The Dynamics of the Early Reformation in their Reformed Augustinian Context Robert Christman, 2025-10-01 On 1 July 1523 Johann van den Esschen and Hendrik Voes two Augustinian friars from Antwerp were burned on the Grand Plaza in Brussels thereby becoming the first victims of the Reformation Despite being well known the event barely registers in most Reformation histories By tracing its origins and examining the impact of the executions on Martin Luther on the Reformed Augustinian world and on the early Reformation in the Low Countries and the German speaking lands this study definitively demonstrates that the burnings were in fact the d nouement of broader trends within Late Medieval Reformed Augustinianism as well as a watershed in the early Reformation In doing so it also reveals the central role played by the Augustinian friars of Lower Germany in shaping both the content and spread of the early Reformation as well as Wittenberg s influence on the events leading up to these first executions Winner of the Gerald Strauss Book Prize awarded by the Sixteenth Century Society Conference for the best book in the field of German Reformation history

Barker,2016-04-15 Antoine de Chandieu 1534 1591 was a key figure in the establishment and development of the French Protestant Church Of all its indigenous leaders he was perhaps closest to Calvin and took a leading role in all the major debates about resistance church order and doctrine of the Church He was also a prodigious writer of political religious and poetical works whose output corresponds to a period of great turmoil in the progress of the French Church Chandieu was uniquely placed not merely to engage and contribute to the great debates of the day but also to record ongoing events By illuminating his career which meshed almost exactly with the French Wars of Religion this book not only demonstrates the key role Chandieu s played in the development of French Protestantism but also highlights the vital role of literature in shaping the religious experience of the wars Offering the first systematic evaluation of Chandieu s vernacular works this study questions many of the assumptions made about his motivations and aims and how these developed over a thirty year period His writings were contemporaneous with progress in the worlds of politics theology and poetry worlds in which he played a notable if not well documented role As a corpus these works show the development of one man s understanding of his ideology over a lifetime actively spent in the pursuit of making that ideology a reality Chandieu the young political hothead became Chandieu the defender of Calvinist theology who in turn matured into Chandieu the elder statesman The interest lies in where these changes occurred how they were reflected in Chandieu s writing and what they demonstrate about being Calvinist and a representative of one s faith in a time of disorder As such this book provides not only a reappraisal of the man and his publications but presents an intriguing perspective on the development of French Protestantism during this turbulent time
