Religion Past Into Present Series:

Studying Religion, Past and Present Nickolas P. Roubekas, Dimitris Xygalatas, Luther H. Martin, Donald Wiebe, 2024-09-05 Celebrating the contributions of Panayotis Pachis to the field this book discusses the past present and future of the study of religion in antiquity and modernity Panayotis Pachis has dedicated his celebrated career at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki to the study of various aspects of ancient religions The contents of this book reflect Pachis conviction that the study of religious ideas and practices should be focused on three pillars the study of history the formulation and application of theoretical frameworks and the utilization of traditional as well as innovative methodological tools Chapters range from the scientific study of Roman Graeco religions cultural evolution and neurocognitive theories in the history and study of religion to a look at why we need an integrative approach to study religion past and present Japanese Religions Past and Present Esben Andreasen, Ian Reader, Finn Stefansson, 2013-10-08 Each of the eight chapters deals with a specific topic such as Shinto Buddhism the new religions and Christianity there is an introduction that outlines the subject to be considered followed by a series of readings Islamic Religious Education in Europe Leni Franken, Bill Gent, 2021-03-31 Against the backdrop of labour migration and the ongoing refugee crisis the ways in which Islam is taught and engaged with in educational settings has become a major topic of contention in Europe Recognising the need for academic engagement around the challenges and benefits of effective Islamic Religious Education IRE this volume offers a comparative study of curricula teaching materials and teacher education in fourteen European countries and in doing so explores local national and international complexities of contemporary IRE Considering the ways in which Islam is taught and represented in state schools public Islamic schools and non confessional classes Part One of this volume includes chapters which survey the varying degrees to which fourteen European States have adopted IRE into curricula and considers the impacts of varied teaching models on Muslim populations Moving beyond individual countries approaches to IRE chapters in Part Two offer multi disciplinary perspectives from the hermeneutical critical to the postcolonial to address challenges posed by religious teachings on issues such as feminism human rights and citizenship and the ways these are approached in European settings Given its multi faceted approach this book will be an indispensable resource for postgraduate students scholars stakeholders and policymakers working at the intersections of religion education and policy on religious education Israel's Past in Present Research V. Philips Long, 1999-06-30 The debate over history history writing and the scientific study of history is reaching an apex in the late twentieth century and shows no signs of abating in the near future The literature on the topic is prodigious The time is thus ripe for an anthology of essays of the sort that Professor Long has collected essays that trace the history of the issues that have fed into the debate The classic and contemporary essays presented here provide an overview and introduction to the topic bringing together the most essential of these in a handy compilation The book is organized in six sections 1 The State of Old Testament Historiography 2 Ancient Near Eastern Historiography 3 Ancient Israelite

Historiography 4 Method in the Study of Ancient Israelite Historiography 5 The Historical Impulse in the Old Testament 6
 The Future of Israel s Past Long s goal is to provide a context for Israelite history writing within the milieu of the ancient Near East expose the methodologies and assumptions of various approaches and perspectives on historiography and provide access to essays that examine the contribution of the Hebrew Scriptures themselves to the origins of history writing The final essay by Long points the way to future research and topics that will move the discussion forward into the next millennium Professor V Philips Long teaches Old Testament at Covenant Theological Seminary St Louis Teaching and Learning About Religious Diversity in the Past and Present Karel Van Nieuwenhuyse,John Maiden,Stefanie Sinclair,2025-01-29 This edited book explores examples of different ways in which societies and individuals have dealt with the concepts of religious diversity toleration and peace making in politics and law and how these examples can inform educators and learners in in and non formal education today Chapters introduce and analyse nine key documents the Capitulations of Granada 1492 the Confederation of Warsaw 1573 the Peace of Westphalia 1648 the Royal Charter of Rhode Island 1663 the Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen 1789 the European Convention of Human Rights 1950 the Belfast Good Friday Agreement 1998 the Ohrid Framework Agreement 2001 and the Mardin Declaration 2010 In addition to explaining how each document manages toleration and peace the authors also provide clippings short visual and textual excerpts relating to the document under discussion These aim to challenge thinking about the historical document and its potential significance for the present The book s contributors consider the past as a source of inspiration for learning in formal and informal educational contexts such as classrooms museums and youth work It will be of interest to teachers and scholars in history citizenship philosophy ethics and religious education in schools and beyond Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille,Jillian Maxey,2013-09-26 Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women s involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue Religious Diversity in Europe Riho Altnurme,Elena Arigita,Patrick Pasture,2022-03-10 Drawing on research funded by the European Commission this book explores how religious diversity has been and continues to be represented in cultural contexts in Western Europe particularly to teenagers in textbooks museums and exhibitions popular youth culture including TV and online as well as in political speech Topics include the findings from focus group interviews with teenagers in schools across Europe the representation of minority religions in museums migration and youth subculture

The Hindu Religious Tradition Pratima Bowes, 2021-06-23 Originally published in 1977 The Hindu Religious Tradition provides a detailed exploration into the different doctrines regarding the nature of Religious Reality and the many paths of search for this Reality within the Hindu religion The book discusses these differing doctrines from the point of view of their philosophical significance and their use in man's search for the divine in consideration of the traditional teaching that the divine is already in man and can be realised in direct experience It provides a comprehensive account of this tradition through considering all aspects that are integral to it and highlights that the profundity of this tradition lies in that it cannot be limited to the requirements of any one form of conceiving the divine The Hindu Religious Tradition will appeal to those with an interest in Hinduism religious philosophy and theology

Manual Work and Mental Work Christoph Strosetzki, 2023-03-10 Information Text In the early modern period numerous texts deal with professions by presenting the knowledge required in each case individual fields of activity purpose origin and prestige The course of argumentation is humanistic insofar as it mostly starts from the human being The ancient idea of the primacy of mental work over manual work is formative here The importance of Spain results from the fact that the Spanish king Charles V was both emperor and ruler of the colonies in America i.e. he ruled a world empire by the standards of the time After discussing some central categories overall representations of knowledge professions and prominent professional representatives are presented Here the hierarchization and its relativization by satire is revealing The mechanical arts and the artes liberales are then presented on the basis of individual professions selected as characteristic examples each with its own specific knowledge The higher faculties of medicine theology and jurisprudence with their representatives form the conclusion
