Rebuilding Capitalism Alternative Roads After Socialism And Dirigisme:

Rebuilding Capitalism Andrés Solimano, Osvaldo Sunkel, Mario I. Blejer, Mario I. Bléjer, 1994 The book considers the historical origins of the current wave of market oriented reform reviews existing controversies on the design of economic reforms and offers alternative criteria to evaluate policy performance In particular it focuses on issues of macroeconomic adjustment and stabilization liberalization policies reform of the state and interactions between economic and political transformation during the course of systemic transformation After Neoliberalism Lance Taylor, 1999 Neoliberal policy reform in Latin America is examined critically The Treuhandanstalt and Privatisation in the Former East Germany Jutta

E. Howard, 2018-12-20 This title was first published in 2001 This study explores the operation of the Treuhandanstalt the trust agency responsible for implementing the massive privatization programme launched in the former East Germany in 1990 It evaluates the level of satisfaction that stakeholder groups typically felt with regard to the agency its actions and its achievements

Restructuring Networks in Post-socialism Gernot Grabher, David Stark, 1997 In these pages leading sociologists economists and political scientists analyze current changes in Central and Eastern Europe Drawing on a range of contemporary perspectives such as evolutionary economics and network analysis they question many of the assumptions associated with the notion of transition while reporting on changes in organizational forms in Hungary Poland Eastern Germany Russia and the Czech Republic Editors Grabher and Stark offer a book that will appeal not only to students of Central and Eastern European organizational change but also to those interested in social and economic change in general

The Politics of the Postcommunist World Stephen White, Daniel Nelson, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 This series brings together the most significant journal articles to appear in the field of comparative politics since the 1970s The aim is to render accessible to teachers researchers and students an extensive range of essays as a basis for understanding established terrain and new ground

The Growth of Government and the Reform of the State in Industrial Countries Mr. Vito Tanzi, Ludger Schuknecht, 1995-12-01 This paper describes the growth of public spending in industrial countries over the past century It identifies several periods the periods between 1870 and 1913 the period between the two World Wars the post World War II period up to 1960 and the period after 1960 Public spending started growing during World War I but its growth accelerated after 1960 The paper outlines the reasons for this growth and speculates that recent government growth has not brought about much economic or social progress The paper sees the future of government mainly in setting the rules of the game and provides a rough blueprint for reform It also discusses experiences with government reform in selected countries and predicts that over the next decades public spending as a share of GDP will fall

Transition Economics Peter Luke, 2012-07-26 Celebrating twenty years of transition from socialism to capitalism this book is designed to be the core textbook for undergraduate courses in transition economics and comparative economic systems Given the passage of time Transition Economics Two Decades On reviews and accounts for the outcomes in the so called transition economies and from an academic perspective takes the reader through developments and issues in the twenty years of transition from plan to market Treating its subject matter thematically the book incorporates much of the transition economics literature and evidence that have evolved over the past two decades In particular the authors focus on the most important aspects of economic transition including The initial conditions at the outset of transition Paradigms and patterns of transition The main transition policies and economic reforms The performance of transition countries and firms The lessons from transition The textbook covers a wide range of both contemporary microeconomic and macroeconomic issues in over thirty ex socialist European and Asian countries including Russia and China Transition Economics Two Decades On is more than just a book about a particular part of the world or the transformation that was experienced at a particular time in history The authors believe that the study of the economics of transition gives the reader an insight into theories policies reforms legacies institutions processes and lessons that have application and relevance beyond the specific transition from plan to market to other parts of the world and to other times in history Roadmap to Bangalore? Almas Heshmati,Arno Tausch,2007 Looks at the global issues that cause some nations to stagnate while others rush forward

Context , Globalization Gernot Kohler,Emilio José Chaves,2003 The majority of people around the world are experiencing oppressive and destructive forces which manifest themselves in starvation income polarisation joblessness stress violence and so on What is the nature of these forces If we call them globalisation can there be good globalisation as well as bad globalisation Is this a new phenomenon or just a continuation of history as it has always been This book brings together a wide range of expertise addressing these problems from a world systems perspective
