

BY ROYAL APPOINTMENT...

WHEN members of the Royal Family slip between the sheets, they can lie back and think of Pendle.

For Nelson textiles firm Peter Reed Group Ltd has been awarded a Royal Warrant as suppliers of bed linen to the palaces.

It means the firm can use the royal coat-of-arms on its products and letter-heads. It is already adorning the side of the factory.

The Queen's seal of approval has delighted the group's founder and chairman, Mr Peter Reed, and his son, Mark, who is managing director. They say the award is a credit to their 60-strong workforce at Nelson.

Mr Reed, whose grandfathers were both leading textile manufacturers, started the business 34 years ago in Barnoldswick. It later moved to Springfield Mill, Blacko, until the company had premises purpose-built on the Lomeshaye Industrial Estate in 1986.

The company, which exports all over the world, is famous for its high-quality Egyptian cotton sheets. Among its better-know customers are Harrods, The Conran Shop, and, in the USA, Bloomingdales. You can also sleep between Reed products at The Ritz, at Raffles Hotel in Singapore, aboard the Orient Express, and on South Africa's luxurious Blue Train.

Apart from sheets and pillow cases, the firm now produces a much larger range of bedlinen, all woven and finished in the company's own mill.

The group markets Imperial Childrenswear and Imperial Hand Embroideries, which comprise fine quality table linens, children's wear, and lingerie. It has sales offices in Madeira and New York, as well as Nelson.

An accolade for Pendle textile manufacturers

MR Peter Reed (left), founder of the Peter Reed Group Ltd, and his son, Mr Mark Reed.

Mr Mark Reed said: "We are very proud to receive this, the highest accolade. Demand for top quality linen is very strong, particularly from the USA, Japan, Germany, and South Africa.

"Nearly half our sales are to the export market, and our niche market seems to be holding up well against the recession.

"The Royal Warrant is the best acknowledgement possible of our family's contribution to the UK linen industry."

His father added: "There is no doubt the workforce here has played a big part in this, and as soon as it was confirmed I put a letter in the pay packets to say that it was a tribute to the quality of work.

"It seems that royalty is very keen on family firms getting this honour. In the past, we have supplied the Royal Household through third parties like Harrods, so we applied. We were not successful the first time, but we were asked if we were planning to apply again, and told we ought to. I would think that, in the USA, it could be very important from a marketing point of view."

Death Rites and Hawaiian Royalty Ralph Thomas Kam, 2017-11-20 The bones of Hawaii's King Kamehameha the Great were hidden at night in a secret location In contrast his successor Kamehameha III had a half mile long funeral procession to the Royal Tomb watched by thousands Drawing on missionary journals government publications and Hawaiian and English language newspapers this book describes changes in funerary practices for Hawaiian royalty and details the observance of each royal death beginning with that of Kamehameha in 1819 Funeral observances of Western royalty provided an extravagant model for their Hawaiian counterparts yet many indigenous practices endured Mourners no longer knocked out their teeth or tattooed their tongues but mass wailing feather standards and funeral dirges continued well into the 20th century Dozens of historic drawings and photographs provide rare glimpses of the obsequies of the Kamehameha and Kalakaua dynasties Descriptions of the burial sites provide locations of the final resting places of Hawaii's royalty The Pacific Reporter, 1924 Shortage of Coal, 1919 The Cheque Books of the Chapel Royal William Lovegrove, John Harley, Andrew Ashbee, Marmaduke Alford, 2019-03-26 This title was first published in 2000 The Chapel Royal holds a singular position in English ecclesiastical and musical life as a body of priests and musicians appointed by and serving the personal religious needs of the sovereign Its historical significance owes much to its location at a court which was for many centuries the centre of national power and culture It was both an instrument and a visible manifestation of policy and its history can be seen as reflecting the fortunes of government While its origins are lost its growth and membership become increasingly apparent from the 13th century and can be traced in detail from the 16th century Chief among the documents which provide evidence of the Chapel's development and administration are the two surviving Cheque Books preserved in the Archive of the Chapel Royal at St James's Palace These cover a period from Queen Elizabeth I to Queen Victoria with a few additional later entries The Old Cheque Book has been widely used by scholars since an edition was published by Edward F Rimbault in 1872 The inadequacies of this edition have however long been recognized and this new transcription has now been prepared by Andrew Ashbee and John Harley both of whom have worked previously on records of the English court and its musicians They have added transcriptions of the New Cheque Book and of the valuable personal memoranda compiled by William Lovegrove and Marmaduke Alford respectively Serjeant and Yeoman of the Vestry of the Chapel Royal The documents not only provide a register of the Chapel's personnel and their appointments but reveal many of the day to day concerns of the group of men who formed the Chapel Students of political and ecclesiastical history should find much to interest them in the details of the administration of this unique part of the royal household while musical scholars should find valuable information about an institution whose traditions span several centuries and whose members have included Orlando Gibbons and William Boyce Webster's Royal red book; or, Court and fashionable register Webster A. and co, 1847
