Religious Discrimination and Cultural Context Kerry O'Halloran, 2017-11-23 Generations of festering culture wars compounded by actual wars in predominantly Muslim countries the terrorism of Isis and the ongoing migrant crisis have all combined to make religious discrimination the most pressing challenge now facing many governments For the leading common law nations with their shared Christian cultural heritage balanced by a growing secularism the threat presented by this toxic mix has the potential to destabilise civil society This book suggests that the instances of religious discrimination as currently legally defined are constrained by that cultural context exacerbated by a policy of multiculturalism and in practice conflated with racial ethnic or other forms of discrimination Kerry O'Halloran argues that many culture war issues such as those that surround the pro choice pro life debate and the rights of the LGBT community can be viewed as rooted in the same Christian morality that underpins the law relating to religious discrimination Religious Discrimination, 1980 The State of Civil Rights United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1979 Civil Rights Issues of Euro-ethnic Americans in the United States United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1979 Catalog of Publications, 1999 U.S. Commission on Civil Rights Fiscal Year 1981 Authorization United States.
