extensive critical study of the poetry of Nund Rishi a revered and renowned Sufi of medieval Kashmir Nirguna Bhakti in Eastern India Dambarudhar Nath,2024-01-01 Like in other parts of India the Bhakti movement also spread into the eastern regions in the early sixteenth century and had brought a large section of the people under its banner stretching from Koch Behar in the west in North Bengal to the foothills of Arunachal Pradesh in the eastern frontier The present work is a comprehensive but a critical history of the growth and development of the mystical movement in this part of India from the early sixteenth to seventeenth century with special reference to the M y mar sect which claims to be nirguna in its essence teachings social ideology and political influence While doing this the book has re examined the theory that bhakti movement ultimately failed to usher in a democratic outlook and egalitarian aspects as it had originally proposed and that it had ultimately submitted to the strong and dominant conservative forces With a detailed and sceptical examination of the ideological and philosophical aspects of Sankaradeva the founder of Bhakti movement in the eastern part of India the work proceeds on to examine the historical situation behind the emergence of the radical branch of the movement and its social and political implications It shows how within every conservative structure there remains a radical force which always carries on the forces of reform resistance and protest against the dominant ideology if necessary even by adoption of militant methods The emergence of the M y mar sect from within the bhakti ideology its role in the making of the society and a militant resistant movement against the dominant class form the crux of the present work While doing this it has questioned many of the existing ideas and concepts about the movement particularly in this part of India Literature and

Nationalist Ideology Hans Harder,2017-08-03 Writing histories of literature means making selections passing value judgments and incorporating or rejecting foregoing traditions The book argues that in many parts of India literary histories play an important role in creating a cultural ethos They are closely linked with nationalism in general and various regional sub nationalisms in particular The contributors to this volume look at a great variety of aspects of the historiography of modern regional languages of India Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Muthuraj Swamy,2016-03-24 Muthuraj Swamy provides a fresh perspective on the world religions paradigm and interreligious dialogue By challenging the assumption that world religions operate as essential entities separate from the lived experiences of practitioners he shows that interreligious dialogue is in turn problematic as it is built on this very paradigm and on the myth of religious conflict

Offering a critique of the idea of dialogue as it has been advanced by its proponents such as religious leaders and theologians whose aims are to promote inter religious conversation and understanding the author argues that this approach is elitist and that in reality people do not make sharp distinctions between religions nor do they separate political economic social and cultural beliefs and practices from their religious traditions Case studies from villages in southern India explore how Hindu Muslim and Christian communities interact in numerous ways that break the neat categories often used to describe each religion Swamy argues that those who promote dialogue are ostensibly attempting to overcome the separate identities of religious practitioners through understanding but in fact they re enforce them by encouraging a false sense of separation The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Plurality Conflict and Elitism in Hindu Christian Muslim Relations provides an innovative approach to a central issue confronting Religious Studies combining both theory and ethnography

Between Muslim P?r and Hindu Saint Mukesh Kumar,2024-11-21 This book explores the changing form of religious culture in the Mewat region of north India

Divine Sounds from the Heart—Singing Unfettered in their Own Voices Rekha Pande,2010-09-13 Recent years have seen a sea change in the way history is written and also in the way our conceptions of the past are being rewritten In traditional historiography women s articulation is often marginalized and dominated by male voices Through centuries of patriarchal control women negotiated many layers and levels of existence working out different forms of resistance which have often gone unnoticed Bhakti was one such medium Religion provided the space in the medieval period and women saints embraced bhakti to define their own truths in voices that question society family and relationships For all these women bhaktas the rejection of the male power that they were tied to in subordinate relationship became the terrain for struggle self assertion and alternative seeking Most of these women lived during the period from 12th to 17th Century While the dominant mode of worship in bhakti was prostration to a deity like a feudal lord the women bhaktas idea of God as a lover a husband and a friend came as a breath of fresh air The individual outpourings and the voices of these women who had the courage to sing unfettered in their own voices refused to melt in the din of the feudal scene which was largely patriarchal This book will be useful to scholars interested in Feminist History Comparative Religion and Asian Studies The sensitive and rigorous research will be of great help to young scholars interested in embarking on a journey to discover religious history especially with regards to women s history in the South Asian context

Hagiography and Religious Truth Rico G. Monge,Kerry P. C. San Chirico,Rachel J. Smith,2016-09-16 The hagiographic materials from the world s religions can tell us much about the beliefs and practices of the people yet the limited degree to which hagiography has been used as an instrument for understanding diverse religious traditions is surprising Hagiography and Religious Truth provides a clearer understanding of the ways hagiography functions to disclose truth for practitioners and suggests various ways that these underexploited sources enrich our comprehension of broader issues in religious studies This volume provides a much needed cross cultural and interreligious comparison of saints lives iconography and devotional practices The contributors show that hagiographic sources can in fact be truths of manifestation which function as vehicles for prefiguring configuring and refiguring religious social and cultural life The editors argue that some meanings simply cannot be communicated effectively through historical critical methodologies By exploring how hagiography functions throughout several of the world's religious traditions this volume illustrates how various modes of hagiography articulate religious ideas and uniquely represent conceptions of sanctity Mapping the Academic Debate Johannes

Duschka, Christoph Kleine, Monika Wohlrab-Sahr, Florian Zemmin, 2024-12-16 This volume maps the international academic debate on secularity It places seminal contributions from within Western academia alongside less well known texts from various parts of the world in several cases this is the first time that they have been translated into English The volume demonstrates that the academic debate on secularity was and is a global debate with contributions from many regions The collected texts relate to each other either directly or indirectly by referring to similar arguments whether reinforcing or criticising them and thus create a discourse When speaking of global secularity we therefore do not insinuate a uniform world secularity resulting from the alleged global diffusion of Western norms ideas and concepts It is rather a web of relations that is constituted via various different references These references are not evenly distributed the development in the West is often the point of reference to which positions from other regions relate to which they connect or from which they distance themselves But the references are not completely unidirectional We also present texts from Europe that underline the multidirectionality of the process even early on Thereby the volume offers the reader the material with which to trace these global exchanges and references Key Concepts in Modern Indian Studies Gita Dharampal, Monika

Kirloskar-Steinbach, Rachel Dwyer, Jahnavi Phalkey, 2015-11-06 Modern Indian studies have recently become a site for new creative and thought provoking debates extending over a broad canvas of crucial issues As a result of socio political transformations certain concepts such as ahimsa caste darshan and race have taken on different meanings Bringing together ideas issues and debates salient to modern Indian studies this volume charts the social cultural political and economic processes at work in the Indian subcontinent Authored by internationally recognized experts this volume comprises over one hundred individual entries on concepts central to their respective fields of specialization highlighting crucial issues and debates in a lucid and concise manner Each concept is accompanied by a critical analysis of its trajectory and a succinct discussion of its significance in the academic arena as well as in the public sphere Enhancing the shared framework of understanding about the Indian subcontinent Key Concepts in Modern Indian Studies will provide the reader with insights into vital debates about the region underscoring the compelling issues emanating from colonialism and postcolonialism

The Aga Khan Case Teena Purohit, 2012-10-31 An Arab centric perspective dominates the West's understanding of Islam Purohit presses for a view of Islam as a heterogeneous religion that has found a variety of expressions in local contexts The Ismaili community in colonial India illustrates how much more complex Muslim identity is and always has been than the media would have us believe Śiva's Demon Devotee Elaine Craddock,2010-04-20 The Hindu poet saint K raikk l Ammai r describes herself as a demon accompanying the god iva as he dances in the cremation grounds She is believed to be the first to write devotional poetry to iva in the Tamil language and is considered the first of the sixty three Tamil poet saints Written in the sixth or seventh century her beautiful poetry presents the path of love and service that brings liberation In iva s Demon Devotee Elaine Craddock provides a historical literary and ethnographic exploration of K raikk l Ammai r and her work An annotated translation of the poet saint s 143 verses is included along with an introduction to the Tamil literary tradition Craddock s analysis of this poetry in its ancient context and of the narrative tradition that developed around the life of K raikk l Ammai r centuries later reveals cultural tensions concerning women s roles and the devotional path The Many Colors of Hinduism Carl Olson,2007 The Many Colors of Hinduism is the first introductory text to provide a balanced view of this rich religious tradition acknowledging the full range of its many competing and even contradictory aspects Utilizing a thematic historical approach Carl Olson draws on a wide array of textual evidence the fieldwork of anthropologists in close contact with insiders and voices of thinkers ranging from Indologist Alf Hiltebeitel to Cambridge scholar Julius Lipner The result is a narrative approach that offers a view of Hinduism that emulates the storytelling nature of the religion itself

Speaking of the Self Anshu Malhotra, Siobhan Lambert-Hurley, 2015-10-23 Many consider the autobiography to be a Western genre that represents the self as fully autonomous The contributors to Speaking of the Self challenge this presumption by examining a wide range of women s autobiographical writing from South Asia Expanding the definition of what kinds of writing can be considered autobiographical the contributors analyze everything from poetry songs mystical experiences and diaries to prose fiction architecture and religious treatises The authors they study are just as diverse a Mughal princess an eighteenth century courtesan from Hyderabad a nineteenth century Muslim prostitute in Punjab a housewife in colonial Bengal a Muslim Gandhian devotee of Krishna several female Indian and Pakistani novelists and two male actors who worked as female impersonators The contributors find that in these autobiographies the authors construct their gendered selves in relational terms Throughout they show how autobiographical writing in whatever form it takes provides the means toward more fully understanding the historical social and cultural milieu in which the author performs herself and creates her subjectivity Contributors Asiya Alam Afshan Bokhari Uma Chakravarti Kathryn Hansen Siobhan Lambert Hurley Anshu Malhotra Ritu Menon Shubhra Ray Shweta Sachdeva Jha Sylvia Vatuk
