The Sentimental Education of the Novel Margaret Cohen,2018-06-05 The nineteenth century French novel has long been seen as the heroic production of great men who confronted in their works the social consequences of the French Revolution And it is true that French realism especially as developed by Balzac and Stendhal was one of the most influential novelistic forms ever invented Margaret Cohen however challenges the traditional account of the genesis of realism by returning Balzac and Stendhal to the forgotten novelistic contexts of their time Reconstructing a key formative period for the novel she shows how realist codes emerged in a hostile take over of a prestigious contemporary sentimental practice of the novel which was almost completely dominated by women writers Cohen draws on impressive archival research resurrecting scores of forgotten nineteenth century novels to demonstrate that the codes most closely identified with realism were actually the invention of sentimentality a powerful aesthetic of emerging liberal democratic society although Balzac and Stendhal trivialized sentimental works by associating them with frivolous women writers and readers Attention to these gendered struggles over genre explains why women were not pioneers of realism in France during the nineteenth century a situation that contrasts with England where women writers played a formative role in inventing the modern realist novel Cohen argues that to understand how literary codes respond to material factors it is imperative to see how such factors take shape within the literary field as well as within society as a whole The book also proposes that attention to literature as a social institution will help critics resolve the current vital question of how to practice literary history in the wake of poststructuralism NEP British American And Indian Popular Fiction 5th Sem Amit Ganguly ,Jay Bansal,2024-01-15 1 Literary Terms 2 Earlier Trends in Fiction 3 Trends in 20th and 21st Century Fiction British Fiction 4 Charles Dickens A Tale of Two Cities 5 Jane Austen Pride and Prejudice American Fiction 6 Harper Lee To Kill a Mockingbird 7 Ernest Hemingway The Old Man and the Sea Indian Popular Fiction 8 Arvind Adiga The White Tiger 9 Sudha Murthy Dollar Bahu Re-Wiring The Ancient Novel, 2 Volume set Edmund Cueva,Stephen Harrison,Hugh Mason,William Owens,Saundra Schwartz,2019-02-28 The Fifth International Conference on the Ancient Novel which was held in Houston Texas in the fall of 2015 brought together scholars and students of the ancient novel from all over the world in order to share new and significant developments about this fascinating field of study and its important place in the field of Classical Studies The essays contained in these two volumes are clear evidence that the ancient novel has become a valuable part of the Classics canon and its scholarly attempts to understand the ancient Graeco Roman world Re-Wiring the Ancient Novel Ed Cueva,et alies,2018-11-30 The Fifth International Conference on the Ancient Novel which was held in Houston Texas in the fall of 2015 brought together scholars and students of the ancient novel from all over the world in order to share new and significant developments about this fascinating field of study and its important place in the field of Classical Studies The essays contained in these two volumes are clear evidence that the ancient novel has become a valuable part of the Classics canon and its scholarly attempts to understand the ancient Graeco Roman world Case-Based Learning Janet L. Kolodner,2012-12-06 Case based reasoning means reasoning based on remembering previous experiences A reasoner using old experiences cases might use those cases to suggest solutions to problems to point out potential problems with a solution being computed to interpret a new situation and make predictions about what might happen or to create arguments justifying some conclusion A case based reasoner solves new problems by remembering old situations and adapting their solutions It interprets new situations by remembering old similar situations and comparing and contrasting the new one to old ones to see where it fits best Case based reasoning combines reasoning with learning It spans the whole reasoning cycle A situation is experienced Old situations are used to understand it Old situations are used to solve a problem if there is one to be solved Then the new situation is inserted into memory alongside the cases it used for reasoning to be used another time The key to this reasoning method then is remembering Remembering has two parts integrating cases or experiences into memory when they happen and recalling them in appropriate situations later on The case based reasoning community calls this related set of issues the indexing problem In broad terms it means finding in memory the experience closest to a new situation In narrower terms it can be described as a two part problem assigning indexes or labels to experiences when they are put into memory that describe the situations to which they are applicable so that they can be recalled later and at recall time elaborating the new situation in enough detail so that the indexes it would have if it were in the memory are identified Case Based Learning is an edited volume of original research comprising invited contributions by leading workers This work has also been published as a special issues of MACHINE LEARNING Volume 10 No 3 Heaven's Interpreters Ashley Reed,2020-09-15 In Heaven's Interpreters Ashley Reed reveals how nineteenth century American women writers transformed the public sphere by using the imaginative power of fiction to craft new models of religious identity and agency Women writers of the antebellum period Reed contends embraced theological concepts to gain access to the literary sphere challenging the notion that theological discourse was exclusively oppressive and served to deny women their own voice Attending to modes of being and believing in works by Augusta Jane Evans Harriet Jacobs Catharine Maria Sedgwick Elizabeth Oakes Smith Elizabeth Stoddard Harriet Beecher Stowe and Susan Warner Reed illuminates how these writers infused the secular space of fiction with religious ideas and debates imagining new possibilities for women s individual agency and collective action Thanks to generous funding from Virginia Tech and its participation in TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories New Directions in the History of the Novel P. Parrinder,A. Nash,N. Wilson,2014-02-25 New Directions in the History of the Novel challenges received views of literary history and sets out new areas for research A re examination of the nature of prose fiction in English and its study from the Renaissance to the 21st century it will become required reading for teachers and students of the novel and its history Charles Dickens's A Tale of Two Cities Ruth F. Glancy,2006 Often criticised for its melodramatic soap opera plot Dickens bold treatment of the violence and terrors of the French Revolution is still widely read and enjoyed today This text looks at critical themes in the novel as well as looking closely at the context in which it is set

Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel Sangita Patil,2019-07-08 Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel tests the theories of ecofeminism against the background of India s often different perceptions of environmental problems challenging the hegemony of Western culture in thinking about human problems This book moves beyond a simple application of the concepts of ecofeminism instead explaining the uniqueness of Indian novels as narratives of ecofeminism and how they can contribute to the development of the theory of ecofeminism In examining a selection of novels the author argues that Indian texts conceptualize the ecological crisis more as a human problem than as a gender problem The book proposes that we should think of ecofeminism as ecohumanism instead seeing human beings and nature as a part of a complex web. Novels analysed within the text include Kamala Markandaya's Nectar in a Sieve 1954, Shivram Karanth's Return to Earth 2002 and Na D Souza's Dweepa 2013. Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecofeminism, ecocriticism, ecological feminism, environmental humanities, gender studies, ecological humanities, feminist studies and Indian literature.
