Religious Traditions And The Limits Of Tolerance:

Religious Traditions and the Limits of Tolerance Louis J. Hammann, Harry Merwyn Buck, Michael J. McTighe, 1988-01-01
This work looks at the questions which surround religious tolerance such as can religious traditions co exist peacefully It includes essays by contributors from many different religious and philosophical traditions attempting to answer these questions in the context of their backgrounds

Secular Faith Vincent William Lloyd, Elliot A. Ratzman, 2011-01-01 Is faith a necessary virtue in the contemporary world May it be or must it be detached from religious commitment What do genealogies of the secular tell us about faith Does religion need secular faith Secular Faith brings together leading and emerging scholars to reflect on the apparent paradox of secular faith Ranging over anthropology religious studies political science history and literature from Muslims in China to Pentecostals in South Africa to a prison chapel in Texas this collection of essays is as engaging and accessible as it is penetrating and rigorous Communism was once labeled the god that failed Like Christianity Communism involves faith in a superhuman endeavor conversion myth discipline and salvation and from the perspective of secular liberalism both are unjustified and false In recent years scholars have begun to investigate whether secularism is itself based on faith in a god that failed or is failing Nevertheless many still embrace such a faith finding in the spirit of democracy an ethos of eternal renewal Secular Faith enters and broadens this conversation interrogating secular faith in a global context tapping new theoretical resources and grappling provocatively with the tragedies and opportunities of today s profane pantheon of beliefs

Deep Cosmopolis Adam K. Webb, 2015-05-15 Too often observers of globalization take for granted that the common ground across cultures is a thin layer of consumerism and perhaps human rights If so then anything deeper and more traditional would be placebound and probably destined for the dustbin of history But must this be so Must we assume as both liberals and traditionalists now tend to do that one cannot be a cosmopolitan and take traditions seriously at the same time This book offers a radically different argument about how traditions and global citizenship can meet and suggests some important lessons for the contours of globalization in our own time Adam K Webb argues that if we look back before modernity we find a very different line of thinking about what it means to take the whole world as one s horizon Digging into some fascinating currents of thought and practice in the ancient world the Middle Ages and the early modern period across all major civilizations Webb is able to reveal patterns of deep cosmopolitanism with its logic quite unlike that of liberal globalization today In their more cosmopolitan moments everyone from clerics to pilgrims to empire builders was inclined to look for deep ethical parallels points of contact among civilizations and traditions Once modernity swept aside the old civilizations however that promise was largely forgotten We now have an impoverished view of what it means to embrace a tradition and even what kinds of conversations across traditions are possible In part two Webb draws out the lessons of deep cosmopolitanism for our own time If revived it has something to say about everything from the rise of new non Western powers like China and India and what they offer the world to religious tolerance to global civil society to cross border migration Deep Cosmopolis traces an alternative strand of cosmopolitan thinking that cuts across centuries and civilizations It advances a new perspective on world history and a distinctive vision of globalization for this century which has the real potential to resonate with us all

Religion, Intolerance, and Conflict Steve Clarke, Russell Powell, Julian Savulescu, 2013-05-30 The relationship between religion intolerance and conflict has been the subject of intense discussion particularly in the wake of the events of 9 11 and the ongoing threat of terrorism This book contains original papers written by some of the world's leading scholars in anthropology psychology philosophy and theology exploring the scientific and conceptual dimensions of religion and human conflict Authors investigate the following themes the role of religion in promoting social cohesion and the conditions under which it will tend to do so the role of religion in enabling and exacerbating conflict between different social groups and the conditions under which it will tend to do so and the policy responses that we may be able to develop to ameliorate violent conflict and the limits to compromise between different religions The book also contains two commentaries that distill synthesize and critically evaluate key aspects of the individual chapters and central themes that run throughout the volume

The volume will be of great interest to all readers interested in the phenomenon of religious conflict and to academics across a variety of disciplines including religious studies philosophy psychology theology cognitive science anthropology politics international relations and evolutionary biology

Conversions Craig Harline, 2011-09-15 The experiences of two families one in seventeenth century Holland the other in America today and how they coped when a family member changed religions This powerful and innovative work by a gifted cultural historian explores the effects of religious conversion on family relationships showing how the challenges of the Reformation can offer insight to families facing similarly divisive situations today Craig Harline begins with the story of young Jacob Rolandus the son of a Dutch Reformed preacher who converted to Catholicism in 1654 and ran away from home causing his family to disown him In the companion story Michael Sunbloom a young American leaves his family's religion in 1973 to convert to Mormonism similarly upsetting his distraught parents The modern twist to Michael's story is his realization that he is gay causing him to leave his new church and upsetting his parents again but this time the family reconciles Recounting these stories in short alternating chapters Harline underscores the parallel aspects of the two far flung families Despite different outcomes and forms their situations involve nearly identical dynamics and heart wrenching choices Through the author's deeply informed imagination the experiences of a seventeenth century European family are transformed into immediately recognizable terms A beautiful and moving book Harline is a master at narrative and at making the most painstaking research look effortless Carlos Eire Yale University An absorbing creative book it will definitely become a go to book for readers interested in the history and psychology of conversion Lauren Winner author of Girl Meets God: A Memoir An unexpected joy A compelling insightful examination Conversions is a journey well worth taking Gerald S Argetsinger Affirmation.org

Joseph Carens: Between Aliens and Citizens Matthias Hoesch, Nadine Mooren, 2020-08-11 This book offers a critical discussion of Joseph Carens's main works in migration ethics covering themes such as migration naturalization citizenship culture religion and economic equality The volume is published on the occasion of the annual Münster Lectures in Philosophy held by Joseph Carens in the fall of 2018 It documents the intellectual exchange with the well known philosopher Joseph Carens by offering critical contributions on Carens's work and commentaries of Carens as a reply to these critical contributions With his various works on migration ethics Joseph Carens must be seen as one of the leading academics in the political and ethical discourse of migration in the last years The topic of migration raises questions not only regarding naturalization and citizenship but also cultural economic and religious differences between aliens citizens and persons whose status lies in between and calls for further determination Such questions gain more and more importance in our globalized world as can be seen for example in the context of the refugee crisis in the European Union and the U.S. The book covers different systematic topics of Carens's work as can be found in his widely read book The Ethics of Immigration but also in further publications It provides papers with critical discussions of Carens's work as well as his responses to these thus enabling and documenting the fruitful dialogue between the contributors and Carens himself The aim of this book is to sharpen and shed light on Carens's arguments concerning migration by offering new and critical perspectives and fine grained analyses

The Limits of Religious Tolerance Alan Jay Levinovitz, 2016-10-21 Religion's place in American public life has never been fixed As new communities have arrived as old traditions have fractured and reformed as cultural norms have been shaped by shifting economic structures and the advance of science and as new faith traditions have expanded the range of religious confessions within America's religious landscape the claims posited by religious faiths and the respect such claims may demand have been subjects of near constant change In The Limits of Religious Tolerance Alan Jay Levinovitz pushes against the widely held and often unexamined notion that unbounded tolerance must and should be accorded to claims forwarded on the basis of religious belief in a society increasingly characterized by religious pluralism Pressing at the distinction between tolerance and respect Levinovitz seeks to offer a set of guideposts by which a democratic society could identify and observe a set of limits beyond which religiously grounded claims may legitimately be denied the expectation of unqualified non interference

Democracy and Religion David W. Odell-Scott, 2004 This book explores the interrelations of politics and religion The work is divided into four main sections the constitutional debate regarding the establishment and free exercise of religion clause the themes of violence and nonviolence as they relate to religion the free exercise of religion and the rise of fundamentalism and the challenges to the free exercise of diverse religious practices in a democratic society

The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia

Climate Perspectives from the Congo Basin Bila-Isia Inogwabini, 2024-05-31 This book considers the global question of climate change from local perspectives in the context of Central Africa Bila-Isia Inogwabini examines attempts made by the international community to respond to the global challenges posed by climate change in the Congo Basin and highlights that these attempts have so far produced limited results Abject poverty and the lack of academic technical institutional and governance capacities have made it difficult for these solutions to take root in local conditions Taking a novel perspective Inogwabini argues that what is needed is not austerity in the use of natural resources but rather increased material affluence for these communities which will enable individuals to create their own ways to survive through the tides of climate change He considers factors including social inertia climate skepticism and lack of political structure and presents a climate change action plan that is targeted at the local level in the Congo Basin Overall this volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change global development and African studies more broadly

Peace Education and Religious Plurality Robert Jackson, Satoko Fujiwara, 2013-10-18 Does religion bring peace or war In order to discuss this fundamental question it is essential to reflect upon religious education that shapes the views of religion among young generations This book has developed from the special panel on Religious Education and Peace for the 19th World Congress of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR the largest international organization in religious studies which took place in Tokyo in March 2005 Its international contributors discuss the kinds of religious education used for peace education that is attempted or needed in their respective societies faced with tensions and conflicts not only between different religions but also between religion and secularism This is the first book in the field that includes both Asian and Western writers from Korea Japan Indonesia Israel Germany Spain UK and USA It is an innovative attempt to build a bridge between the study of religion religious education and peace education This book was previously published as a special issue of British Journal of Religious Education

Religion and Human Rights Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Gordan Ćrpić, 2015-01-13 This book examines the relationship between human rights and religiosity It discusses whether the impact of religiosity on human rights is liberational or suppressive and sheds light on the direction in which the relationship between religion and human rights is expected to develop The questions explored in this volume are Which are the rights that are currently debated or under pressure What is the position on human rights that churches and religious communities represent Are there tensions between churches religious communities and the state Which rights are especially relevant for young people and which relate to adolescents' life world experiences Covering 17 countries the book describes two separate yet connected studies The first study presents research by experts from individual countries describing the state of human rights and neuralgic points anticipated in individual societies The other study presents specific findings on the relationship between these two social phenomena from empirical research in a population of high school students Studying this particular population allows insights into social trends value systems and attitudes on human rights as well as an indication of the likely directions of development and potential room for intervention

The Ethics of Evangelism Elmer J Thiessen, 2014-08-08 This is a brief and accessible examination of the ethics of evangelism in a post-Christian culture Thiessen discusses the immoral practices and attitudes that are sometimes associated with evangelism and then turns his insightful attention to a better way of approaching the subject Should we try to bring people to Christ or not In a multi cultural world evangelism is often under attack with those seeking to evangelise sometimes being branded arrogant ignorant hypocritical and meddlesome Against such a backdrop this unique book asks what sort of evangelism is ethical in a liberal post Christian society The Longings and Limits of Global Citizenship Education Jeffrey S. Dill, 2013-07-18 As the world seemingly gets smaller and smaller schools around the globe are focusing their attention on expanding the consciousness and competencies of their students to prepare them for the conditions of globalization Global citizenship education is rapidly growing in popularity because it captures the longings of so many to help make a world of prosperity universal benevolence and human rights in the midst of globalization s varied processes of change This book offers an empirical account from the perspective of teachers and classrooms based on a qualitative study of ten secondary schools in the United States and Asia that explicitly focus on making global citizens Global citizenship in these schools has two main elements both global competencies economic skills and global consciousness ethical orientations that proponents hope will bring global prosperity and peace However many of the moral assumptions of global citizenship education are more complex and contradict these goals and are just as likely to have the unintended consequence of reinforcing a more particular Western individualism While not arguing against global citizenship education per se the book argues that in its current forms it has significant limits that proponents have not yet acknowledged which may very well undermine it in the long run Being Hindu, Being Indian Vanya Vaidehi Bhargav, 2024-02-29 In popular imagination Lala Lajpat Rai is frequently associated with Bhagat Singh who by assassinating J P Saunders avenged Rai s death caused by a police lathi charge and was hanged for it Lajpat Rai is also remembered for his fervent opposition to British rule In recent decades however historians have converged with the Hindu Right in rediscovering Lajpat Rai as an ideological ancestor of Hindutva But what then explains Rai s wholehearted approval of Congress Muslim League cooperation and attempt to endow Hindus and Muslims with bonds of common belonging Why did he reinterpret India s medieval history to highlight peaceful coexistence between Hindus and Muslims Have our hasty conclusions about Lajpat Rai s nationalist thought concealed its complexities and distorted our understanding of nationalism in general Meticulously researched and eloquently written Being Hindu Being Indian offers the first comprehensive examination of Lajpat Rai s nationalist thought By revealing the complexities of Rai s thinking it provokes us to think more deeply about broader questions relevant to present day politics Are all expressions of Hindu nationalism the same as Hindutva What are the similarities and differences between Hindu and Indian nationalism Can communalism and secularism be expressed together How should we understand fluidity in politics This book invites readers to treat Lajpat Rai s ideas as a gateway to think more deeply about history politics religious identity and nationhood Faith Exiles Sarah Coleman, 2025-02-27 Faith Exiles delves into the lives of religious figures exiled for their beliefs revealing how these experiences shaped faith traditions The book examines the interplay between religious conviction political power and social justice Exile often seen as defeat frequently catalyzed religious reform and renewal For example early Christian leaders though exiled spread their message and medieval mystics despite persecution influenced religious thought The book explores this phenomenon by first introducing the concept of religious exile and its prevalence across faiths It then presents in depth case studies analyzing the circumstances responses and long term consequences of exile Drawing from historical documents and interdisciplinary perspectives Faith Exiles highlights the resilience of these figures emphasizing their active role in shaping religious discourse The journey through the chapters showcases how these exiles inadvertently strengthened their followers resolve By shedding light on these experiences the book offers a new perspective on religious authority tolerance and the state s role in religious expression It emphasizes the resilience and agency of exiled religious figures demonstrating how their displacement led to the dissemination of their ideas and the eventual transformation of religious institutions This exploration provides a framework for understanding contemporary issues of religious freedom and the challenges faced by religious minorities

Contemporary Muslim and Christian Responses to Religious Plurality Lewis E. Winkler, 2011-03-01 In our rapidly changing and progressively globalized world Christians and Muslims are faced with the prospect of directly encountering and responding to people of other faiths and cultures This has pushed us all to address the vital question of how best to live with work beside and love one other as fellow citizens of our planet Using resources from Christian theologian Wolfhart Pannenberg Muslim ethicist Abdulaziz Sachedina and several others Winkler argues that we must continually dialogue with one another not only about the beliefs and practices held in common between us but also about the ways in which we are distinctively different Only then can we take the opportunity more comprehensively to understand appreciate and cooperate with each other to build just moral and cohesive communities of hope in our often uncertain and unsettling times web the chemical equation used was $\text{Ca(OH)}_2(\text{s}) \rightleftharpoons \text{Ca}^{2+}(\text{aq}) + 2\text{OH}^{-}(\text{aq})$ the solubility product was determined to be $K_{sp} = [\text{Ca}^{2+}][\text{OH}^{-}]^2$ from the titration which was made by dripping a concentrated solution of calcium hydroxide into hydrochloric acid the calcium hydroxide was filtered before starting the titration

web jul 12 2023 because the concentration of a pure solid such as $\text{Ca}_3(\text{PO}_4)_2$ is a constant it does not appear explicitly in the equilibrium constant expression the equilibrium constant expression for the dissolution of calcium phosphate is therefore $K_{sp} = [\text{Ca}^{2+}]^3 [\text{PO}_4^{3-}]^2$ post lab report 8 determining the ksp of calcium hydroxide - Jul 06 2023

web lab report 8 determinin of calcium hydroxide the purpose of this was to titrate a saturated Ca(OH)_2 solution with a standard HCl solution and find the ksp or the OH⁻ concentration was found and then the concentration was found and u for this
