The "How To" Grants Manual David G. Bauer, 2015-03-17 This book breaks down the sometimes overwhelming and difficult task of creating a successful grant winning proposal into a series of clear and definable steps that lead to grant success The implementation of these proactive grant steps results in government foundation and corporate grants success Whether you are with a non profit organization a school district or an institution of higher education this step by step process will demystify the grants process and help you become a confident and knowledgeable grantseeker Researching the grantor reviewing previously funded proposals and making pre proposal contact with the funding source are just a few of the proactive steps that will help to assure you that what you propose is right for the grantor and that the grantor should therefore select you to fund The exhibits worksheets in The How To Grants Manual further support this successful system Revisions to grant seeking strategies have caused the author working with grantors and advisory groups to retool the manual's worksheets and communications templates These extremely useful supplementary materials are available to students and instructors contact textbooks rowman.com for details If your organization or institution wants to increase your success in attracting grants this book is for you From operating grants to technology to research this book will help you outline your plan for success

Scan Artist Marcia Biederman, 2019-09-03 The best known educator of the twentieth century was a scammer in cashmere The most famous reading teacher in the world as television hosts introduced her Evelyn Wood had little classroom experience no degrees in reading instruction and a background that included work at the Mormon mission in Germany at the time when the church was cooperating with the Third Reich Nevertheless a nation spooked by Sputnik and panicked by paperwork eagerly embraced her promises of a speed reading revolution Journalists lawmakers and two US presidents lent credibility to Wood's claims of turbocharging reading speeds through a method once compared to the miracle at Lourdes Time magazine reported Woods' grads could polish off Dr Zhivago in one hour a senator swore that Wood's method had boosted his reading speed to more than ten thousand words per minute But science showed that her method taught only skimming with disastrous effects on comprehension a fact Wood was aware of from early in her career Fudging test results and squelching critics she founded a company that enrolled half a million The course's popularity endured even as evidence of its shortcomings continued to accumulate Today as apps and online courses attempt to spark a speed reading revival this engaging look at Wood's rise from mission worker to marketer exposes the pitfalls of embracing a con artist's worthless solution to imaginary problems

Zen and the Art of Making a Living Laurence G. Boldt, 1999 Applies Zen philosophies and techniques to uncovering one's talents assessing career skills marketing one's abilities and conducting a job search Lopsided Schools Gerard Giordano,2011-01-16 Lopsided Schools introduces readers to the case method and helps the reader to use the case method to examine the scholastic challenges that critics posed from World War I to the present Some critics have stirred up educators with threats to reduce their budgets or fire them Others upset them with disconcerting questions Should parents demand that their children learn speed reading Should teachers emphasize vocational activities Should principals train their own successors Should superintendents award bonuses to teachers Should employers hire the graduates with the highest scores on standardized tests Should politicians assume greater responsibility for schooling Should journalists publicize information about lopsided schools This book examines these and the numerous other questions that critics posed The Literature Lover's Book of Lists Judie L. H. Strouf,1999-09-15 Wonderful for browsing and invaluable for finding specific information Literature Lovers Book of Lists is a compendium of useful and sometimes whimsical information for anyone who loves books and loves to read at any age or reading level It is organized into nine sections and provides nearly 200 lists relating to genres authors characters and settings awards literary terms with their definitions and much more There are even lists of books of prose and poetry available on audiocassettes If it has to do with literature this book has the answers What book has had the longest run on The New York Times best seller list Who is the only four time winner of the Pulitzer Prize for drama What is the complete list of Shakespeare s plays and poems Who are some of the most notable African American authors What are the three main variations of the sonnet What famous writers belonged to The Bloomsbury Group Literature Lovers Book of Lists is both exciting and informative at the same time
