Lenten Reflections Milton E. Lopes, 2014-10-03 This book is written for those among us who have weathered life's storms yet sense a nagging emptiness in their spiritual well being. Lenten Reflections: From the Desert to the Resurrection is written for those of us who want to be more spiritual. It is divided into four parts. Part One sets the framework for a treatment of the study of our salvation. It is devoted to the historical roots of Lent, its purpose and its theology. To that end, this section also provides the reader with an overview of the creation story, a discussion of evil and sin, and a summary of the Trinity and the incarnation. Part Two sets the stage for an initial reflection on Lent while Part Three introduces the disciplines needed to successfully pass through the desert to spiritual wholeness. Four seminal questions are posed: Where are we? What are we? Who are we? Why are we? Answers to these questions set the stage for what many spiritual masters call the purgative way in which the Twelve Step Program of Alcoholics Anonymous is suggested as a framework to one's first steps into spiritual wholeness. At some point in their spiritual journey, the reader moves into what these same spiritual masters call the illuminative and unitive ways. Part Four is entitled The Agony and Exultation. Here we join Jesus on the road to Calvary where he is crucified. We know a mysterious joy as he rises from the tomb. We end our reflections with his departure from his disciples, the coming of the Paraclete, and a new understanding of the meaning behind Jesus' sacrifice and life on earth.

Forty Days Plus Three John J. McIlhonn, 1989 In these reflections on the readings for Lent and the Triduum, Monsignor McIlhonn invites us to ponder the consistency between what we believe about human dignity and how we live that dignity. If Lent becomes a daily journey whereby we consent to become one with the visible features of Christ's risen life, waiting to be raised from the dyings of our life, then the paschal mystery becomes a marvelous experience. Although he writes with great sensitivity and theological depth, Monsignor McIlhonn does not become pedantic nor does he go beyond the depth of the average reader. For priests, religious, and serious lay people looking for something more than pious writing about the most important season of the Church year, this book will make excellent Lenten reading.

A Time of Renewal Mary Francis, 2014-12-31 Mother Mary Francis, abbess of a Poor Clare Monastery for over forty years, left an enduring legacy in her writings and in the conferences she gave to her spiritual daughters. In this work, she presents beautiful meditations on the liturgical season of Lent, revealing the treasures of the liturgy to Christians in all walks of life. Her insight into Holy Scripture and her poet's heart engendered reflections that illuminate the daily Mass readings in a fresh and attractive way. These meditations enlighten the reader to see conversion as positive and enriching and help us to understand that the generous embrace of Lenten penance has a purpose and brings a wondrous reward deeper union with God She was a true daughter of Saint Francis of Assisi who found perfect joy by turning away from self to God As a spiritual guide Mother Mary Francis excels in the art of persuasion aware that the human heart cannot be forced but only gently led to holiness She makes this goal attractive and desirable by tirelessly explaining why striving for holiness is the happiest and wisest way to live This book provides a wealth of material for plundering the riches of the Lenten season and for deepening one's spiritual life Her meditations are profound and timeless not changing from year to year thus providing a lifetime of Lenten meditations in this one volume Forty Days of Grace Laurin Wenig,1996 Using the dual theme of hearing the word of God and working toward a change of heart Wenig develops a crescendo as he works through the readings of the days and weeks of Lent to the passion and Easter Embracing the Sacred Seasons of Lent and Easter Janis Yaekel,2005 No one goes to the desert for forty days without expecting to find someone or something there Christians by their very nature are seekers We look for direction we look for fulfillment and we look for others who want to walk the road with us We knock on the doors of the Desert Fathers and Mothers seeking shelter and wisdom Embracing the Sacred Season is a guide in this search at the center of which we hope to find God What happens when the door is opened and we know that we are in the presence of God These unique reflections for the entire seasons of both Lent and Easter based on Scripture readings are direct and help us take an honest look at our relationship with God Each is followed up by reflection questions and a prayer Let Janis Yaekel take you on a spiritual dance with God as you embrace the sacred season Rising with the Morning Star Betty Lynn Schwab,Gord Dunbar,2010-11 The Glory of These Forty Days James Tolhurst,2006 To remind us of Jesus paschal mystery here are readings and prayers for each day of Lent Sharing these reflections we can approach more closely the mystery of Christ's saving redemption and come to share more fully in the Eucharist which is its triumphant renewal Father Tolhurst leads the faithful in reflecting upon Sacred Scripture He draws on many resources from Catholic heritage Journey to the Cross Myra B. Nagel,2009-05-01 Journey to the Cross is an engaging adult study book designed to guide readers to a deeper experience of reflection meditation and prayer during the season of Lent In each session over the course of seven weeks you are invited into the Gospel of Mark in order to Come to the Story Reflect on the Story and Live the Story The themes for each week of reflections are as follows Week 1 Teacher Let Me See Week 2 She Has Done What She Could Week 3 You Will All Fall Away Week 4 Do This Remembering Me Week 5 Not What I Want but What You Want Week 6 Crucify Him Week 7 Their Eyes Were Opened Thought provoking and original this Lenten guide will inspire you to journey to the cross with Christ in a fresh and meaningful way Study questions are provided for individuals and groups
