis on human agency Edwards strove to re-establish God's preeminence within the order of time Against the de-Christianization of history and removal of divine power from the historical process he sought to re-enthrone God as the author and lord of history and thus to re-enchant the historical world Placing Edwards's historical thought in its broadest context this book will be welcomed by those who study early modern history American history or religious culture and experience in America A Thomistic Tapestry, 2021-12-28 This book written by well known students of Etienne Gilson and especially dedicated to Armand A Maurer helps inaugurate a long overdue special series in philosophy honoring Gilson's legendary scholarship It presents wide ranging expositions of Thomist realism in the tradition of Gilsonian humanism covering themes related to philosophy in general historical method aesthetics metaphysics epistemology and politics Science in the Middle Ages David C. Lindberg, 1978 In this book sixteen leading scholars address themselves to providing as full an account of medieval science as current knowledge permits Designed to be introductory the authors have directed their chapters to a beginning audience of diverse readers Aspects of Doctoral Research at the Maryvale International Catholic Institute (Volume Four) Catherine Knowles, Birute Briliute, Harry Schnitker, 2023-05-16 This collection of extracts from students who successfully defended their doctoral thesis highlights the breadth of research in Catholic Studies The fourth book in a series of volumes it shines new light on age old issues and in many ways offers solutions to and opportunities for dialogue with the contemporary world These essays from the students of Maryvale International Catholic Institute with doctorates accredited by Liverpool Hope University truly reflect the philosophy underpinning academic life at Maryvale that of St John Henry Newman In essence his vision for education involves an extension of knowledge a cultivation of reason an insight into the relation of faith to truth learning to view things as they are and understanding how faith and reason stand to each other These students have achieved that This volume presents work covering the areas of moral theology ethics bioethics textual analysis theology philosophy history and literature crossing in places into the territory of pastoral theology evangelisation and catechesis Spheres of Philosophical Inquiry and the Historiography of Medieval Philosophy John Inglis, 1998 This volume provides a genealogy of the modern historiography of medieval philosophy up to the present rediscovers fifty years of German scholarship criticizes what has become the standard approach and proposes an historically sensitive alternative Medieval Trinitarian Thought from Aquinas to Ockham Russell L. Friedman, 2010-01-21 A survey of the scholastic debate on the divine Trinity in the period between Aquinas earliest works and Ockham's death
