Reflective Practice in Education and Social Work Robyn Ewing,Fran Waugh,David L. Smith,2021-12-14 This book offers unique interdisciplinary insights into developing connections between reflective practice and employability particularly through the lenses of the education and social work professions It recognises the various meanings that can be applied to the notion of reflection and examines the challenges of using reflective practice in the workplace The chapters explore the tensions that arise from preparing professionals to be agents of change and concerned with social justice and equity Further the book provides much needed perspective on how diverse positions can be identified and leveraged and shared meanings negotiated in the creation of meaningful professional learning resources for early career teachers and social workers and across the career continuum Bringing together contributions from internationally renowned scholars Reflective Practice in Education and Social Work is essential reading for early career and experienced professionals in education and social work academics and practitioners seeking further professional development in reflective practice

Reflection Mrs. Hofland (Barbara),1835 Monstrous Reflection Petra Rehling,Elsa Bouet,2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 By engaging and questioning existing definitions and ideas all of the essays in this volume represent the idea of a monstrous reflection in one way or another Monsters can serve as a means to explore the cultural anxieties they embody and the reasons for these anxieties Thus monsters act as mirrors highlighting the causes for the creation of categories A reflection can also be a comment or statement applicable in that the monstrous or the word monster becomes a label of otherness and exclusion This label is sometimes a construction a discursive and rhetorical trope which only serves to other those deemed different or undesirable suggesting that the monster might not always be monstrous This volume is about the ones gazing into the mirror and the things staring back at humanity along with the uncomfortable truths that are revealed in the process

We Need to Talk About Africa Tom Young,2018-03-01 If you boil a kettle twice today you will have used five times more electricity than a person in Mali uses in a whole year How can that be possible Decades after the colonial powers withdrew Africa is still struggling to catch up with the rest of the world When the same colonists withdrew from Asia there followed several decades of sustained and unprecedented growth throughout the continent So what went wrong in Africa And are we helping to fix it or simply making matters worse In this provocative analysis Tom Young argues that so much has been misplaced our guilt our policies and our aid Human rights have become a cover for imposing our values on others our shiniest infrastructure projects have fuelled corruption and our interference in domestic politics has further entrenched conflict Only by radically changing how we think about Africa can we escape this

An Episode in One Act Emily S. Ford, 1882 Estonian Parties at Present and a Generally Reflection on Their Importance to a Modern Democracy Matthias Will, 2009-04 Essay from the year 2007 in the subject Politics International Politics Region Russia grade 1 0 Andr ssy Gyula Deutschsprachige Universit t Budapest course Comparative History of Estonia and Nordic Cultures language English abstract The biggest winner of the election in 2007 was the party of the non voters They got nearly 39 % In the first two parliamentary elections after the independence in 1991 the part of the non voters was about 32 % 1992 and 31 % 1995 The peak was in 1999 43 % of people didn t go the election Reetz is speaking about a gap between the political problems and the interests of the people Because of the perception of the elites is different from the ordinary people s perception It is very surprising that nearly every party which is in the Riigikogu is centre centre right or liberalistic Maybe this is a result of the Soviet occupation and the experiences of this time However in the future there could be a general movement to the left because the competition on the democratic right could become too strong After all parties are not static they have to change themselves if they want to participate because they are a part of the society and the society changes too On the other hand the result of a free competition is parties will fill political gaps by changing their attitudes to achieve new voters
