Rock Music in American Fiction Writing, 1966-2011 Martin Moling, 2021-09-20 Can rock music help us understand literature Rock Music in American Fiction Writing 1966 2011 argues that a close analysis of the rock music incorporated into a literary text an investigation of the lyrics a musicological exploration of the sounds and rhythms a cultural historical inquiry into the production and reception of a song may yield exciting new insight into and expand our understanding of American literary production from the mid 20th century onwards Reading major works by Joyce Carol Oates Alice Walker Don DeLillo Jeffrey Eugenides Sherman Alexie and Jennifer Egan from such a rock musicological vantage point Rock Music in American Fiction Writing adds a new dimension to recent work in American literary criticism by seeking to establish rock music as an analytical tool for literary investigation The book concentrates on the way these literary artists have struggled to come to terms with the dichotomies inherent in rock music its liberating and revolutionary impulses as well as its adherence to the bleakest laws of consumer capitalism in their work By combining a musicological with a literary analysis Rock Music in American Fiction Writing highlights the crucial and complex role rock music has played in shaping the artistic outlook and cultural sensibilities of literary artists since the 1960s in America and beyond Rememories Elliot M. Film, Music, Memory Berthold Hoeckner, 2019-11-27 Film has shaped modern society in part by changing its cultures of memory Film Music Memory reveals that this change has rested in no small measure on the mnemonic powers of music As films were consumed by growing American and European audiences their soundtracks became an integral part of individual and collective memory Berthold Hoeckner analyzes three critical processes through which music influenced this new culture of memory storage retrieval and affect Films store memory through an archive of cinematic scores In turn a few bars from a soundtrack instantly recall the image that accompanied them and along with it the affective experience of the movie Hoeckner examines films that reflect directly on memory whether by featuring an amnesic character a traumatic event or a surge of nostalgia As the history of cinema unfolded movies even began to recall their own history through quotations remakes and stories about how cinema contributed to the soundtrack of people's lives Ultimately Film Music Memory demonstrates that music has transformed not only what we remember about the cinematic experience but also how we relate to memory itself The Second Journey , Phonographic Memories Njelle W. The Shape of the Signifier is a critique of recent theory primarily literary but also cultural and political Bringing together previously unconnected strands of Michaels s thought from Against Theory to Our America it anatomizes what s fundamentally at stake when we think of literature in terms of the experience of the reader rather than the intention of the author and when we substitute the question of who people are for the question of what they believe With signature virtuosity Michaels shows how the replacement of ideological difference we believe different things with identitarian difference we speak different languages we have different bodies and different histories organizes the thinking of writers from Richard Rorty to Octavia Butler to Samuel Huntington to Kathy Acker He then examines how this shift produces the narrative logic of texts ranging from Toni Morrison s Beloved to Michael Hardt and Toni Negri s Empire As with everything Michaels writes The Shape of the Signifier is sure to leave controversy and debate in its wake Singing For Life Gregory Barz,2014-06-17 Efforts within the past decade to address the HIV AIDS pandemic in sub Saharan Africa have dealt with HIV AIDS principally as a medical concern despite the fact that doctors continue to be confronted with the complex relationship of the disease to broader social issues When medical and governmental institutions fail artists step in Contemporary performances in Uganda often focus on gender and health related issues specific to women and youths in which song texts warn against risky sexual environments or unprotected sexual behavior Music dance and drama are principal tools of local initiatives that disseminate information mobilize resources and raise societal consciousness regarding issues related to HIV AIDS Through case studies song texts interviews and testimonies Singing for Life HIV AIDS and Music in Uganda examines the links between the decline in Uganda s infection rate and grassroots efforts that make use of music dance and drama Only when supported and encouraged by such performances drawing on localized musical traditions have medical initiatives taken root and flourished in local healthcare systems Gregory Barz shows how music can be both a mode of promoting health and a force for personal therapy presenting a cultural analysis of hope and healing Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Translation and Transgression in the Art of Shirin Neshat Erin C. Devine,2023-10-05 Precisely 30 years after the debut of her provocative photo portraits this book chronicles the early career of Iranian American artist Shirin Neshat In its first 20 years Neshat s work weaved viewers into complex readings of women and power in Iran Yet her images also drew criticisms of exoticizing Muslim women and later video installations were accused of lacking political assertion during stormy relations between the West and the Islamic world Now broadly recognized as a social justice artist this volume chronicles Neshat s evolution from photography to film from personal to political expression and expands existing scholarship to investigate underserved contexts for her work including the cinematic turn and emergent theories of globality in contemporary art Neshat s hyphenated identity was often attenuated by reductive and exoticizing discourses therefore this volume draws attention to her transnational methodologies informed by strategies of appropriation performativity and embodiment while articulating Persian visual and literary traditions Complicating simplistic ethnographies her disruption of neo Orientalist paradigms and representations has led audiences to reconsider Islamophobic Islamism and gender repressions that are political psychological and above all cross cultural This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history photography cinema studies performance transnational and global studies women s studies and Iranian studies
