The Inner World of Trauma Donald Kalsched,2014-02-25 Donald Kalsched explores the interior world of dream and fantasy images encountered in therapy with people who have suffered unbearable life experiences He shows how in an ironical twist of psychical life the very images which are generated to defend the self can become malevolent and destructive resulting in further trauma for the person Why and how this happens are the questions the book sets out to answer Drawing on detailed clinical material the author gives special attention to the problems of addiction and psychosomatic disorder as well as the broad topic of dissociation and its treatment By focusing on the archaic and primitive defenses of the self he connects Jungian theory and practice with contemporary object relations theory and dissociation theory At the same time he shows how a Jungian understanding of the universal images of myth and folklore can illuminate treatment of the traumatised patient Trauma is about the rupture of those developmental transitions that make life worth living Donald Kalsched sees this as a spiritual problem as well as a psychological one and in The Inner World of Trauma he provides a compelling insight into how an inner self care system tries to save the personal spirit Jung and the Jungians on Myth Steven Walker, 2014-04-08 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Geo/graphies, 2016-08-09 Preliminary Material Freeman G Henry Perilous Symmetry Exoticism and the Geography of Colonial and Postcolonial Culture A James Arnold Geographic Imagination in the Essais and Geomorphism in Montaigne Criticism Colin Dickson Aristotle in the New World Gendered Analogy in Renaissance Travel Narratives Todd W Reeser Upholstered Geographies Strategies of Containment and Dangerous Diversions in Crillon films Le sofa Sharon Diane Nell The Place of Carmen David R Ellison Psychological Geography and Sacred Space in Sand La petite Fadette James F Hamilton Geo Graphies Writing on the Earth Mother in Emile Zola La b te humaine Michael Lastinger L crivain en nomade Dynamiques spatiales et exp rience du monde chez J M G Le Cl zio Isa Van Acker L espace autofictif dans l oeuvre de Serge Doubrovsky Annie Jouan Westlund Tentative de description villes perequiennes Derek Schilling Attributs royaux chaussures No Name racines et rhizomes dans Pi ces d identit s de Mweze Ngangura Anny Dominique Curtius Postcolonial Geographies Landscape and Alienation in Clondo Sheila Petty Aventures urbaines et g ographies foresti res dans le roman canadien fran ais des ann es 1930 Thomas Vauterin Imagining Australia Avatars of the Utopian Paradigm in French Writings on Australia Jacqueline Dutton A la conqu te de notre langue Training Textual Cartographers and Literary Travelers in the Cours Moyen 2 me ann e Claire Keith A Midsummer Night's Dream: Shakespeare's Syzygy of Meaning, The Journey of Luke Skywalker Steven A. Jensen, 2004-02-01 This groundbreaking collection brings the range and diversity of post Jungian thought into the realm of contemporary literary and cultural criticism These essays explore expand critique and apply post Jungian critical theory as they revisit and reread Jung s own writings from numerous perspectives No longer treated as a source of clear unequivocal authoritative pronouncement Jung's writings are themselves subjected to critical deconstructive readings and several of the essays confront head on Jung's evident racism antifeminism anti-Semitism and political conservatism While not downplaying such charges the contributors outline an alternative post Jungian theory responsive to contemporary feminist postcolonial and poststructural concerns The result is not just a critical reinterpretation but more important a regeneration of Jungian thought

Sherwood,2004-06-02 Written by Joseph L Henderson one of the first generation of Jungian analysts and Dyane N Sherwood a practising analyst this book is a striking and unique contribution to the resurgence of interest in alchemy for its way of representing the phenomenology of creative experience Transformation of the Psyche is organized around 22 illuminated paintings from the early Renaissance alchemical manuscript the Splendor Solis and is further illustrated by over 50 colour figures The images of the Splendor Solis are possibly the most beautiful and evocative alchemical paintings to be found anywhere and they are widely known to students of alchemy Jung reproduced several Splendor Solis images in his works yet prior to this book no one has explored the symbolism of the paintings as a series in relation to the process of depth psychological transformation This book is the first scholarly study of the paintings in their entirety and of the mythological and historical allusions contained within the images Transformation of the Psyche does not simply explain or analyze the pictures but invites the reader to participate in the creative and transforming process evoked by these images Transformation of the Psyche is a truly unique book that will be of immense value and interest to analysts and psychotherapists as well as scholars of mediaeval and renaissance intellectual history and students of spiritual disciplines

Soul Loss and the Shamanic Story Michael Berman,2009-03-26 Stories from various cultures and periods of time can be identified which deal with a concept of soul loss that is essentially shamanic In shamanism soul loss is the term used to describe the way parts of the psyche become detached when we are faced with traumatic situations In shamanic terms these split off parts can be found in non ordinary reality and are only accessible to those familiar with its topography Case studies are presented to show how the way soul loss is dealt with by indigenous shamans differs from the way it is treated by neo shamanic practitioners Stories have traditionally been classified as epics myths sagas legends folk tales fairy tales parables and fables However the definitions of the terms have a tendency to overlap making it difficult to classify and categorize material For this reason a case can be made for the introduction of a new genre termed the shamanic story a story that has either been based on or inspired by a shamanic journey a numinous experience in non ordinary reality or one that contains a number of the elements typical of such a journey Within this new genre it is proposed that there exists a sub genre shamanic stories that deal specifically with soul loss and examples are presented and analysed to support this hypothesis Jungian

Psychology in Perspective Mary Ann Mattoon,1985

Digesting Jung Daryl Sharp,2001 This book grew out of the author s desire to pinpoint key passages in Jung s writings that have nourished him for years It provides readers with the main ingredients of Jung s work and suggests how they might flavor a life in search of meaning Each chapter is headed by an appetizer which is then fleshed out by the author s commentary an elucidation or experiential interpretation sometimes both meant to stimulate the reader to ruminate on the unconscious factors that influence us all Those seeking a more robust meal will be amply rewarded by following up the references

Men's Changing Roles in the Family Robert A Lewis,Marvin B Sussman,2014-05-01 How are men reacting to perceiving and behaving in light of the changes in gender roles Here is an important volume that provides new and interesting reading about contemporary husbands and fathers Men s Changing Roles in the Family offers an overview of the causes and consequences of changes in men s family roles in recent decades Experts introduce you to the issues problems and methods on the cutting edge of those disciplines that study men in the context of their families Until now relatively little has been known empirically about men in contemporary families and even less has been known about husbands and fathers from direct reports of the men themselves This groundbreaking volume successfully closes this gap in the literature with an examination of the effects that fathers growing involvement with their children have on their wives and themselves a clinical assessment of some men s angry reactions to separation and divorce and those special therapeutic goals and strategies that may help reduce their distress examinations of the conflicting demands of the work world and the family upon some contemporary husbands and fathers and the negative effects of nonstandard work schedules upon men s family life and an examination of factors that make many men unhappy in patriarchal family structures Men s Changing Roles in the Family also contributes toward breaking new ground by examining family roles now performed by special groups of men Finally this important volume reports empirical findings about men in family like relationships illustrating evidence for the unique roles that male caregivers can offer children in day care centers and reviewing current empirical studies of men s friendships and their development
