Reflections On Landscape:

Teresa Moller: Reflections in the Landscape, 2022-02 A leading Chilean landscape architect elucidates her guiding compositional principles and offers personal reflections on her craft Chilean landscape architect Teresa Moller born 1959 looks back at her most significant projects of the last decade in this very personal volume containing her reflections on her craft and nature Reflections in the Landscape is organized around two concepts The first is dedicated to the fundamental components of her landscape architecture earth water trees fruits and stone the second comprised of sections such as Trails Signs Essence and Silence describes her essential compositional principles In collaboration with architecture writer and curator Jimena Martignoni Moller offers her thoughts behind the creation of some of her renowned projects such as Punte Pite in Chile a dramatic staircase and footpath that descends to Chile's rocky coast or Catch the Landscape a series of travertine blocks that serve as benches along the Venetian waterfront Also included are projects in China Italy Morocco Germany and more

Landscape as Sacred Space Steven Lewis, 2005-07-15 Steven Lewis's Landscape as Sacred Space Metaphors for the Spiritual Journey invites new discussions about our spiritual journeys and allows seekers to rethink approaches to Christian spirituality and theology in light of postmodernity Landscape metaphors provide a common and accessible language to articulate one's spiritual journey Spiritual mountains deserts and valleys are dominant landscapes on our journey through life Most people have experienced the joy of a mountaintop spiritual experience the pain of spiritual deserts or perhaps the dreariness too often associated with spiritual valleys There is a tendency however to highlight spiritual mountaintops while avoiding spiritual deserts and ignoring spiritual valleys This leaves many Christians ill equipped either to deal with crises or to integrate God into ordinary life Each landscape offers rich lessons that when combined together lead us toward a maturing faith and into a deeper relationship with God Landscape as Sacred Space is intended to aid those who search for more meaningful ways to articulate their faith journey The book grants permission to struggle with life's landscapes provides safe spaces to reflect on the journey and introduces language that enables exploration and discovery

Landscape Appreciation David Jacques, 2019-12-02 This book examines the many theories of preferred landscape over the last half century and informs those readers teaching or in landscape practice of the main lines of argument so that they can make up their own minds

Poignant Landscapes Van Thi Diep, 2024-01-15 What is behind the modern soul's quest for meaning in life In the search to find belonging in our cultures lovability in our relationships worthiness in our economic and political systems and sacredness through the worshipping of all things between technology and nature what is it that we are truly looking for Even the uninspired among us cannot help but be mesmerized by beautiful landscapes find reassurance in calming landscapes and be in awe of the force of nature in powerful landscapes But how often do we stop to contemplate the existential relationship we have with these landscapes In the liminality of poignant landscapes that is the space between the external landscapes that move us and the psychological landscapes that guide us is a portal to life's most profound questions Who am I Why am I here Who do I want to be And what world do I want to live in Using the negative space found in language ecophilosopher Van Thi Diep delicately weaves together insights from her academic research study on place making and what it means to flourish as a landscape architect with personal ruminations on self acceptance belonging and healing social trauma Through these reflections she invites you on a vulnerable yet courageous journey to look inside the poignant landscapes that shape our individual soul paths as well as the ones we all share as humans here on Earth together In the wisdom of these poignant landscapes is the permission to feel the pain of being human to be loved exactly as we are without conditions and to be inspired by the sacredness of life This collection of short essays poetry and photographs wistfully mirrors the fluidity of landscapes by transcending the binaries of intellectualism and emotionality inner and outer world experiences individual and collective existence to return to what the modern soul wants most the knowing that true belonging does not exist outside of us but instead is found intuitively within

Geodesy and Aerophotography ,1969 Landscape Ethnoecology Leslie Main Johnson,Eugene S. Hunn,2012 Although anthropologists and cultural geographers have explored place in various senses little cross cultural examination of kinds of place or ecotopes has been presented from an ethno ecological perspective In this volume indigenous and local understandings of landscape are investigated in order to better understand how human communities relate to their terrestrial and aquatic resources The contributors go beyond the traditional ecological knowledge TEK literature and offer valuable insights on ecology and on land and resources management emphasizing the perception of landscape above the level of species and their folk classification Focusing on the ways traditional people perceive and manage land and biotic resources within diverse regional and cultural settings the contributors address theoretical issues and present case studies from North America Mexico Amazonia tropical Asia Africa and Europe

Applying Landscape Ecology in Biological Conservation Kevin Gutzwiller,2011-06-27 Landscape ecology and conservation biology are rapidly developing disciplines and a current synthesis of principles and applications in these two fields is needed under one cover Many managers are not applying principles of landscape ecology in efforts to conserve biota yet the loss of biological diversity could be reduced if broad scale processes and patterns were consistently considered in management and conservation decisions Bringing together insights from leaders in landscape ecology and conservation biology this book explains how our knowledge about landscape ecology can help us understand manage and maintain biodiversity Beyond explaining pertinent concepts of landscape ecology and biological conservation and describing examples of their use in management research and planning this book also distills principles for applying landscape ecology in conservation identifies gaps in current knowledge and provides research approaches to fill those voids The book is divided into five parts the first part introduces the book and discusses what landscape ecology is and why it is important to biological conservation The second deals with multiple scales connectivity and organism movement The third part discusses landscape change and how this affects biodiversity and the fourth part covers conservation planning The final part presents a synthesis that identifies overarching principles pervasive constraints and realistic prospects for applying landscape ecology in biological conservation Conservationists land use planners and ecologists will find this book to be an essential resource

Foreword by Richard T T Forman Landscape experiences as a cultural ecosystem service in a Nordic context

Lindhjem, Henrik,Reinvang, Rasmus,Zandersen, Marianne,2015-08-19 Cultural ecosystem services in the form of experiences derived from landscapes are potentially important but often overlooked Given the large and unprecedented landscape changes many of the Nordic countries are undergoing there is a need to find ways of including people s preferences and the value of landscape impacts in policy assessments and decision making processes The project aim has been to synthesize knowledge about the magnitude and value of landscape experiences and investigate current practices and examples of how landscape impacts are incorporated or not in policy assessments and decision making contexts in the Nordics The literature demonstrates potentially high unaccounted welfare loss from landscape change We find clear weaknesses in current practices that a second phase will try to address The project was carried out by Vista Analysis in Oslo and Department of Environmental Science at Aarhus University from 2014 15 Landscape Experiences as a Cultural Ecosystem Service in a Nordic Context: Concepts, Values and Decision-making Rasmus Reinvang,Marianne Zandersen,Henrik Lindhjem,2015 Cultural ecosystem services in the form of experiences derived from landscapes are potentially important but often overlooked Given the large and unprecedented landscape changes many of the Nordic countries are undergoing there is a need to find ways of including people s preferences and the value of landscape impacts in policy assessments and decision making processes The project aim has been to synthesize knowledge about the magnitude and value of landscape experiences and investigate current practices and examples of how landscape impacts are incorporated or not in policy assessments and decision making contexts in the Nordics The literature demonstrates potentially high unaccounted welfare loss from landscape change We find clear weaknesses in current practices that a second phase will try to address The project was carried out by Vista Analysis in Oslo and Department of Environmental Science at Aarhus University from 2014 15

The Landscape Ecology of Fire Donald McKenzie,Carol Miller,Donald A. Falk,2011-01-04 Global warming is expected to change fire regimes likely increasing the severity and extent of wildfires in many ecosystems around the world What will be the landscape scale effects of these altered fire regimes Within what theoretical contexts can we accurately assess these effects We explore the possible effects of altered fire regimes on landscape patch dynamics dominant species tree shrub or herbaceous and succession sensitive and invasive plant and animal species and communities and ecosystem function

Ultimately we must consider the human dimension what are the policy and management implications of increased fire disturbance and what are the implications for human communities Countryside Planning Kevin Bishop, Adrian Phillips, 2012-05-23 Annotation Major and comprehensive new volume on countryside planning and management Edited and with contributions by the leading authorities in the field Essential reading on the future of the countryside for all professionals organizations teachers and students The drivers of countryside management and conservation are increasingly international and European They aim to provide comprehensive new frameworks for the whole countryside and community driven planning and protection This book examines the impact and effectiveness of these approaches their integration and practical value drawing on a range of highly relevant case studies The result is a volume that provides a fully up to date review and analysis of the pressures on the countryside the policies for the future and the keys to successful implementation

The Photographic Times ,1913 Levelling the Lake Jamie Benidickson, 2019-02-15 Stretching across Ontario Manitoba and Minnesota the Lake of the Woods and Rainy Lake basin spans boundaries and jurisdictions Levelling the Lake explores a century and a half of social economic and legal arrangements through which the resources and environment of the Lake of the Woods and Rainy Lake watershed have been harnessed and harmed Jamie Benidickson traces the environmental consequences of mining forest industries commercial fishing hydro electricity production and recreation as well as their often unanticipated impacts on local residents including Indigenous communities which encouraged new legal and institutional responses Assessing the transition from primary resource extraction toward sustainable development at a watershed level Levelling the Lake also shows how interjurisdictional and transboundary issues many involving the Canada US International Joint Commission continue to play a significant role throughout the region Restoring Disturbed Landscapes David J Tongway, John A Ludwig, 2011 Restoring Disturbed Landscapes is a hands on guide for individuals and groups seeking to improve the functional capacity of landscapes Abundantly illustrated with photos and figures Restoring Disturbed Landscapes is an engaging and accessible work designed specifically for restoration practitioners with limited training or experience in the field It uses a five step adaptive procedure to tell restorationists where to start what information they need to acquire and how to apply this information to their specific situations Cosponsored by the Society for Ecological Restoration International and Island Press this series offers a foundation of practical knowledge and scientific insight that will help ecological restoration become the powerful reparative and healing tool that the world needs
