

BOY FRANCKY (1954-)

Né à Paris en 1954, Francky Boy est un artiste autodidacte, formé par de nombreuses rencontres et la pratique de diverses techniques liées à la communication. Après des débuts de réalisateur de films, il s'intéresse à la peinture en 1981 en participant au groupe « Les musulmans fumants ». Il réalise avec eux des performances où la peinture devient spectacle, parfois de rue. Il expose régulièrement à Londres et à Paris puis émigre aux États-Unis. Là, il est séduit par le travail de Roy Lichtenstein et Keith Haring avec ses « Pop Shop ». Fan de comics, il crée son propre style figuratif et invente un langage poétique habité par ses personnages fétiches : girafe, escargot...

Il rend hommage dans de nombreuses œuvres (peinture, sculpture, bas-relief, vidéo) au cinéma ainsi qu'à de nombreux maîtres anciens et contemporains qu'il ne craint pas de bousculer. Il réalise ainsi de nombreuses toiles d'après Manet, Van Gogh, Magritte, Warhol, Picasso...

Revenu en France, Francky Boy, poursuit une carrière atypique dont l'humour et la dérision face à l'art sont une des composantes essentielles.

Born in Paris, Francky Boy is a self-taught artist, trained as a result of many different encounters and by practicing various techniques connected with communications. After embarking on a career as a film director, he became interested in painting in 1981 after taking part in "Les musulmans fumants" (The Smoking Muslims) group. With them he put on performances in which painting became spectacle, and sometimes street spectacle. He had regular exhibitions in London and Paris, and then emigrated to the United States. There, he was won over by the work of Roy Lichtenstein and Keith Haring with his "Pop Shops." As a comic buff, he created his own figurative style and invented a poetic language peopled by his fetish characters, the giraffe, and snail.

In many works (painting, sculpture, bas-relief) he paid tribute to film as well as to many masters, old and contemporary alike, whom he did not shrink from jibing with. He thus produced many canvases based on works by Manet, Van Gogh, Magritte, Warhol, and Picasso.

Back in France, Francky Boy has pursued an atypical career in which wit and mockery towards art play a leading part.
