The Animation Studies Reader

Nichola Dobson, Annabelle Honess Roe, Amy Ratelle, Caroline Ruddell, 2018-10-18 The Animation Studies Reader brings together both key writings within animation studies and new material in emerging areas of the field The collection provides readers with seminal texts that ground animation studies within the contexts of theory and aesthetics form and genre and issues of representation The first section collates key readings on animation theory on how we might conceptualise animation and on some of the fundamental qualities of animation New material is also introduced in this section specifically addressing questions raised by the nature style and materiality of animation The second section outlines some of the main forms that animation takes which includes discussions of genre Although this section cannot be exhaustive the material chosen is particularly useful as it provides samples of analysis that can illuminate some of the issues the first section of the book raises

The third section focuses on issues of representation and how the medium of animation might have an impact on how bodies gender sexuality race and ethnicity are represented These representations can only be read through an understanding of the questions that the first two sections of the book raise we can only decode these representations if we take into account form and genre and theoretical conceptualisations such as visual pleasure spectacle the uncanny realism etc New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child Alice Knox Eaton,Maxine Lavon Montgomery,Shirley A. Deep in the murky depths of the Florida Everglades they may find the answer to Pansy's mysterious disappearance but truth like the past is sometimes better left where it lies. Perfect for fans of Flannery O'Connor and Dorothy Allison. The Past Is Never is an atmospheric haunting story of myths, legends, and the good and evil we carry in our hearts. Junior Ray John Pritchard, 2008-07-01. This provocative novel takes the reader on a wild ride inside the mind of a Mississippi Delta good old boy ex-deputy sheriff who is as vicious and racist as the worst 1950s/60s stereotypes. Junior Ray Loveblood narrates the story in his own profane colloquial voice, telling why he hates just about everybody and why he wants to shoot Leland Shaw, a shell-shocked World War II hero and poet who is hiding in a silo from what he believes are German patrols. Through a series of sleights of hand, misdirections, and near misses, Junior Ray and his sidekick Voyd give a dark tour of the Delta country as they chase their mysterious prey. Junior Ray's thoughts are peppered with excerpts from Shaw's notebooks, sometimes starkly different from Junior Ray's diatribe, sometimes eerily similar. And by the end of the story, it is up to the reader to sort out whose reality is more fantastic: Shaw's or Loveblood's, as the one stalks the other through the pages of this highly original and darkly comedic story. Off the Beaten Page Terri Peterson Smith, 2013.
