Sermon IV. [By J. MacL. Campbell.]), 1830* Toward More Family-Centered Family Sciences Howard M. Bahr, Kathleen S. Bahr, 2009-03-16 Much academic writing on families reflects the ideal of non involvement and distanced subject matter Toward More Family Centered Family Sciences suggests that the family sciences in their effort to be scientific have perpetuated this distance between researcher and subject to the detriment of both The authors argue that family and kinship ties are transcendent ties boundary crossing in numerous ways They place an emphasis on family love in contrast and in addition to romantic love and criticize current approaches for neglecting the importance of transcendent concepts such as love commitment respect and sacrifice in the development and well being of family structures Drawing from insights both inside and outside of academia the authors seek to reincorporate transcendent concepts into the study of the family as a unit of society They argue for a more collaborative family centered family science and offer recommendations for how family researchers might work to change the scientific monologue about families to a systemic dialogue with families Love Inspired Historical August 2013 Bundle Lyn Cote, Regina Scott, Lacy Williams, Lily George, 2013-08-01 Love Inspired Historical brings you four new titles for one great price available now for a limited time only from August 1 to August 31 Travel back in time and experience powerful and engaging stories of romance adventure and faith This Love Inspired Historical bundle includes The Baby Bequest by Lyn Cote The Courting Campaign by Regina Scott Roping the Wrangler by

Tracking God Ivana Noble, 2010-01-01 This book offers an introduction to some of the fundamental themes of theology From the very beginning however it insists on the contribution to be found in the different Christian traditions The reader is enabled to view these traditions as part of a common heritage Drawing on the wealth of these understandings of what it is to be Christian can be an inspiration for those from very different church structures and even for people who seek to understand their own spiritual journey and search for God without identifying themselves or their journey with any particular church A number of important theological questions are covered in the book It starts with a look at theological method before examining the idea of divine revelation This is followed by investigating the nature of authority and authorities in different churches and where these coincide and come into conflict The historical and cultural contexts of theology and its roots in religious experience are also examined Each theme has a biblical and patristic part as well as a genuinely reciprocal discussion involving contemporary Catholic Orthodox and Protestant theologians The Strand Magazine ,1922 The Gift of Love Andrew Staron,2017-02-01 The Gift of Love explores the intelligibility of Augustine's claim that we come to know and encounter God in and through our love Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship Andrew Staron reads Augustine's De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits Human dependence on God's initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God's self revelation transforms and saves us Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love's formative activity within the heart Jean Luc Marion's rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine's theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one's life The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God's antecedent gift of love given in the missions Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one's own love

Three to Get Married Fulton John Sheen,1951 An incisive look at right and wrong notions about sex and love The author covers marriage from practically every aspect with a view of imparting its proper role and purpose From the damage caused by indiscriminate sex education to the three basic tensions in marriage he shows the Catholic Church's teaching on marriage from the standpoints of philosophy theology and morality Moral Awareness and Animal Welfare David Lamb,2023-11-25 This book is written for researchers students and professionals in areas including animal welfare ethics animal behaviourists veterinarians veterinary nurses animal welfare counsellors animal trainers and professionals and volunteers with an interest in animal welfare ethics Several of the main areas of ethical inquiry concerning animals are introduced explained and analysed Inquiries also cover areas of cultural and religious sensitiveness regarding the welfare of animals examining the scope of respect for particular cultures and their practical approaches to animal well being Unlike many books which feature arguments about ethical theories this book includes elements of personal experience with animals Although the author is an academic teaching within a university structure he is also a professional animal trainer The Art of Freedom Juliane Rebenitsch,2018-03-15 The concept of democratic freedom refers to more than the kind of freedom embodied by political institutions and procedures Democratic freedom can only be properly understood if it is grasped as the expression of a culture of freedom that encompasses an entire form of life Juliane Rebenitsch's systematic and historical approach demonstrates that we can learn a great deal about the democratic culture of freedom from its philosophical critics From Plato to Carl Schmitt the critique of democratic culture has always been articulated as a critique of its aestheticization Rebenitsch defends various phenomena of aestheticization from the irony typical of democratic citizens to the theatricality of the political as constitutive elements of democratic culture and the notion of freedom at the heart of its ethical and political self conception This work will be of particular interest to students of Political Theory Philosophy and Aesthetics
