Religion In Europe At The End Of The Second Millennium:

Religion in Europe at the End of the Second Millennium Andrew M. Greeley, 2004 Religion in Europe at the End of the Second Millennium Andrew M. Greeley, 2017-07-05 Most sociologists of religion describe a general decline in religious faith and practice in Europe over the last two centuries The secularizing forces of the Enlightenment science industrialization the influence of Freud and Marx and urbanization are all felt to have diminished the power of the churches and demystified the human condition In Andrew Greeley s view such overarching theories and frameworks do not begin to accommodate a wide variety of contrasting and contrary social phenomena Religion at the End of the Second Millennium engages the complexities of contemporary Europe to present a nuanced picture of religious faith rising declining or remaining stable

Sacred and Secular Pippa Norris, Ronald Inglehart, 2004-09-20 Seminal thinkers of the nineteenth century Auguste Comte Herbert Spencer Emile Durkheim Max Weber Karl Marx and Sigmund Freud all predicted that religion would gradually fade in importance and cease to be significant with the emergence of industrial society The belief that religion was dying became the conventional wisdom in the social sciences during most of the twentieth century During the last decade however the secularization thesis has experienced the most sustained challenge in its long history The traditional secularization thesis needs updating Religion has not disappeared and is unlikely to do so Nevertheless the concept of secularization captures an important part of what is going on This book develops a theory of secularization and existential security Sacred and Secular is essential reading for anyone interested in comparative religion sociology public opinion political behavior political development social psychology international relations and cultural change Post-Secular Society Gustaaf

Geeraerts, 2017-07-28 Post Secular Society argues for several characteristics of the secular the experience of living in a secular age and the experience of living without religion as a normal condition Religion in the West is often seen as marked by both innovation and disarray In spite of differing approaches and perspectives of secularization rational choice and de secularization many scholars agree that the West is experiencing a general resurgence of religion across most Western societies Post Secular Society discusses the changes in religion related to globalization and New Age forms of popular religion The contributors review religion that is rooted in the globalized political economy and the relationship of post secularism to popular consumer culture Also reviewed is innovative discourse as a religious belief system theories of the post secular religious and spiritual well being and healing practices in Finland and environmentalism This paperback edition includes a new preface by Peter Nynas Democracy and the New Religious Pluralism Thomas Banchoff, 2007-06-07 In this book a group of leading scholars including Peter Berger John Esposito Robert Wuthnow Martha Nussbaum Diana Eck Stanley Hauerwas and Miroslav Volf examines the new religious pluralism and the challenges it poses for democratic societies on both sides of the Atlantic The SAGE Handbook of the Sociology of Religion James A Beckford, Jay Demerath, 2007-10-29 In their introduction to this Handbook the editors affirm Many sociologists have come to realise that it makes no sense now to omit religion from the repertoire of social scientific explanations of social life I wholeheartedly agree I also suggest that this wide ranging set of essays should become a starting point for such enquiries Each chapter is clear comprehensive and well structured making the Handbook a real asset for all those engaged in the field Grace Davie University of Exeter Serious social scientists who care about making sense of the world can no longer ignore the fact that religious beliefs and practices are an important part of this world This Handbook is a valuable resource for specialists and amateurs alike The editors have done an exceptionally fine job of incorporating topics that illuminate the range and diversity of religion and its continuing significance throughout the world Robert Wuthnow Princeton University At a time when religions are increasingly affecting and affected by life beyond the narrowly sacred sphere religion everywhere seems to be caught up in change and conflict In the midst of this contention and confusion the sociology of religion provides a rich source of understanding and explanation This Handbook presents an unprecedentedly comprehensive assessment of the field both where it has been and where it is headed Like its many distinguished contributors its topics and their coverage are truly global in their reach The Handbook s 35 chapters are organized into eight sections basic theories and debates methods of studying religion social forms and experiences of religion issues of power and control in religious organizations religion and politics individual religious behaviour in social context religion self identity and the life course and case studies of China Eastern Europe Israel Japan and Mexico Each chapter establishes benchmarks for the state of sociological thinking about religion in the 21st century and provides a rich bibliography for pursuing its subject further Overall the Handbook stretches the field conceptually methodologically comparatively and historically An indispensable source of guidance and insight for both students and scholars Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2009 The Cambridge Companion to Atheism Michael Martin, 2006-10-30 In this 2007 volume eighteen of the world s leading scholars present original essays on various aspects of atheism its history both ancient and modern defense and implications The topic is examined in terms of its implications for a wide range of disciplines including philosophy religion feminism postmodernism sociology and psychology In its defense both classical and contemporary theistic arguments are criticized and the argument from evil and impossibility arguments along with a non religious basis for morality are defended These essays give a broad understanding of atheism and a lucid introduction to this controversial topic Church Growth in Britain David Goodhew, 2017-05-15 There has been substantial church growth in Britain between 1980 and 2010 This is the controversial conclusion from the international team of scholars who have drawn on interdisciplinary studies and the latest research from across the UK Such church growth is seen to be on a large scale is multi ethnic and can be found across a wide range of social and geographical contexts It is happening inside mainline denominations but especially in specific regions such as London in newer churches and amongst ethnic minorities Church Growth in Britain provides a forceful critique of the notion of secularisation which dominates much of academia and the media and which conditions the thinking of many churches and church leaders This book demonstrates that whilst decline is happening in some parts of the church this needs to be balanced by recognition of the vitality of large swathes of the Christian church in Britain Rebalancing the debate in this way requires wholesale change in our understanding of contemporary British Christianity

The European Culture Area Alexander B. Murphy, Terry G. Jordan-Bychkov, Bella Bychkova Jordan, 2008-08-28 A sixth edition of this book is now available Now in a fully updated fifth edition this premier text has been thoroughly revised to reflect the sweeping changes the past decade has brought to Europe Long hailed for its creativity and intellectual depth the book is now further enriched by the expertise of a new lead author noted geographer Alexander B Murphy In this edition he has focused on Europe's role in the wider world and incorporated new research and teaching approaches in regional geography The topical organization including environment ethnicity religion language demography politics industry and urban and rural life offers students a holistic understanding of the diverse European culture area

Conflict and Consensus Bernadette Hayes, Richard Sinnott, 2005-12-01 This study presents a detailed comparison of cultural values and attitudes in the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland It is based on survey data covering the period from the 1970s to 2003 but focusing especially on the European Values Study EVS as fielded in the two parts of Ireland in 1999 2000 The study confirms the deep divisions in identity and political allegiance that separate the Catholic and Protestant communities in Northern Ireland But it also shows that on many issues Protestants and Catholics on the island of Ireland are culturally more similar to each other than to any other national population in Europe including Britain

The European Reception of John D. Caputo's Thought Martin Koci, Joeri Schrijvers, 2022-10-27 This book gathers the European reception of John D Caputo's proposal for a radical theology of our time Philosophers and theologians from within Europe respond to Caputo's attempt to configure a less rigid less dogmatic form of religion These scholars in turn receive responses by Caputo This volume so aims to strengthen the development of radical theology in Europe and abroad

God's Continent Philip Jenkins, 2007-05-11 Is the Christian church in Europe doomed to collapse under the weight of globalization Western secularism and a flood of Muslim immigrants Is Europe on the brink of becoming Eurabia Though many pundits are predicting just such a scenario God's Continent reveals the flaws in these arguments and offers a much more measured assessment of Europe's religious future While frankly acknowledging current tensions Philip Jenkins shows for instance that the overheated rhetoric about a Muslim dominated Europe is based on politically convenient myths that Europe is being imperiled by floods of Muslim immigrants exploding Muslim birth rates and the demise of European Christianity He points out that by no means are Muslims the only new immigrants in Europe Christians from Africa Asia and Eastern Europe are also pouring into the Western countries and bringing with them a vibrant and enthusiastic faith that is helping to transform the face of European Christianity Jenkins agrees that both Christianity and Islam face real difficulties in surviving within Europe's secular culture But instead of fading away both have adapted and are adapting Yes the churches are in decline but there are also clear indications that Christian loyalty and devotion survive even as institutions crumble The third book in an acclaimed trilogy that includes The Next Christendom and The New Faces of Christianity God's Continent offers a realistic and historically grounded appraisal of the future of Christianity in a rapidly changing Europe Faith as an Option Hans Joas, 2014-09-03 Many people these days regard religion as outdated and are unable to understand how believers can intellectually justify their faith Nonbelievers have long assumed that progress in technology and the sciences renders religion irrelevant Believers in contrast see religion as vital to society's spiritual and moral well being But does modernization lead to secularization Does secularization lead to moral decay Sociologist Hans Joas argues that these two supposed certainties have kept scholars from serious contemporary debate and that people must put these old arguments aside in order for debate to move forward The emergence of a secular option does not mean that religion must decline but that even believers must now define their faith as one option among many In this book Joas spells out some of the consequences of the abandonment of conventional assumptions for contemporary religion and develops an alternative to the cliché of an inevitable conflict between Christianity and modernity Arguing that secularization comes in waves and stressing the increasing contingency of our worlds he calls upon faith to articulate contemporary experiences Churches and religious communities must take into account religious diversity but the modern world is not a threat to Christianity or to faith in general On the contrary Joas says modernity and faith can be mutually enriching

The Catholic Church in Ireland Today John C. Waldmeir, David Carroll Cochran, 2015-01-22 From a Church that once enjoyed devotional loyalty political influence and institutional power unrivaled in Europe the Catholic Church in Ireland now faces collapse Devastated by a series of reports on clerical sexual abuse challenged publicly during several political battles and painfully aware of plunging Mass attendance the Irish Church today is confronted with the loss of its institutional legitimacy This study is the first international and interdisciplinary attempt to consider the scope of the problem analyze issues that are crucial to the Irish context and identify signs of both resilience and renewal In addition to an overview of the current status and future directions of Irish Catholicism The Catholic Church in Ireland Today examines specific issues such as growing secularism the changing image of Irish bishops generational divides Catholic migrants to Ireland the abuse crisis and responses in Ireland and the United States Irish missionaries the political role of Irish priests the 2012 Dublin Eucharistic Congress and contemplative strands in Irish identity This book identifies the key issues that students of Irish society and others interested in Catholic culture must examine in order to understand the changing roles of religion in the contemporary world

Society Without God Phil Zuckerman, 2010-06-07 Are lawyers by their very nature agents of the state of capital of institutions of power Or are there ways in which they can work constructively or transformatively for the disempowered the working class the underprivileged Lawyers in a Postmodern World explores how lawyers actively create the forms of power which they and others deploy Through engaging case studies the book examines how lawyers work within and for powerful institutions and provides suggestions both general and practical for ways in which the practice of law can be made to work with and for the powerless Individuals chapters address such subjects as the contradictions of radical law practice legal work in South Africa the economics and politics of negotiating justice feminist legal scholarship and women s gendered lives the overlapping worlds of law business and politics theories of legal practice and how lawyers are constitutive of gender relations Contributing to the book are Maureen Cain University of West Indies Yves Dezalay Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique France Martha Fineman Columbia University Sue Lees University of North London Doreen McBarnet Wolfson College Oxford Frank Munger SUNY Buffalo Wilfried Scharf University of Cape Town Stuart Scheingold University of Washington David Sugarman Lancaster University and Sally Wheeler University of Nottingham

Religion, Politics and Law in the European Union Lucian N. Leustean, John T.S. Madeley, 2013-09-13 EU enlargement to countries in Central and Eastern Europe in 2004 the inclusion of Bulgaria and Romania in 2007 and increasing debates on Turkey s membership has dramatically transformed the European Union into a multi religious space Religious communities are not only shaping identities but are also influential factors in political discourse This edited volume examines the activities of religious actors in the context of supranational European institutions and the ways in which they have responded to the idea of Europe at local and international levels By bringing together scholars working in political science history law and sociology this volume analyses key religious factors in contemporary EU architecture such as the transformation of religious identities the role of political and religious leaders EU legislation on religion and the activities of religious lobbies This book was published as a special issue of Religion State and Society

Pieties and Gender Hilda Rømer Christensen, 2009-09-30 Taking up the challenge of Saba Mahmood to feminist studies in religion that there is a liberalist understanding of agency and a tendency to mix the feminist political project with the analytical the authors of this anthology discuss the relations between pieties and politics pieties and methodologies virtuous masculinities and symbolic gender representations Several articles discuss highly controversial questions Muslim piety religion in the European Union between the Vatican and the Muslim populations the religiously motivated abstinence policies of the US Furthermore there is an interesting section about religious masculinities in a historical and contemporary perspective Contributors include Saba Mahmood Robin May Schott Kari E B rresen Claire Gresl Favier Clyde Wilcox Lene Sjørup Thomas Blom Hansen Yvonne Maria Werner Karin E Gedge Hilda Rømer Christensen and Jone Salomonsen

Diversity in the European Union Elisabeth Prügl, Markus Thiel, 2009-12-07 This volume provides an overview of EU actions seeking to manage diversity introduces a conceptual framework to think about diversity in the European Union and provides a tapestry of cases that illustrate minority politics and activism contestations over identity and difference and the construction of new meanings of European citizenship

Valuing older people Ricca Edmondson, Hans-Joachim von Kondratowitz, 2009-07-20 How can we understand older people as real human beings value their wisdom and appreciate that their norms and purposes both matter in themselves and are affected by those of others Using a life course approach Valuing older people argues that the complexity and potential creativity of later life demand a humanistic vision of older people and ageing It acknowledges the diversity of experiences of older age and presents a range of contexts and methodologies through which they can be understood Ageing is a process of creating meaning carried out by older people and is significant for those around them This book therefore considers the impact of social norms and political and economic structures on older people s capacities to age in creative ways What real obstacles are there to older people s construction of meaningful lives What is being achieved when they feel they are ageing well This collection aimed at students researchers practitioners and policy makers offers a lively and constructive response to contemporary challenges involving ageing and how to understand it

The Taylor Effect Ian Leask with Eoin Cassidy, Alan Kearns, Fainche Ryan, 2010-06-09

The Taylor Effect presents an original and diverse collection of essays addressing Charles Taylor s magisterial A Secular Age Ranging from close and critical readings of Taylor s formulations and suppositions to comparative studies of Taylor and various interlocutors to applied approaches utilizing Taylor s concepts to explorations launched from a Taylorian foundation the 13 chapters comprise a multifaceted exploration of Taylor s multifaceted achievement Given the vast synoptic sweep of Taylor s magnum opus the contributors represent a suitably diverse range of interests backgrounds and expertise members of departments of philosophy literature philosophical theology systematic theology moral theology education and political science whose interests stretch from Plato to Girard phronesis to pedagogy Deism to dogmatics medical ethics to aesthetics Accordingly The Taylor Effect is not only one of the first major responses to A Secular Age the astonishing breadth as well as the quality of contributions will ensure that it remains a central reference point in any future discussion of Taylor s work
