Reborn In The West The Reincarnation Masters:

Reborn in the West Vicki Mackenzie, 1995 Reborn in the West is an enthralling odyssey which seeks to uncover the mysteries behind reincarnation. Among the wealth of information that currently fuels the reincarnation debate there is one story that towers above the rest. For the first time reincarnation masters are appearing in the West: men and women who through profound meditation techniques can steer their consciousness at the time of death to the precise rebirth of their choice. Having reached this ultimate spiritual achievement they elect to come back to earth for one reason only: to help all humanity attain the same freedom as themselves. Vicki Mackenzie goes in search of these spiritual adepts. She discovers who these reincarnates are, how they are identified, and what their mission is. En Route she also encounters those leading the way in Western research into the phenomenon of past lives.

A Promise Kept Marilyn Ekdahl Ravicz PhD, Germaine Krull, 2018-10-12 A Promise Kept: Memoir of Tibetans in India is a collaborative work between Germaine Krull and her friend Marilyn Ekdahl Ravicz. Although a great photographer, Germaine was European and wrote English poorly. For this reason she entrusted her memoir manuscript to Marilyn. Germaine requested that Marilyn promise to edit and rewrite it for publication so others could share her experiences. As promised, Marilyn offers Germaine's A Promise Kept to you. Enjoy reading about his holiness Sakya Trizin, his family, and their lives in India. Share their trials, adaptations, and amazing social and religious rebirth as refugee Tibetans.

Awakening to Spirit Lee Irwin, 1999-07-01 Explores the concept of Spirit in the postmodern age.

Dreaming Me Jan Willis, 2008-10 When this book first came out, Publishers Weekly's glowing review ended with the following statement: "With a whisper to Oprah, Jan Willis could be the first African American Buddhist feminist guru to be embraced by reading groups across America." PW wasn't the only one who noticed. Time magazine named her one of the top spiritual innovators of the new millennium. Newsweek wrote her up too. Really, the list goes on and on. Luckily Dreaming Me is now coming out in a new revised and updated edition. The subtitle should give you an idea of what's in this modern favourite, and you'll notice that it's not a matter of either/or. Willis is not Baptist or Buddhist. She's both. Dreaming Me is a book about reconciling what's made us so that we can be at peace with what we are. Willis came up Baptist in the segregated South, went to Cornell and got involved with the Black Panther Party. What happens next seems like a disconnect, but it's not. She went to a Tibetan Buddhist monastery, met the great teacher Lama Yeshe, and with his guidance found the real Jan Willis: the one who could recognize the best of what life gave her and make something lasting and transformative from it. Willis would become the first African American scholar/practitioner of Tibetan Buddhism in America. Today she's a professor of religion at Wesleyan and a truly esteemed member of the Buddhist teaching community. Dreaming Me is the story of how she got there and got there whole.

Signs of Reincarnation James G. Matlock, 2019-06-15 Signs of Reincarnation provides the first comprehensive look at the belief in reincarnation and the evidence for past lives from historical records, anthropological studies, and contemporary research. Matlock discusses various ways the evidence may be interpreted and shows that, although reincarnation entails a rejection of the materialist notion that consciousness is generated by the brain it does not require the acceptance of any radically new concepts or the abandonment of well established findings in mainstream psychology or biology This book offers students scholars and anyone interested in the possibility of reincarnation an essential grounding in beliefs cases and theory while opening doors for future research into the extension of consciousness beyond our present lives

death is how we die what minds we need at death and what happens after death only by knowing about death and rebirth can we actually fully understand what life is and so learn how to live fully Lama Zopa Rinpoche There is arguably no truth more foundational to Buddhism than this everything is impermanent We can see this in the world all around us old systems break down relationships change Death comes for those we love and inevitably for us In this book the late beloved teacher Lama Zopa Rinpoche walks us through the traditional revelatory practices of meditating on the fact of impermanence and even especially on death itself Rather than shy away from this reality we look straight at it and thus we learn not only how to not fear death but how to live

Preparing to Die Andrew Holecek, 2013-07-09 We all face death but how many of us are actually ready for it Whether our own death or that of a loved one comes first how prepared are we spiritually or practically In Preparing to Die Andrew Holecek presents a wide array of resources to help the reader address this unfinished business Part One shows how to prepare one's mind and how to help others before during and after death The author explains how spiritual preparation for death can completely transform our relationship to the end of life dissolving our fear and helping us to feel open and receptive to letting go in the dying process Daily meditation practices the stages of dying and how to work with them and after death experiences are all detailed in ways that will be particularly helpful for those with an interest in Tibetan Buddhism and in Tibetan approaches to conscious dying Part Two addresses the practical issues that surround death Experts in grief hospice the funeral business and the medical and legal issues of death contribute chapters to prepare the reader for every practical concern including advance directives green funerals the signs of death warnings about the funeral industry the stages of grief and practical care for the dying Part Three contains heart advice from twenty of the best known Tibetan Buddhist masters now teaching in the West These brief interviews provide words of solace and wisdom to guide the dying and their caregivers during this challenging time Preparing to Die is for anyone interested in learning how to prepare for death from a Buddhist perspective both spiritually and practically It is also for those who want to learn how to help someone else who is dying both during the time of illness and death as well as after death

Living, Dreaming, Dying Rob Nairn, 2004-08-03 The Tibetan Book of the Dead is one of the best known Tibetan Buddhist texts It is also one of the most difficult texts for Westerners to understand In Living Dreaming Dying Rob Nairn presents the first interpretation of this classic text using a modern Western perspective avoiding arcane religious terminology keeping his explanations grounded in everyday language Nairn explores the concepts used in this highly revered work and brings out their meaning and significance for our daily life He shows readers how the Tibetan Book of the Dead can help us understand life and self as well as the dying process Living Dreaming Dying helps readers to live deliberately and confront death deliberately One thing that prevents us from doing that according to Nairn is our tendency to react fearfully whenever change occurs But if we confront our fear of change and the unknown we can learn to flow gracefully with the unfolding circumstances of life rather than be at their mercy Of course change occurs throughout our life but a period of transition also occurs as we pass from the waking state into sleep and likewise as we pass into death Therefore the author s teachings apply equally to living as well as to dreaming and dying Through meditation instructions and practical exercises the author explains how to Explore the mind through the cultivation of deep meditation states and expanded consciousness Develop awareness of negative tendencies Use deep sleep states and lucid dreaming to increase self understanding as well as to train oneself in how to die so that one is prepared for when the time comes Confront and liberate oneself from fear of death and the unknown
