Reflections from Canoe Country Christopher Angus,1999 On Foot in Canoe Country Nicholas J. Faber,1998

Canoe Country Reflections Larry Rice,1993 Canoe Country Roy MacGregor,2016-05-10 One of our favourite chroniclers of all things Canadian presents a rollicking personal photo filled history of the relationship between a country and its canoes From the earliest explorers on the Columbia River in BC or the Mattawa in Ontario to a doomed expedition of voyageurs up the Nile to rescue Khartoum from the author s family roots deep in the Algonquin wilderness to modern families who have canoed across the country kids and dogs included Canoe Country is Roy MacGregor s celebration of the essential and enduring love affair Canadians have with our first and still favourite means of getting around Famous paddlers have been so enchanted with the canoe that one swore God made Canada as the perfect country in which to paddle it Drawing on MacGregor s own decades spent whenever possible with a paddle in his hand this is a story of high adventure on white water and the sweetest peace in nature s quietest corners from the author best able and most eager to tell it Canoe Country Wildlife Mark Stensaas, Rooted in Rock Jim Gould,2001-06-01 In the past twenty years the Adirondacks have inspired a resident population of writers who have gained regional and national prominence using the Adirondack region as their primary setting and subject matter or at least as a significant point of departure Rooted in Rock is the first collection of its kind in more than twenty years since Paul Jamieson s Adirondack Reader What makes the volume unique though is the number of contributors who not only make the Adirondacks their subject but who make their homes in these mountains The works in this volume include contemporary essays literary nonfiction poetry short fiction and excerpted fiction and are a mix of new and previously published writings by forty three authors established as well as emerging including Bill McKibben Sue Halpern Russell Banks Alex Schoumatoff Chase Twichell Curt Stager Amy Godine and Jim Gould to name a few Canoe Country Florence P. Jaques,1979-01-01 The Extraordinary Adirondack Journey of Clarence Petty Christopher Angus,2015-02-25 Author and naturalist Christopher Angus profiles for the first time the adventurous life of Clarence Petty one of the great pioneer conservationists of the Adirondack Mountain region of New York State Raised in the heart of the Adirondack wilderness between Tupper and Saranac Lakes Petty overcame his humble beginnings and pursued a variety of careers as wilderness guide forester Civilian Conservation Corps camp director World War II pilot district ranger and aerial forest fire fighter ultimately leaving his indelible mark as a lifelong advocate for the protection of the wilderness The story of Petty s life reads like a Horatio Alger novel His father moved to the mountains in the 1880s to work as a guide His mother was a cook for one of the popular sportsmen s hotels in the area Young Clarence and his brothers enjoyed the kind of childhood freedom and independence that today s youngsters can only dream about Their father s sense of self reliance and their mother s drive to educate her sons led all three to attend college Clarence followed a path of service to the American landscape His influence on state policy regarding the Adirondack Park and especially its millions of acres of wilderness has been profound His life story provides a window into the politics of conservation in the Adirondack region from the early days of the twentieth century to the present St. Lawrence County Christopher Angus, Susan H. Wood, 2001 Since the days of the pioneers St Lawrence County s diverse waterways fertile soils and dense forests have drawn a rich cultural mix of peoples These early settlers built the colorful barns mills and lighthouses of a working community Over time the area was transformed by one of the world s busiest shipping lanes the St Lawrence Seaway by the great educational institutions of the valley and by modern industries like Corning the high tech creator of windows for the space shuttle St Lawrence County is bracketed by two great vacation meccas the Thousand Islands and the Adirondack Park Artist Frederick Remington s island retreat at Ingleneuk and Henry Rushton s Canton boat works are no longer with us but the port of Ogdensburg still boasts elegant nineteenth century homes Rushton s crafts can still be found at exhibitions at Paul Smith s College or gracing Lake Flower in the village of Saranac Lake Daily life in hamlets such as Star Lake North Creek and Blue Mountain Lake can still evoke a simpler time Canoe Country Camping Michael Furtman, 1992 Finding True North Fran

How would we fight a deadly disease that comes from beyond planet Earth When a 2 000 year old mummy is unearthed in central China investigators from all over the world fly in to Washington DC for a top secret meeting hoping to find an answer to its mysterious genetic anomalies But the scientists may have mistakenly released a new deadly disease of extraterrestrial origins in the process of examining the genetic markers of the ancient mummy The devastating human error causes a worldwide plague one that penetrates the barriers of the human immune system Sino expert Eric Logan and archaeologist Dr Marcia Kessler lead an expedition back to the icy glaciers of China to extract a much older 20 000 year old mummy which could help them formulate a cure Even as they embark on their mission the strange illness afflicts the people around them turning men into mindless monsters The team retreats to a remote Buddhist monastery and must hold off a vicious army of victims As they wrestle with the possibility that they may be the last living humans on earth someone finds an ancient burial object that may hold the key to ending the apocalyptic epidemic Skyhorse Publishing under our Night Shade and Talos imprints is proud to publish a broad range of titles for readers interested in science fiction space opera time travel hard SF alien invasion near future dystopia fantasy grimdark sword and sorcery contemporary urban fantasy steampunk alternative history and horror zombies vampires and the occult and supernatural and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller a national bestseller or a Hugo or Nebula award winner we are committed to publishing quality books from a diverse group of authors Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 The Quarterly ,1996 Library Journal ,1997

National Dreams Daniel Francis,2002-07-01 As Canadians we remember the stories told to us in high school history class as condensed images of the past the glorious Mountie the fearsome Native the Last Spike National Dreams is an incisive study of the most persistent icons and stories in Canadian history and how they inform our sense of national identity the fundamental beliefs that we Canadians hold about ourselves National Dreams is the story of our stories the myths and truths of our collective past that we first learned in school and which we carry throughout our adult lives as tangible evidence of what separates us from other nationalities Francis examines various aspects of this national mythology in which history is as much storytelling as fact Textbooks were an important resource for Francis For me these books are interesting not because they explain what actually happened to us but because they explain what we think happened to us For example Francis documents how the legend of the CPR as a country sustaining national affirming monolith was created by the company itself a group of capitalists celebrating the privately owned railway albeit one which was generously supported with public land and cash and reiterated by most historians ever since Similarly we learn how the Mounties were transformed from historical police force to mythic heroes by a vast army of autobiographers historians novelists and Hollywood filmmakers with little attention paid to the true role of the force in such incidents as the Bolshevik rebellion in which a secret conspiracy by the Government against its people was conducted through the RNWMP Also revealed in National Dreams are the stories surrounding the formation and celebration of Canadian heroes such as Louis Riel and Billy Bishop The North Country Harry Anton Auer,1906 Keywords include Ojibways Pigeon Falls Lake Superior Crees Biddequaw Peterborough North Woods Forest trading room North Country Trail Wawa Moose Factory Outdoor Illinois ,1995 The Publishers Weekly ,1997
