The Hidden Fires Merryn Glover,2023-03-02 Shortlisted for the Boardman Tasker Award for Mountain Literature Elemental fierce and full of wonder the Cairngorm mountains are the high and rocky heart of Scotland To know them would take forever to love them demands a kind of courageous surrender In The Hidden Fires Merryn Glover undertakes that challenge with Nan Shepherd as companion and guiding light Following in the footsteps and contours of The Living Mountain she explores the same landscapes and themes as Shepherd's seminal work This is a journey separated by time but unified by space and purpose a conversation between two women across nearly a century that explores how entering the life of a mountain can illuminate our own An Australian who grew up in the Himalayas her early experiences of the Scottish hills and weather left her cold But gradually acclimatising and with an approach like Shepherd's that is more mountain wandering than mountaineering she discovers the spark that sets the hills and herself on fire Through Glover's deepening encounter the wild majesty and iridescence of the Cairngorms is revealed in this beautiful evocation of landscape place and identity Shortlisted for The Great Outdoors Reader Awards 2024 Merryn Glover's The Hidden Fires is not just brave it is remarkable Sir John Lister Kaye The Routledge Handbook of Religious and Spiritual Tourism Daniel H. Olsen, Dallen J.

Timothy, 2021-07-29 The Routledge Handbook of Religious and Spiritual Tourism provides a robust and comprehensive state of the art review of the literature in this growing sub field of tourism This handbook is split into five distinct sections The first section covers past and present debates regarding definitions theories and concepts related to religious and spiritual tourism Subsequent sections focus on the supply and demand aspects of religious and spiritual tourism markets and examine issues related to the management side of these markets around the world Areas under examination include religious theme parks the UNESCO branding of religious heritage gender and performance popular culture pilgrimage environmental impacts and fear and terrorism among many others The final section explores emerging and future directions in religious and spiritual tourism and proposes an agenda for further research Interdisciplinary in coverage and international in scope through its authorship and content this will be essential reading for all students researchers and academics interested in Tourism Religion Cultural Studies and Heritage Studies Heathen Paths Pete Jennings, 2007 A detailed researched and inspired book on Norse and Anglo Saxon tradition Paganism This book is written from a different perspective to other books published on aspects of what is known variously as Asatru The Northern Tradition and Odinism to present a handbook of accumulated data so that people can read and interpret it for themselves aided by sometimes conflicting or complementary opinions clearly labelled enabling the reader to develop and adapt their own theories and practices rather than have them laid out by someone else Where possible Pete compares more than one source of information Trying to subjectively observe a movement from within whilst being a part of it oneself is a delicate path to tread but in this book Pete does an admirable job separating them from the historical data being presented The Quest for Meaning Gaurav Sharma, 1900 The Quest for Meaning embarks on an intellectual odyssey through the labyrinth of existential inquiry unraveling the intricacies of human existence Authored by a seasoned philosopher the book navigates the corridors of diverse cultures religions and philosophies inviting readers to ponder the profound questions that define our shared humanity From the search for purpose to the exploration of
