Reframing Business When The Map Changes The Landscape:

Reframing Business Richard Normann, 2001-07-10 In 1983 Richard Normann published the world's first book presenting an integrated framework on the management of service producing companies. Now he provides a new approach to strategy, an original way to think about organisations and create a different future. In this demanding but rewarding book he shows that providing organisations are prepared to rethink the way they do business, they can occupy the competitive high ground of the future. To do this they must transform concepts and frameworks into action. Provides new business models. Shows companies how to reframe their business and take advantage of the opportunities created in the space of unbundling and rebundling.

Reframing Business Richard Normann, 2001 Solution Business Kaj Storbacka, Risto Pennanen, 2014-02-07 Success in solution business starts by accepting that solution business is a separate business model, not simply another product category or an extension of the existing product business. This book identifies the business model areas that firms need to focus on when transforming into solution business. It further organizes these areas into three sets of capabilities and practices: commercialization, industrialization, and solution platforms. This is the first book to take a comprehensive view of success in solution business and its relevance; therefore, it extends to all functions of firms wanting to become solution providers as well as to many managerial levels. The book will also help you self-assess how ready your organization is for success in solution business.

Also the possible pathways for evolutionary transformation of consulting practices, models and roles that consulting firms could follow if they want to take advantage of the important changes that are taking place are looked at. Next a definition of management consulting is proposed which aims to identify the distinctive ontological, real, essential and relatively stable features of this particular service and emphasizes the mainly cognitive nature of its value creation potential. Furthermore two approaches to interpreting management consulting are discussed: the diachronic approach and the synchronic approach. To conclude the theories interpreting knowledge creation processes as knowledge conversion processes are explained and applied to the specific context of management consulting relationships.
