Rituals & Departures Akachi Adimora-Ezeigbo,1996      Military Departures, Homecomings and Death in Classical Athens Owen Rees,2022-01-13 This volume sheds new light on the experience of ancient Greek warfare by identifying and examining three fundamental transitions undergone by the classical Athenian hoplite as a result of his military service his departure to war his homecoming from war having survived and his homecoming from war having died As a conscript a man regularly called upon by his city state to serve in the battle lines and perform his citizen duty the most common military experience of the hoplite was one of transition he was departing to or returning from war on a regular basis especially during extended periods of conflict Scholarship has focused primarily on the experience of the hoplite after his return with a special emphasis on his susceptibility to Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD but the moments of transition themselves have yet to be explored in detail Taking each in turn Owen Rees examines the transitions from two sides from within the domestic environment as a member of an oikos and from within the military environment as a member of the army This analysis presents a new template for each and effectively maps the experience of the hoplite as he moves between his domestic and military duties This allows us to reconstruct the effects of war more fully and to identify moments with the potential for a traumatic impact on the individual      Rituals of Migration Kevin Kenny,Maddelena Marinari,2025-06-17 Italian and Irish immigrant experiences When people migrate they often perform social and cultural rituals along the way The idea of rites of passage with its elements of preparation departure transit admission exclusion expulsion and return helps us understand these moments in the process of migration in new and meaningful ways Rituals of Migration offers snapshots of Italian and Irish migrants on the move from the mid nineteenth to mid twentieth centuries The essays in this volume examine the particular moments actions sentiments and material objects in the process of migration at the point of departure in transit and in the process of return Because rites and rituals feature both nonverbal and verbal expression migration history can be understood by studying physical objects as well as written sources The authors focus on rituals created by migrants and their descendants but they also consider the actions of officials who regulated migrants departure travel admission exclusion and removal By examining what people did thought felt and packed on the eve of their departures during their journeys and when returning to their homelands Rituals of Migration reveals how everyone involved in the immigration process including the migrants themselves the families they left behind and those in charge of regulating their mobility have tried to make sense of a process filled with peril uncertainty excitement and opportunity      BRAZILIAN QUIMBANDA, SPELLS & RITUALS TO DEFEAT YOUR ENEMIES AND TO WIN EVERYTIME CARLOS ANTONIO DE BOURBON-GALDIANO-MONTENEGRO,      Rituals for Our Times Evan Imber-Black,Janine Roberts,1998 A timely groundbreaking guide to enhancing the rituals in our lives which helps people to enrich their relationships and reestablish their family ties The coauthors of Rituals in Families and Family Therapy show how to create meaningful rituals adapted to individual lives and family structures for new meaning in old and new traditions and celebrating life's milestones      All Together Now Cindy Dell Clark, 2019-06-14 In a hard driving society like the United States holidays are islands of softness Holidays are times for creating memories and for celebrating cultural values emotions and social ties All Together Now considers holidays that are celebrated by American families Easter Memorial Day Independence Day Halloween and the December holidays of Christmas or Chanukah This book shows how entire families bond at holidays in ways that allow both children and adults to be influential within their shared interaction The decorations songs special ways of dressing and rituals carry deep significance that is viscerally felt by even young tots Ritual has the capacity to condense a plethora of meaning into a unified metaphor such as a Christmas tree a menorah or the American flag These symbols allow children and adults to co-opt the meaning of symbols in flexible and age relevant ways all while the symbols are still treasured and shared in common      Beyond the Horizon Clifford Sather, Timo Kaartinen, 2008-05-16 Society is never just a localized aggregate of people but exists by virtue of its members narrative and conceptual awareness of other times and places In Jukka Siikala's work this idea evolves into a broad ethnographic and theoretical interest in worlds beyond the horizon in the double sense of past and abroad This book is a tribute to Jukka's contributions to anthropology by his colleagues and students and marks his 60th birthday in January 2007 By exploring the near distant inward and outward horizons towards which societies project their reality the authors aim at developing a new productive language for addressing culture as a way of experiencing and engaging the world      Connecting Taiwan Carsten Storm, 2018-05-15 Taiwan has often been characterised as an isolated society in its search for sovereignty and security Its contact with the world in an era of globalization and post modernity however has increasingly led to Taiwanese actors successfully participating in many regional and global fields In this book an international team of scholars presents cases studies and theoretical debates emphasising agency in coping with the effects of globalisation In so doing they contest the image of Taiwan's marginalization and seek to understand it in terms of its connectedness whether globally regionally or trans nationally Taking a multi disciplinary comparative approach it covers themes such as markets and trading diplomacy and nation branding collective action media film and literature and religious mission It thus combines perspectives from several disciplines including media studies sociology political science and studies in religion Using Taiwan as an example of how to conceptualise connectivity and think differently about comparative studies this book will be useful for students and scholars of Asian Politics and Cultural Studies as well as of Taiwan Studies more specifically      The Hidden Powers of Ritual Bradd Shore, 2023-12-12 An illuminating overview of the development benefits and importance of ritual in everyday life written by a leading cognitive anthropologist The Hidden Powers of Ritual is an engaging introduction to ritual studies that presents ritual as an evolved form of human behavior of almost unimaginable significance to our species Every day across the globe people gather to share meals brew caffeinated beverages or honor their ancestors In this book Bradd Shore a respected anthropologist reaches beyond familiar big R rituals to present life's humbler overshadowed moments exploring everything from the Balinese peleton to baseball to family Zoom sessions in the age of Covid to the sobering reenactment rituals surrounding the Moore s Ford lynchings In each ritual Shore shows how our capacity to ritualize behavior is a remarkable part of the human story Encompassing both the commonly unlabeled interaction rituals studied by sociologists and the symbolically elaborated sacred rituals of religious studies Shore organizes his conception around detailed case studies drawn from international research and personal experience weaving scholarship with a memoir of a life encompassed by ritual A probing exploration that matches breadth with accessibility The Hidden Powers of Ritual is a provocative contribution to ritual theory that will appeal to a wide range of readers curious about why these unique repetitive acts matter in our lives

Sherpas Through Their Rituals Sherry B. Ortner, 1978-04-14 Professor Ortner examines the Sherpas of the Himalayas

Explorer Travellers and Adventure Tourism Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2014-08-01 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history

Making Place through Ritual Lea Schulte-Droesch, 2018-09-10 Indian indigenous societies are especially known for their elaborate rituals which offer an excellent chance for studying religion as practice However few detailed ethnographic works exist on the ritual practices of these societies Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork in Jharkhand India this book offers insights into contemporary previously not described rituals of the Santal one of the largest indigenous societies of Central India Its focus lies on culturally specific notions of place as articulated and created during these rituals In three chapters the book discusses how the Santal make place on different local regional and global levels through their rituals They reaffirm their ancestral roots in their land during large sacrificial rituals They offer sacrifices to the dangerous deities of the forest in exchange for rain And they claim their region to be a Santal region through large festivals celebrated in sacred groves which they link to national and global discourses of indigeneity and environmentalism Through an analysis of the rituals of a specific society this book addresses broader issues It presents an example of how to study religion as a practical activity It portrays culture specific perceptions of the environment And last the book underlines the potential that lies in choosing place as a lens to study social phenomena in context

Memory, Family, and Community in Roman Ephesos Angela Kalinowski, 2021-07-15 This is the first book to analyse urban social relations in the eastern Roman Empire through the perspective of one elite family From the late first to the mid third century CE the Vedii and their descendants were magistrates priests and priestesses of local and imperial cults and presided over Ephesos many religious festivals They were also public benefactors paying for the construction of public buildings for the pleasure of fellow citizens This study examines the material evidence of their activities the buildings with their epigraphic and decorative programs to show how members of the family created monuments to enhance their own and their family's prestige It also discusses the inscriptions of the honorific statue monuments raised by the city and its sub groups for the family in return for their benefactions arguing that these reflect the community's values and interests as much as they commemorate the benefactors and their families

Legitimacy in the Academic Presidency Rita Bornstein, 2003-09-30 How did the 1990s and early 21st century impact the evolution of the college presidency The legitimacy and performance of higher education were called into question during this period and respect for some of its leaders declined An economic downturn and the concomitant change of student enrollment patterns have required presidents to lead in compromised conditions The new emphasis on financial management and fund raising has opened the job of academic president to those with nontraditional backgrounds These new presidents must gain legitimacy differently from those of more traditional backgrounds who are struggling with their own legitimacy challenges In order to understand legitimacy Bornstein has applied theory from the social sciences and higher education literature proposing five factors that influence presidential legitimacy Individual Institutional Environmental Technical and Moral She also proposes six threats to legitimacy Lack of Cultural Fit Management Incompetence Misconduct Erosion of Social Capital

Inattentiveness and Gradiosity In light of these threats she suggests strategies for gaining and maintaining legitimacy This book focuses on the impetus for leading change Bornstein draws on numerous sources for a theoretical perspective on the factors associated with the president's role in creating legitimate change She proposes a construct of four factors to implement legitimate change Presidential Leadership Governance Social Capital and Fund Raising The concepts of transformational and transactional leadership are examined for their ability to facilitate change Bornstein finds their effectiveness limited and proposes transformative leadership a contextual approach that fits between transformational and transactional leadership in the conceptual continuum Since presidents are often recruited on the basis of their academic experience their legitimacy depends on securing resources to strengthen or transform their institution fund raising is essential Fina
