Remote Feed Stories:

Love Stories in this Town Amanda Eyre Ward, 2009-04-07 From San Francisco to Savannah Montana to Texas Amanda Eyre Ward's characters are united in their fervent search to find a place where they truly belong Annie a librarian in a small mining town must choose between the only home she's ever known and the possibility of a new future Casey a suburban New Yorker with a wry sense of humor braves the dating scene after losing her husband And in six linked stories spanning a decade of her life Lola Wilkerson navigates elopement motherhood and lingering questions about who she wants to be when she grows up Whether exploring the fierceness of a mother's love or the consolations of marriage Amanda Eyre Ward's stories are imbued with humor clear eyed insight and emotional richness

The Normals David Gilbert, 2008-12-01 In this critically acclaimed comic masterpiece David Gilbert tells the story of Billy Schine a young man who innocently enrolls in a 14 day human drug testing study and finds his normal world turned upside down Like a One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest for the postmodern age The Normals is a tour de force from a writer of astonishing intelligence and imagination

Remote And Controlled Matthew Robert Kerbel, 2018-05-30 Remote and Controlled examines the issue of widespread cynicism in an era of abundant information asking whether it is possible to consume a steady diet of mainstream media and still understand and respect the political process Starting with central examples of television's political coverage and the media's focus on the president the author explores a variety of media from newspapers and radio to MTV and computer networks and political events and institutions Against a historical backdrop of political technological and institutional change the text raises critical questions for a society plugged into Rush Oprah and USA Today How do the media both magnify and undermine the president Can televised town meetings replace the real thing How do politicians seek to control the flow of information and what do the media do about it Does the information explosion provide greater diversity or simply greater convenience The second edition of this acclaimed text has been revised and updated to examine media coverage of recent events such as the Monica Lewinsky scandal In the process the author sheds light on the ultimate dilemma of whether an informed public will participate in a system in which campaigns are portrayed as if they were war policymaking is depicted as if it were a campaign and none of the participants reporters included appear particularly noble or worthy
