Ritual and Religion in the Making of Humanity Roy A. Rappaport, 1999-03-25 Roy Rappaport argues that religion is central to the continuing evolution of life although it has been displaced from its original position of intellectual authority by the rise of modern science His book which could be construed as in some degree religious as well as about religion insists that religion can and must be reconciled with science Combining adaptive and cognitive approaches to the study of humankind he mounts a comprehensive analysis of religion s evolutionary significance seeing it as co extensive with the invention of language and hence of culture as we know it At the same time he assembles the fullest study yet of religion s main component ritual which constructs the conceptions which we take to be religious and has been central in the making of humanity s adaptation The text amounts to a manual for effective ritual illustrated by examples drawn from anthropology history philosophy comparative religion and elsewhere

Abraham Heschel and the Phenomenon of Piety Joseph Harp Britton, 2013-10-24 Piety is often regarded with a pejorative bias a pious person is thought to be overly religious supercilious even Yet historically the concept of piety has played an important role in Christian theology and practice For Abraham Heschel piety describes the contours of a life compatible with God s presence While much has been made of Heschel s concept of pathos relatively little attention has been given to the pivotal role of piety in his thought with the result that the larger methodological implications of his work for both Jewish and Christian theology have been overlooked Grounding Heschel s work in Husserl Dilthey Schiller and Heidegger the book explores his phenomenological method of penetrating the consciousness of the pious person in order to perceive the divine reality behind it The book goes on to consider the significance of Heschel s methodology in view of the theocentric ethics of Gustafson and Hauerwas and the post modern context reflected in the works of Levinas Vattimo Marion and the Radical Orthodoxy movement

The Theology of the Christian Life in J.I. Packer's Thought Don J. Payne, 2006-06-01 This study offers a critical analysis of J I Packer s theology of the Christian life Packer has achieved international acclaim and wielded widespread influence within evangelicalism for more than three decades particularly through his writings on the doctrine of sanctification His approach to sanctification is examined in light of the theological anthropology and theological method that constitute its unique structure and assumptions J I Packer has been one of the most recognized evangelical theologians of the late twentieth century Among his theological passions is anchoring the Christian life in the legacy of Reformed theology particularly that expressed by seventeenth century English Puritanism Yet his treatment of the doctrine of sanctification is shaped by two other influences theological anthropology and theological method This hermeneutical exploration of Packer's treatment of sanctification offers fresh insight into his thought and demonstrates the often unnoticed impact of theological anthropology and theological method within evangelical theology

The Church of Stop Shopping and Religious Activism George González, 2024-12-17 Explores the religious activism of the Stop Shopping Church performance group Since the dawn of the new millennium the grassroots performance activist group the Stop Shopping Church has advanced a sophisticated anti capitalist critique in what they call Earth Justice Led by co founders Reverend Billy and Savitri D the Church of Stop Shopping have sung with Joan Baez and toured with Pussy Riot and Neil Young They performed at festivals around the world and been the subject of the nationally released documentary What Would Jesus Buy They opposed the forces of consumerism on the global stage and taken on the corporate practices of Disney Starbucks J P Morgan Chase Bank Walmart Amazon and many others While the Church maintains an anti consumerism stance at its core through performances street actions and social activism the community also prioritizes work for racial justice queer liberation justice and sanctuary for immigrants First Amendment issues the reclaiming of public space and in an increasingly central way environmental justice In The Church of Stop Shopping and Religious Activism George Gonz lez draws on interviews participant observation and digital ethnography to offer insight into the Church its make up its activities and in particular how it has shifted over time from parody to a deep and serious engagement with religion Reverend Billy and the Church of Stop Shopping maintain that corporations and their celebrity spokespeople operate in much the same way churches do Gonz lez uses the group's performance activism to showcase the links between religion the culture of capitalist consumerism and climate catastrophe and to analyze the ways in which consumers are ritualized into accepting capitalism and its consequences He argues that the members and organizers of the Church of Stop Shopping are serious theorists and users of religion in their own right and that they offer keen insights into our understanding of ritualistic consumerism and its indelible link to the rising sea levels that threaten to engulf us all

Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought Anthony B. Pinn, 2010-06-01 Black theology tends to be a theology about no body Though one might assume that black and womanist theology have already given significant attention to the nature and meaning of black bodies as a theological issue this inquiry has primarily taken the form of a focus on issues relating to liberation treating the body in abstract terms rather than focusing on the experiencing of a material fleshy reality By focusing on the body as a physical entity and not just a metaphorical one Pinn offers a new approach to theological thinking about race gender and sexuality According to Pinn the body is of profound theological importance In this first text on black theology to take embodiment as its starting point and its goal Pinn interrogates the traditional source materials for black theology such as spirituals and slave narratives seeking to link them to materials such as photography that highlight the theological importance of the body Employing a multidisciplinary approach spanning from the sociology of the body and philosophy to anthropology and art history Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought pushes black theology to the next level Hermeneutical Narratives in Christian Religious Experience Malgorzata

Haladewicz-Grzelak, Malgorzata Widel-Ignaszczak, 2025-09-18 This book explores the intersection of culture language and religious experience and approaches hermeneutics as a meta perspective to address Christian religious communication It draws on the work of scholars from diverse geographical areas and academic fields with a particular emphasis on Orthodox and Catholic Christianity and Slavic scholarship The volume explores Christian experiential identities through hermeneutics and phenomenology in the context of diversity across denominations through theolinguistic and sociopragmatic perspectives It offers the reader an exploration of specific cultural textscapes considering the space of devotional and religious narrations in a variety of discourses The chapters consider how the Gospel is conditioned and developed by specific strands of Christianity the values that emerge through cultural contact and contact of specific denominations how religion interacts with wider societal issues and processes of sacralization and desacralization of culture space and expression Offering critical insights into hermeneutics in the tradition of Schleiermacher Gadamer and Ricoeur it presents a variety of case studies and topics including Andalusian saeta Biblical studies Icelandic hagiographies issues of adaptation and exoticisation of the language of religious minorities Old Church Slavonic scriptures the Shrine of Fatima in Portugal and sign language Through its exploration of religious narratives and interactions the book not only broadens our understanding of Christian experience but also fosters dialogue across disciplines and cultures God, Humanity and the Cosmos Christopher experienced some incredible human dramas ranging from Red Guard fanaticism and the loss of education for an entire generation during the Cultural Revolution to the Tiananmen tragedy the economic miracle and its accompanying fad of money worship and the rampancy of official corruption Social Ethics in a Changing China Moral Decay or Ethical Awakening provides a rich empirical narrative and thought provoking scholarly arguments highlighting the imperative for an ethical discourse in a country that is increasingly seen by many as both a materialistic giant and a spiritual dwarf Professor He Huaihong was not only an extraordinary firsthand witness to all of these dramas he played a distinct role as a historian an ethicist and a social critic exploring the deeper intellectual and sociological origins of these events Incorporating ethical theories with his expertise in culture history religion literature and politics of the country He reviews the remarkable transformation of ethics and morality in the People s Republic of China and engages in a global discourse about the major ethical issues of our time The book aims to reconstruct Chinese social ethics in an innovative philosophical framework reflecting China s search for new virtues Contents 1 Reconstructing China s Social Ethics 2 Historical and Sociological Origins of Chinese Cultural Norms 3 The Transformation of Ethics and Morality in the PRC 4 China s Ongoing Moral Decay 5 Ethical Discourse in Reform Era China 6 Chinese Ethical Dialogue with the West and the World Ecological

Imaginations in the World Religions Tony Watling,2011-10-20 The field of religion and ecology is an emerging and growing movement that is becoming relevant and influential in the world It seeks to analyse encourage inspire use compare and combine religious traditions to engage and shape environmental issues Tony Watling seeks to ethnographically analyse this important field and its expressions In particular he analyses and compares its explorations of different world religions for ecological themes and the resulting expressions of ecological visions in what he terms religious ecotopias idealized environmentally friendly re imaginings of nature and humanity and correspondingly religion which seek to influence environmental attitudes The Impact Of Reason On Faith, Ethics And Belief Geran F. Dodson,2020-10-06 The purpose of the book is to examine the theological claims of ethics faith and belief from a philosophical perspective The Abrahamic and Mosaic covenants of the Old Testament Jesus of the synoptic gospels and Paul s writings serve as the frame of reference in examining a biblical expression of reason and structured logic The message of Jesus centered on the Kingdom of God defined the meaning of faith and belief established a new ethic and framed the message in logic forms The life and death of Jesus brought the realization of God s final covenant as prophesied by the Old Testament However Paul appropriated and developed the Jesus of history into the mythological eschatological Christ figure The clash of philosophy and theology is evident with theological presuppositions that are based on spiritual insight and divine revelation Logic in scripture employs propositions based primarily on revealed proof that is within the context of that which cannot be proven absolutely

Uncovering the identity of YHWH in the manuscripts and religious practices of Canaanite culture clearly associated YHWH with the polytheism of the Ugarit texts YHWH was one of the seventy sons of the Canaanite Most High God El and took on a unique identity that was rooted in El and the polytheistic nature of the pantheon of gods Theological truths stand within the context of faith and reason stands apart from faith and infers only that which can be proven based on evidence That which is knowable by faith cannot be known by reason since reason cannot validate that which is not proven to exist Rural
