Refugee Studies and Politics Susanne Binder, Jelena Tošić, 2002 Intersectional Knowledges Susan Arndt, Nihan Duran, Mario Faust-Scalisi, Gülten Gizem Fesli, Louisa Kamrath, 2024-11-22 Intersectionality is a transformative framework that transcends traditional social categorizations emphasizing the interconnectedness of identities like class race and gender The contributors to this volume offer profound insights into the complexities of human experiences social structures and power dynamics Unique in its global perspective their analysis incorporates critical voices from the Global South and examines minority experiences in the Global North It aims to carry the tradition of intersectionality as a social critical theory to the European context and addresses key issues in German academia proposing new definitions and structures to advance Intersectionality Studies This poses an essential invitation to critically engage with and reshape existing power structures in the production of knowledge Debating the End of Yugoslavia Florian Bieber, Armina Galijaš, 2016-05-13 Countries rarely disappear off the map In the 20th century only a few countries shared this fate with Yugoslavia The dissolution of Yugoslavia led to the largest war in Europe since 1945 massive human rights violations and over 100 000 victims Debating the End of Yugoslavia is less an attempt to re write the dissolution of Yugoslavia or to provide a different narrative than to take stock and reflect on the scholarship to date New sources and data offer fresh avenues of research avoiding the passion of the moment that often characterized research published during the wars and provide contemporary perspectives on the dissolution The book outlines the state of the debate rather than focusing on controversies alone and maps how different scholarly communities have reflected on the dissolution of the country what arguments remain open in scholarly discourse and highlights new innovative paths to study the period Cities in Contemporary Africa M. Murray, G. Myers, 2007-01-08 This book explains how and why cities on the African continent have grown at such a rapid pace how municipal authorities have tried to cope with this massive influx of people and how long time urban residents and newcomers interact negotiate and struggle over access to limited resources Memory and Migration Andreas Kitzmann, 2011-01-01 Julia Creet is an associate professor in the Department of English at York University Religious Credibility under Fire Leif-Hagen Seibert, 2018-02-05 Leif Hagen Seibert carries out a three step praxeological analysis of empirical data from field studies in the research project The ethos of religious peace builders that allows for novel assessments of societal conjuncture field theory subjective meaning habitus analysis and the mutual rules of engagement of religious practice the religious nomos Over the course of this three step argument the sociological concept of religious credibility i e the determinants of religious legitimacy gains more and more contours and facilitates the reevaluation of risks and chances in a peace process where religion is a vector for both peace and division Contemporary Issues in Socio-cultural Anthropology Barbara Plankensteiner, Stefan Khittel, Maria Six-Hohenbalken, 2004 Integracija kot èlovekova pravica Natalija Vreèer, 2007-01-01

Losing Place Johnathan Bascom, 2001-09-01 Refugee flight settlement and repatriation are not static self contained or singular events Instead they are three stages of an ongoing process made and mirrored in the lives of real people For that reason there is an evident need for historical and longitudinal studies of refugee populations that rise above description and trace the process of social transformation during the full circle of flight resettlement and return home This book probes the economic forces and social processes responsible for shaping the everyday existence for refugees as they move through exile

Refugee Politics in the Middle East and North Africa A. Ullah, 2014-05-15 Ahsan Ullah provides an insightful analysis of migration and displacement in the Middle East and North Africa He examines the intricate relationship of these phenomena with human rights safety concerns and issues of identity crisis and identity formation

The Sage Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies Yen Le Espiritu, 2025-09-01 Refugees and displacement are defining issues of the 21st century with over 70 million asylum seekers refugees and stateless individuals forced from their homes as of 2020 Every two seconds one person is forcibly displaced due to climate change global epidemics and ongoing conflicts The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies edited by members of The Critical Refugee Studies Collective serves as a vital and comprehensive resource for understanding the historical political and cultural dimensions of displacement Featuring over 250 authoritative articles this landmark reference work is organized into three key themes law politics and policy humanitarianism and humanitarian organizations and media culture and storytelling Drawing from disciplines such as migration studies Indigenous studies critical race studies environmental studies sociology political science law anthropology and the arts this encyclopedia critically examines refugee issues in relation to imperialism racism patriarchy and militarism Beyond academic analysis The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies centers refugee voices through narratives first person accounts and visual storytelling highlighting the lived experiences communities and creative expressions of displaced individuals This essential resource is invaluable for scholars educators policymakers community based organizations and refugees themselves Relocation Failures in Sri Lanka Robert Muggah,2013-04-04 Each year millions of people are internally displaced and resettled in the wake of wars and floods or to make way for large scale development projects and this number is increasing Humanitarian and development specialists continue to struggle with designing and executing effective protection strategies and durable solutions Relocation Failures explains how internal displacement and efforts to engineer resettlement are conceived and practiced by policy makers and practitioners The author argues that policies for internally displaced peoples are weak and diluted by narrow interpretations of state sovereignty and collective action dilemmas and in the case of Sri Lanka unintentionally intensified ethnic segregation and ultimately war This unique new book considers the origins and parameters of internal displacement and resettlement policy and practice and proposes an explanation for why it often fails In highlighting the ways that development assistance can exacerbate smoldering conflicts the volume provides an important caution to the aid community The Migration-Displacement Nexus Khalid Koser,Susan Martin,2011-09-01 The migration displacement nexus is a new concept intended to capture the complex and dynamic interactions between voluntary and forced migration both internally and internationally Besides elaborating a new concept this volume has three main purposes the first is to focus empirical attention on previously understudied topics such as internal trafficking and the displacement of foreign nationals using case studies including Afghanistan and Iraq the second is to highlight new challenges including urban displacement and the effects of climate change and the third is to explore gaps in current policy responses and elaborate alternatives for the future PEACE STUDIES, PUBLIC POLICY AND GLOBAL SECURITY - Volume I Ursula Oswald Spring, Ada Aharoni, Ralph V. Summy, Robert Charles Elliot,2010-07-24 Peace Studies Public Policy and Global Security is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Peace Studies Public Policy and Global Security provides the essential aspects and a myriad of issues of great relevance to our world such as Processes of Peace and Security International Security Peace Development and Environment Security Threats Challenges Vulnerability and Risks Sustainable Food and Water Security World Economic Order This 11 volume set contains several chapters each of size 5000 30000 words with perspectives issues on Peace studies Public Policy and Global security These volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs Making Global Institutions Work Kate Brennan,2014-09-19 This book seeks to think differently about what we recognize as global institutions and how they could work better for the people who need them most By so doing the contributions show that there is a group of institutions that influence enough people's lives in significant enough ways through what they protect provide or enable that they should be considered together as global institutions The United Nations the World Bank the internet as well as private military and security companies leave a heavy footprint on the social political and economic landscape of the planet We are all aware in different ways of the existence of these global institutions but their importance in achieving change in the twenty first century is often underestimated In this book contributors seek to explain what associations exist between change in global institutions and the reduction of poverty and inequality as well as the achievement of security and justice The work makes sense of processes of change and identifies the most significant obstacles that exist offering suggestions for future action that will be of interest to students and scholars of global institutions

Citizenship, Nationalism and Refugeehood of Rohingyas in Southern Asia Nasreen Chowdhury, Biswajit Mohanty, 2020-05-19 This book provides an in depth investigation of citizenship and nationalism in connection with the Rohingya community It analyses the processes of production of statelessness in South Asia in general and with regard to the Rohingyas in particular Following the persecution of the Rohingya community in Myanmar Burma by the military and the Buddhist militia a host of texts mostly descriptive have examined the historical political and cultural roots of the genocidal massacre and the flight of its victims to South Asia and South East Asian countries The UNHCR reports describe the plight of Rohingyas during and after their journey while other works focus on the political economic roots of this ethnic conflict and its consequences for the Rohingyas To date very few theoretical insights have been provided on the Rohingya issue This book seeks to fill that gap and explores a dialogue between the state and its citizens and non citizens that results in the production of statelessness In theoretical terms the book addresses the construction of citizens and non citizens on the part of the state and the process of symbolic othering achieved through various state practices couched in terms of nationalism Extensive case studies from India Myanmar and Bangladesh provide the foundation for a robust theoretical argument Given its scope the book will be of interest to students academics and researchers with a focus on political economy in South Asia in general and or refugee studies in particular
