21st century Just fifty years ago we could not have dreamed how advanced technologies and the remarkable rise of non Western missionaries would open doors for world evangelization At the same time the church finds itself increasingly troubled by internal and external pressures resulting in a deep sense of insecurity about its mission in the world The current theological and missiological ferment is seen in debates about religious pluralism What is the relationship between the Christian faith and other religious traditions Missiologist Gerald Anderson says No issue in missiology is more important more difficult more controversial or more divisive for the days ahead than the theology of religions This is the theological issue for mission in the 1990s and into the 21st century The essays in this book take a fresh look at the biblical data to address pressing questions raised by religious pluralism With a greater understanding of these issues God s people will not only have increased confidence in the one true God they will be further emboldened to carry on the work of world missions

Kuipers,2021-11-15 Can religious faith be critical and remain recognizable as faith Or is the idea of a critical faith a contradiction in terms In this book an emerging new voice in the philosophy of religion argues in favor of critical faith Playing on a double meaning of the word critical the title of the book suggests that faith is not only a critical crucial component of human life but also a component that can and should develop in a critical intellectually vigilant way Taking John Locke s reflections on the relationship between faith and reason as his point of departure the author weaves his discussion around a wide array of intellectual figures and conversations In addition to addressing important elements in the work of such historical figures as Aquinas and Locke Kuipers also incorporates themes from recent discussions in the philosophy of science feminist epistemology philosophy of language liberal theology and critical theory The book ends with a discussion of elements in Jurgen Habermas s theory of communicative action and offers a critical assessment of the merit of Habermas s notion of critical rationality as a normative yardstick for the achievement of a critical faith The Non-Western Jesus M. minorities in their home countries Christians in Asia live amongst Muslim Hindu Buddhist Shamanist or Taoist majorities and this context shapes the local Christian theology The same is true in Africa where traditional religions and beliefs influence African Christians Central to this change in both Africa and Asia is the creation of a new Jesus one who accretes local beliefs and concerns and who in that process is transformed The Non Western Jesus reveals how a new theology with its own images and concepts is coming into being A wide range of embodiments of Jesus is examined Jesus as Avatara and Guru in the Indian context as Bodhisattva in the Buddhist context and Jesus within Asian Chinese Japanese Korean African and Indonesian religious contexts
