Restoring Power to Parents and Places Richard S. Kordesh,2011-11-04 To progress successfully through all of their stages of development children need to grow up in good communities Good communities do not occur without viable productive families In Restoring Power to Parents and Places author Richard Kordesh makes a compelling call for the productive familys renewal and provides creative steps for parents professionals and policymakers to take to strengthen communities around all children Kordeshs experiences as a planner professor and father have taught him that productive families are vitally important to the creation of good communities around children He details historically and with contemporary examples the forces in our society that place stresses on families in all sectors Restoring Power to Parents and Places presents a pointed critique of economic and political forces that have harmed families but it also offers practical suggestions for action by parents community leaders community development and planning professionals and governments at the local state and federal levels Restoring Power to Parents and Places celebrates the productive potentials of a familys habitat and it provides tools for empowering familiesgiving them more time and ability to raise their children New Sketches of Every-day Life Fredrika Bremer,1853

War and Embodied Memory Maria Berghs,2016-02-17 How do you become an amputee war wounded victim or disabled person This book describes how an amputee and war wounded community was created after a decade long conflict 1991 2002 in Sierra Leone Beginning with a general socio cultural and historical analysis of what is understood by impairment and disability it also explains how disability was politically created both during the conflict and post conflict as violence became part of the everyday Despite participating in the neoliberal rebuilding of the nation state ex combatants and the security of the nation were the government s main priorities not amputee and war wounded people In order to survive people had to form partnerships with NGOs and participate in new discourses and practices around disability and rights thus accessing identities of disabled or persons with disabilities NGOs charities and religious organisations that understood impairment and disability were most successful at aiding this community of people However since discourse and practice on disability were mainly bureaucratic top down and not democratic about mainstreaming disability neoliberal organisations and INGOs have caused a new colonisation of consciousness and amputee and war wounded people have had to become skilled in negotiating these new forms of subjectivities to survive
