Sauer, 2021-09-28 The Canadian north is still a mystery to most Canadians What is it like to live in a constant winter temperature of 40 below zero with barely 2 to 3 hours of daylight What is it like to live in a community that lives off the land where a caribou hunt to provide the winter s meat is a matter of life or death The children are taught life saving proficiency skills in a very direct way by elders and grandparents Often the survival skills of hunting and fishing take precedent over learning the three R s Kirk accompanied them on hunts learning along with his students Kirk writes as he thinks in pictures Very visual he paints charming amusing and memorable tales of those who cross his path Who can forget the picture of a shaggy Cross Fox seizing a scrap of muffin racing away to bury it and then coming back for more Kirk's own illustrations highlight the book including portraits of his students and studies of everyday life in the north His words and his art capture a northern Canada that we may explore with him

Reflection of Home Letters from Vietnam Leo Dubois, 2007. In 1965, Master Sergeant Leo Dubois was ordered to Vietnam. Seventeen years in the Air Force, 37 years old with five soon-to-be-six children, he moved his family to Jacksboro, Texas, for the year and then departed for the airbase at Da Nang. Every day or two, he exchanged letters with his beloved wife, Don Leta. Her letters from home are gone, but Leo's letters survive. They tell stories of tumult on a rapidly expanding military base and the trials and humor of leading the young men under his supervision. And the letters reveal life at home, not directly but indirectly, as if in reflection. From beginning to end, and deeply, they reveal the tender affection and abiding devotion of a husband for his wife. 344 pages, 77 photographs and illustrations.

Up North James Tetrud, 2020-01-23. In 1959, a college student, Matt, is contacted by his cousin who was presumed killed during the Korean War. His cousin invites him to spend the winter break at his parents' remote lodge in northern Minnesota. Matt persuades two friends to join him, and together they drive to the lodge in a blinding blizzard. On arrival, they are shocked to find a horror scene: at the lodge, Matt's two friends and the owner of the lodge disappear after a confrontation with Matt's cousin, but Matt escapes. Matt is subsequently arrested and accused of murdering the occupants of the lodge, including his two friends, his aunt, and uncle. No evidence is found to convict Matt; however, he remains a person of interest and is restricted by the court to reside in a small town nearby. Years later, the lodge is acquired by a computer programmer and his friend, but on their initial visit to the property, they encounter several strange and frightening incidents that prompt them to investigate the history of the lodge. They find an article that details Matt's account of the 1959 incident and set out to locate him in the small local town. After they locate Matt and compare notes, they discover that Matt's cousin disappeared in northern Alaska. They then set out to locate the site of his cousin's disappearance. After an arduous trip into the Brooks Range Mountains of northern Alaska, they are captured and find themselves in a large subterranean city.
