Reflections of African-American Peace Leaders Marvin J. Berlowitz, Eric Jackson, Nathan A. Long, 2003 These documents most of which are reprinted in full outline the wide range of approaches ideas and philosophies various Black Americans used to generate an antiwar campaign question the use of violence around the world and call attention to the emergence of international racism and social intolerance during the late 19th through the 20th centuries Through Darkness to Light Jeanine Michna-Bales, 2017-03-28 They left in the middle of the night often carrying little more than the knowledge to follow the North Star Between 1830 and the end of the Civil War in 1865 an estimated one hundred thousand slaves became passengers on the Underground Railroad a journey of untold hardship in search of freedom In Through Darkness to Light Photographs Along the Underground Railroad Jeanine Michna Bales presents a remarkable series of images following a route from the cotton plantations of central Louisiana through the cypress swamps of Mississippi and the plains of Indiana north to the Canadian border a path of nearly fourteen hundred miles The culmination of a ten year research quest Through Darkness to Light imagines a journey along the Underground Railroad as it might have appeared to any freedom seeker Framing the powerful visual narrative is an introduction by Michna Bales a foreword by noted politician pastor and civil rights activist Andrew J Young and essays by Fergus M Bordewich Robert F Darden and Eric R Jackson The Charles H. Parrishes Lawrence H. Williams, 2003 The Parrishes were an extraordinary family whose work and example influenced African Americans in Louisville and elsewhere for nearly a century Dr Williams weaves together the facts of both history and family biography to create a richly nuanced account of their lives and times This work is a rare combination an outstanding research achievement that is also eminently enjoyable and illuminating EDUCATIONAL STUDIES, 2006 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Choice, 2003 America, History and Life, 2005 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 Paperbound Books in Print, 1982 Books in Print, 1979 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997 Ralph Bunche Charles P. Henry, 1999 Activist international statesman reluctant black leader scholar icon father and husband Ralph Bunche is one of the most complicated and fascinating figures in the history of twentieth century America Bunche played a central role in shaping international relations from the 1940s through the 1960s first as chief of the Africa section of the Office of Strategic Services and then as part of the State Department group working to establish the United Nations After moving to the U N as Director of Trusteeship he became the first black Nobel Laureate in 1950 and was subsequently named Undersecretary of the U N For nearly a decade he was the most celebrated contemporary African American both domestically and abroad Today he is virtually forgotten Charles Henry s penetrating biography counters this historical tragedy recapturing the essence of Bunche s service to America and the world Moreover Henry ably demonstrates how Bunche s rise and fall as a public symbol tells us as much about America as it does about Bunche His iconic status like that of other prominent mainstream black figures like Colin Powell required a constant struggle over the relative importance of his racial identity and his national identity Henry's biography shines as both the recovered story of a classic American and as a case study in the racial politics of public service

shares his intimate views of Rod Bush's life and works. In his view, Rod's commitment to study and struggle in the service of human liberation knew no boundaries. His vision was planetary. He wrote critically and brilliantly about Black radical movements here and abroad and about the destructive power of racism, colonialism, capitalism, the modern world system, all with the goal of transforming a society based on exploitation, subjugation, and war into a society rooted in mutual benefit, life, and love. At a historical moment when the political landscape is fraught with volatility and the Movement for Black Lives and other struggles for dignity and justice gain increasing momentum, Rod's life serves as an example providing many lessons that we can draw from and practice ourselves. Rod consistently asserted that it is critical to recognize the historical leadership of those involved in struggles for Black Liberation and justice. Writ Large: For a Vision for Black Lives is indeed a vision that benefits all humanity. The anthology is edited by Melanie E. L. Bush and co-edited by Rose M. Brewer, Daniel Douglas, Loretta Chin, and Robert Newby. Contributors include Robin D. G. Kelley, Foreword: Angelo Taiwo, Bush, Chriss Sneed, Daniel Douglas, Godfrey Vincent, Matthew Birkhold, Loretta Chin, Latoya A. Lee, Tatiana Chichester, A. Kia Sinclair, Mojib Olufunk, Okome, Natalie P. Byfield, Komozi Woodard, Bob Barber, Rodney D. Coates, Charles Cappy, Pinderhughes Jr., James V. Fenelon, Walda Katz, Fishman, Jerome Scott, Rose M. Brewer, Robert Newby, Roderick D. Bush, and Melanie E. L. Bush. The anthology is a volume XII, 2019, in the Edited Collection Series of Human Architecture: Journal of the Sociology of Self-Knowledge, edited by Mohammad H. Tamdgidi. Endorsements: One look at the list of contributors to this compendium with its diverse assembly of scholars, and I knew that Rod Bush's lessons would be fully absorbed and explicated. I only wish I could have spent more time with him and been a beneficiary of his immense insights on love, liberation, and justice. Rod would be proud of the commentaries and the thoughtful devotion of the editors. Herb Boyd, writer, activist, and academic, most recently author of Black Detroit: A People's History of Self-Determination and the forthcoming Black Panther Film Paradigm Shift or Not? An Anthology, co-edited with Haki Madhubuti. Though sadly not a household name when the history of his era is written, undoubtedly the immense intellectual and political contributions of Rod Bush will not only be acknowledged but also celebrated. The volume at hand gives an indication of why this is so. Gerald Horne, author of The Apocalypse of Settler Colonialism: The Roots of Slavery, White Supremacy, and Capitalism in 17th Century North America and the Caribbean. This is a brilliant collection of essays by notable engaged scholars celebrating the life and work of Rod Bush as a whole, forming a textual critique of Bush's essential research, theory, and writing. It elucidates the most important decolonial movements of our time, including race, class, and gender; Black internationalism; Black nationalism; and Native American struggles for social justice and more. Other essays reveal the beauty and ethical stance of the man himself. The book is a treasure that social science and humanities instructors will find invaluable as a teaching text. Roxanne Dunbar Ortiz, professor emerita, author of An Indigenous Peoples History of the United States and Loaded: A Disarming History of the Second Amendment. Rod Bush was a most remarkable person. He started out as my student and became my friend and collaborator. Rod mixed first class scholarship with first class activism He became a model for all of us We shall miss him dearly The way to honor him is to emulate him We can all learn from him Immanuel Wallerstein Senior Research Scholar Yale University author of The Modern World System I IV and The World System and Africa This volume is not only a welcome tribute to a deep thinker talented organizer outstanding teacher and a caring compassionate human being It is also a rich tapestry of insights stories and images that inspires us to keep pushing until everyone everyone lives in a world of peace justice and freedom Max Elbaum author of Revolution in the Air Sixties Radicals Turn to Lenin Mao and Che A White Scholar and the Black Community, 1945-1965 August Meier, 1992 To teachers of African American history August Meier is well respected as a first rank scholar and editor But few people are aware of his formative experiences in the two decades following World War II as a white professor teaching at black colleges and as an activist in the civil rights movement This volume brings together sixteen of his essays written between 1945 and 1965 Meier has added a substantial introduction reflecting on those years and setting the context in which the essays were written John H Bracey Jr contributes an afterword which speaks to the uniqueness of Meier's experience among historians of African American studies The essays range from an analysis of the work of black sociologists in the twentieth century to an examination of race relations at predominantly black colleges in the 1950s to case studies of nonviolent direct action in which Meier participated during the early 1960s Of particular interest is an account of his debate with Malcolm X at Morgan State College in 1962 in which Malcolm X made the case for black nationalism and Meier defended the integrationist position Collected for the first time these essays provide a novel perspective on the early years of the civil rights movement and on the experience of historically black colleges such as Tougaloo Fisk and Morgan State
