Writing Revolution in South Asia Kama Maclean, J. Daniel Elam, Christopher Moffat, 2018-10-11 This comprehensive volume examines the relationship between revolutionary politics and the act of writing in modern South Asia Its pages feature a diverse cast of characters rebel poets and anxious legislators party theoreticians and industrious archivists nostalgic novelists enterprising journalists and more The authors interrogate the multiple forms and effects of revolutionary storytelling in politics and public life questioning the easy distinction between words and deeds and considering the distinct consequences of writing itself While acknowledging that the promise fervour or threat of revolution is never reducible to the written word this collection explores how manifestos lyrics legal documents hagiographies and other constellations of words and sentences articulate contest and enact revolutionary political practice in both colonial and post colonial South Asia Emphasising the potential of writing to incite contain or reorient the present this volume promises to provoke new conversations at the intersection of historiography politics and literature in South Asia urging scholars and activists to interrogate their own storytelling practices and the relationship of the contemporary moment to violent and contested pasts This book was originally published as a special issue of South Asia Journal of South Asian Studies

Hindu Goddesses Lynn Foulston, 2009-07-03 Explores the diversity of Hindu goddesses and the variety of ways in which they are worshipped Although they undoubtedly have ancient origins Hindu goddesses and their worship is still very much a part of the fabric of religious engagement in India today This book offers an introduction to a complex and often baffling field of study

Posthumous Editing of a Great Master's Work Graham M. Schweig, 2024-02-19 Posthumous Editing of a Great Master's Work Special Focus on the Writings of A C Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada examines how a leading figure's hallowed written and published works which remain so important to the religious community should be editorially treated following the leader's departure from this world The volume addresses the theological ethical social and legal implications of posthumous editing and even improving a great master's works This book focuses on the extensive posthumous editing of the works of A C Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada the original world teacher of Krishna bhakti of the twentieth century After Swami Prabhupada departed from this world some of his disciples without the expressed approval of the author attempted to improve on his authorized published work which resulted in the publication of a continuing series of inauthentic altered editions This extreme editing of Swami Prabhupada's works precipitated the scholarly research and inquiry into the posthumous editing of a great master's work that forms the basis of this book

Encyclopedia of Hinduism Denise Cush, Catherine A. Robinson, Michael York, 2012-08-21 The Encyclopedia of Hinduism contains over 900 entries reflecting recent advances in scholarship which have raised new theoretical and methodological issues as well as identifying new areas of study which have not been addressed previously The debate over the term Hinduism in the light of post Orientalist critiques is just one example of how once standard academic frameworks have been called into question Entries range from 150 word definitions of terms and concepts to 5 000 word in depth investigations of major topics The Encyclopedia covers all aspects of Hinduism but departs from other works in including more ethnographic and contemporary material in contrast to an exclusively textual and historical approach It includes a broad range of subject matter such as historical developments among them nineteenth and twentieth century reform and revival geographical distribution especially the diaspora major and minor movements philosophies and theologies scriptures deities temples and sacred sites pilgrimages festivals rites of passage worship religious arts sculpture architecture music dance etc religious sciences e g astrology biographies of leading figures local and regional traditions caste and untouchability feminism and women's religion nationalism and the Hindu radical right and new religious movements The history of study and the role of important scholars past and present are also discussed Accessibility to all levels of reader has been a priority and no previous knowledge is assumed However the in depth larger entries and the design of the work in line with the latest scholarly advances means that the volume will be of considerable interest to specialists The whole is cross referenced and bibliographies attach to the larger entries There is a full index      Debi Chaudhurani, Or The Wife Who Came Home Baṅkimaçandra
