Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, John L. Esposito, 2000-05-11 Islam is the fastest growing religion in the United States There are more Muslims in America than in Kuwait Oatar and Libya together Leaving aside immigration and conversion birthrate alone ensures that in the first part of the twenty first century Islam will replace Judaism as the nation's second largest religion Like all religious minorities in America Muslims must confront a host of difficult questions concerning faith and national identity Can they become part of a pluralistic American society without sacrificing their identity Can Muslims be Muslims in a state that is not governed by Islamic law Will the American legal system protect Muslim religious and cultural differences Is there a contradiction between demanding equal rights and insisting on maintaining a distinctively separate identity Will the secular and or Judeo Christian values of American society inhibit the Muslim practice of religious faith While the Muslims of America are indeed on the path to Americanization what that means and what that will yield remains uncertain In this thoughtful and wide ranging volume fourteen distinguished scholars take an in depth look at these issues and examine the varied responses and opinions of the Muslim community American Muslim Women, Religious Authority, and Activism Juliane Hammer, 2012-04-01 Hammer looks at the work of significant female American Muslim writers scholars and activists since 1990 using their writings as a lens for a larger discussion of Muslim intellectual production in America and beyond Centered on the controversial women led Friday prayer in March 2005 Hammer uses this event and its aftermath to address themes of faith community and public opinion While gender is the catalyst for Hammer's study her examination of these women s intellectual output touches on themes central to contemporary Islam authority tradition Islamic law justice and authenticity Citizenship, Security And Democracy Muslim Engagement With The West Wanda Krause, 2009-01-01 Citizenship Security and Democracy provides greater analysis of and seeks solutions to the challenges of citizenship security and democracy through fresh and more varied perspectives as is related to Islamic discourse and Muslim communities and their activism in the West These concerns have never been more pressing than today Democracy has been a global endeavour and concern as in its ideal form it gives promise to liberty freedoms and rights However after especially 9 11 and 7 7 securitization has become a more immediate goal making security the driving discourse today But both security and democracy are becoming ever less attainable in today s climate of increased division and cleavages along ideological lines and Islamophobia an acute problem for citizenship in humanity On September 1 3 2006 the Association of Muslim Social Scientists AMSS UK and the Foundation for Political Economic and Social Research SETA held a three day conference to explore the challenges of democracy and security and importantly explore issues around citizenship and identity of Muslim diaspora Given the backdrop to a growing political discourse on the Muslim Other framed through the events of 9 11 and 7 7 and increased tension as a result of this discourse framing the aim was to help discern causes to the major challenges facing governments and the safety freedoms and dignity of individuals globally This was attempted through the study of Islamic thought and on the ground case study research of Muslim societies and communities This conference marks one of the major events to have been organised where such a large number of scholars experts and activists from a wide range of ideological positions and professional backgrounds come together in an ambitious attempt to resolve the most pressing issues at the turn of the 21st century Editor These papers have been published to widen discourse stimulate debate and hopefully pave the way for further research Doubtless readers may agree with some of the issues raised and disagree with others but it is hoped that overall both general and specialised readers will benefit from the perspectives offered and some of the more focused issues examined in the book Reflections on God and His Creatures Dr. David Rabeeya, 2008-02-07 The concept of God has always held conflicting messages The purpose of this book is to unravel the misconceptions and mixed messages about God in monotheistic religions throughout history More people have been killed in the name of God than for any other reason Reflection upon man's manipulation of the concept of God under the guise of religion may serve the reader in his human journey God is always silent People are always talkative God has so many religions People are convinced that their religion is the right one in our spacious universe God is a commodity in the markets of humanity while he she keeps his her distance God is being manipulated by many and the eternal silence of the divine abuse continues forever The monotheists often forget that they are in the demographic minorities of the planet Most people in this world do not accept the idea of one god therefore new reflections of the monotheists concerning their negative utilization of the right God in their unique perspectives are due to be revealed to those who care about the divine defensive mode Muslims in the West Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, 2002 Contributors Introduction 3.1 Islamophobia and Muslim Recognition in Britain 19.2 Islam in France The Shaping of a Religious Minority 36 3 The Turks in Germany From Sojourners to Citizens 52 4 Islam in Switzerland Fragmented Accommodation in a Federal Country 72 5 Integration through Islam Muslims in Norway 88 6 From People s
