The Internal Protection Alternative in Refugee Law Jessica Schultz, 2018-12-10 Under what circumstances can a state refuse refugee status to a person whose risk of persecution exists in only part of her country of origin This book is the first monograph to examine the treaty basis and criteria for the internal protection alternative IPA an exception to refugee status increasingly invoked by state parties to the 1951 Refugee Convention and its 1967 Protocol Through a critical analysis of the relationship between refugee law and related fields Schultz finds that the legal scope for IPA practice is narrower than is commonly claimed Since persons subject to an IPA analysis have a well founded fear of persecution within their countries of origin any limit on their right to refugee status must involve a careful balancing of the impact of continued displacement against the state's interest in preserving its restricted protection resources She argues that the doctrine of implied limits in human rights law can provide analytic structure to the IPA concept and reduce the risk of overly broad application

Integration in Times of Security Challenges Andreas Kellerhals, 2025-03-21 The European Commission's Enlargement Package 2023 proposed opening accession negotiations with Ukraine, Moldova, and Bosnia and Herzegovina while granting candidate status to Georgia, bringing the total to seven candidate states and two potential candidates. Ensuring compliance with the Copenhagen criteria remains a key challenge alongside necessary institutional reforms, particularly regarding EU decision making and unanimity rules. In migration policy, the adoption of the New Pact on Migration and Asylum in December 2023 marked a major step toward a unified approach. Based on solidarity, shared responsibility, and human rights, it aims to improve long-term migration management, though implementation remains a challenge. Meanwhile, the EU continues to navigate its digital and green transitions. A milestone in 2023 was the adoption of the world's first legal framework for AI regulation, reflecting the EU's ambition to set global standards, though its impact on the digital economy remains uncertain. This publication explores these key developments, highlighting the interplay between policy making and societal engagement in a shifting geopolitical landscape. It features contributions from Fatlum Ademi, Jelena Ceranic Perisic, Viorel Cibotaru, Iris Goldner, Lang Christos V, Gortsos, Gabor Halmai, Dorian Jano, Andreas Kellerhals, Maroje Lang, Lee McGowan, Roman Petrov, Clara Portela, and Juan Santos Vara. Network Europe was founded in 2003 by the Europa Institute at the University of Zurich with support from the Swiss government. It serves as a forum for scholarly exchange on legal and political aspects of European integration, bringing together researchers from across Europe.

Challenges, risks and threats for security in Europe Andreas Kellerhals, Tobias Baumgartner, 2019-12-06 This publication brings together talks from the 11th Network Europe conference. Discussions focused on major security challenges such as cybercrime and migration, as well as institutional aspects, including the concept of a European army and the role of neutral states in an evolving security landscape. The publication features contributions from Vadym Barsky, Tobias Baumgartner, Jelena Ceranic, Viorel Cibotaru, Aleksei Dolzhikov, Alena F. Douhan, Darina Dvornichenko, Itay Fishhendler, Andreas Kellerhals, Verena Murschetz, Przemyslaw Saganek, Jürgen Scheffran, and Attila Vincze. States, the Law and Access to Refugee Protection Maria O'Sullivan, Dallal Stevens, 2017-03-23 This timely volume seeks to examine two of the most pertinent current challenges faced by asylum seekers in gaining access to international refugee protection: first, the obstacles to physical access to territory, and second, the barriers to accessing a quality asylum procedure, which the editors have termed access to justice To address these aims the book brings together leading commentators from a range of backgrounds including law sociology and political science It also includes contributions from NGO practitioners This allows the collection to offer interdisciplinary analysis and to incorporate both theoretical and practical perspectives on questions of immense contemporary significance While the examination offers a strong focus on European legal and policy developments the book also addresses the issues in different regions Europe North America the Middle East Africa and Australia Given the currency of the questions under debate this book will be essential reading for all scholars in the field of asylum law
