Religious Vegetarianism From Hesiod To The Dalai Lama:

Religious Vegetarianism Kerry S. Walters, Lisa Portmess, 2001-05-31 An anthology of writings on vegetarianism from a wide range of religious traditions Ethical Vegetarianism Kerry S. Walters, Lisa Portmess, 1999-01-07 For vegetarians seeking the historical roots of vegetarianism for animal rights activists and the environmentally concerned and for those questioning their consumption of meat here is a book that provides a deep understanding of vegetarianism as more than just a dietary decision This is the first comprehensive collection of primary source material on vegetarianism as a moral choice and includes the writings of Carol Adams Bernard de Mandeville Mohandas Gandhi Oliver Goldsmith Anna Kingsford Frances Moore Lapp Porphyry Pythagoras Tom Regan Albert Schweitzer Seneca Peter Singer Leo Tolstoy and Richard Wagner among others Religious Vegetarianism Kerry S. Walters, Lisa Portmess, 2001-05-31 Stretching back more than two thousand years and spanning diverse traditions religious vegetarianism has an ancient and rich history In this book Kerry S Walters and Lisa Portmess gather writings that reflect devotional as well as more analytical responses to age old questions of animal suffering dietary practice and human responsibility These include writings from ancient Orphic and Pythagorean authors writings that span centuries of Indian and Buddhist thought and writings from the Judaic Christian and Islamic traditions Interesting both to those well versed in the literature of vegetarianism as well as to others encountering it for the first time are tensions within traditions over the use of animals for food whether such use is consonant with fundamental values of the faith whether religious law or tradition requires vegetarian practice and what place animals are thought to hold in the order of nature Vegetarianism: A Guide for the Perplexed Kerry Walters, 2012-06-07 Critically examines philosophical ethical and religious arguments for and against vegetarianism History of Vegetarianism and Veganism Worldwide \(1970-2022\) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi, 2022-03-10 The world's most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographic index 48 photographs and illustrations mostly color Free of charge in digital PDF format Kinship and Killing Katherine Wills Perlo, 2009 Through close readings of Jewish Christian Islamic and Buddhist texts Katherine Wills Perlo proves that our relationship with animals shapes religious doctrine particularly through the tension between animal exploitation and the bonds of kinship She pinpoints four different strategies for coping with this conflict The first is aggression in which a divinely conferred superiority or karma justifies animal usage The second is evasion which emphasizes benevolent aspects of the human animal relationship within the exploitative structure such as the image of Jesus as a good shepherd The third is defense which acknowledges the problematic nature of killing leading many religions to adopt a propitiation mechanism such as apologizing for sacrifice And the fourth is effective defensive which recognizes animal abuse as inherently unethical As humans feel more empathy toward animals Perlo finds that adherents revise their interpretations of religious texts Preexisting ontologies such as Christianity's changing God or Buddhism's principle of impermanence along with advances in farming practices and technology also encourage changes in treatment As cultures begin to appreciate the different types of perception and consciousness experienced by nonhumans definitions of reality become complicated and humans lean more toward unitary accounts of shared existence These evolving attitudes exert a crucial influence on religious thought Perlo argues moving humans ever closer to a nonspeciesist world
