Pang,2024-03-13

The singular role of Shabkar in the development of the idea of Tibet Shabkar 1781 1851 the Singer of the Land of Snows was a renowned yogi and poet who through his autobiography and songs developed a vision of Tibet as a Buddhist imagined community By incorporating vernacular literature providing a narrative mapping of the Tibetan plateau reviving and adapting the legend of Tibetans as Avalokite vara s chosen people and promoting shared Buddhist values and practices

Shabkar's concept of Tibet opened up the discursive space for the articulation of modern forms of Tibetan nationalism. Employing analytical lenses of cultural nationalism and literary studies, Rachel Pang explores the indigenous epistemologies of identity, community, and territory that predate contemporary state-centric definitions of nation and nationalism in Tibet and provides the definitive treatment of this foundational figure.
