The Mission To Siam, and Hué the Capital of Cochin China Thomas Stamford Raffles,2020-07-25 Reproduction of the original The Mission To Siam and Hu the Capital of Cochin China by Thomas Stamford Raffles Asiatic Review ,1901 Beginning in 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association What Makes

My Heart Sing Joseph Lum,2018-11-01 Based on the real life experiences of Joseph this book is a heartwarming collection of stories showing how he sees each situation positively and as an opportunity to do something good Narrating in a personal and simple way though wide ranging as the scope may seem to be the book offers down to earth examples of cherishing life and living to the fullest come what may Spicing up with humor here and there the stories are shared in good faith seeking to provide a delightful read for young and old alike The Architecture of the Bight of Biafra Joseph Godlewski,2024-03-06

The Architecture of the Bight of Biafra challenges linear assumptions about agency progress and domination in colonial and postcolonial cities adding an important sub Saharan case study to existing scholarship on globalization and modernity Intersected by small creeks rivulets and dotted with mangrove swamps the Bight of Biafra has a long history of decentralized political arrangements and intricate trading networks predating the emergence of the Atlantic world While indigenous merchants in the region were active participants in the transatlantic slave trading system they creatively resisted European settlement and maintained indigenous sovereignty until the middle of the nineteenth century Since few built artifacts still exist this study draws from a close reading of written sources travelers accounts slave traders diaries missionary memoirs colonial records and oral histories as well as contemporary fieldwork to trace transformations in the region s built environment from the sixteenth century to today With each chapter focusing on a particular spatial paradigm in this dynamic process this book uncovers the manifold and inventive ways in which actors strategically adapted the built environment to adjust to changing cultural and economic circumstances In parallel it highlights the ways that these spaces were rhetorically constructed and exploited by foreign observers and local agents Enmeshed in the history of slavery colonialism and the modern construction of race the spatial dynamics of the Biafran region have not been geographically delimited The central thesis of this volume is that these spaces of entanglement have been productive sites of Black identity formation involving competing and overlapping interests occupying multiple positions and temporalities and ensnaring real imagined and sometimes contradictory aims This book will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture architectural history urban geography African studies and Atlantic studies
