Madlenka the countess from Cardice who was forcibly married to Anton to explain why he's suddenly leading the country. Even Wulf is unsure if family and political loyalty should override love. When the doge of Celebre was faced with this ultimatum, he gave his children up as hostages so that the rest of Celebre might live. Thus the four young Florengians were taken from their homes and scattered across the Vigaelian face. Fifteen years later, and you'd never guess that they're siblings. Fabia was adopted by a wealthy landowner and spoiled rotten Orlando desperately yearns to overcome his Florentian blood and fight for the Vigaesian army Benard is a flighty but talented artist and Wisdom has it that Dantio the eldest died fighting his captors But when Celebre suddenly takes on crucial political significance one of the siblings must return home to serve as Celebre's puppet ruler and the others must be eliminated so that there are no rival claimants to the throne It's going to be tough enough finding one another let alone deciding whether enough kinship remains after fifteen years apart that the siblings will care to help each other out of their respective predicaments If they're feeling particularly altruistic the Celebres might even take on the bonus round trying to save Dodec from the culture of death and war imposed on it by its evil warlords One thing's for certain the Celebre children are going to have a lot of adjusting to do At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied The Traitor's Son Dave Duncan,2024-05-07 The Whole Story John E.
