

The Second Greatest Commandment

The scribe didn't ask for the second greatest commandment, but Jesus knew it was so important that it couldn't be left unsaid.

The second is this: "Love your neighbor as yourself." There is no commandment greater than these. (Mark 12:31)

In fact, Matthew, the other gospel writer who tells of this event, notes how Jesus then said:

All the Law and Prophets hang on these two commandments.
(Matthew 22:40)

Second Greatest Commandment:

The Second Greatest Commandment William M. Fletcher, 1983 Jonah, John, and the Second Greatest (But Most Avoided) Commandment Kevin Harvey, 2010-02-04 For too long the body of Christ has been focused on too many things that quite simply haven't been working. The answer to a lasting true revival in today's world isn't going to come from a continued focus on what we can and cannot do which denomination has the most biblical theology or achieving victories in social issues such as definition of family and the right to life. Instead, what our attention should be fixed upon is that the Son of God said the second greatest commandment we've been given is to love our neighbors as ourselves. In this book Kevin Harvey has taken a biblical approach to help the body of believers define just who their neighbor is and what it means to truly love them as Jesus intended. If the body of Christ began to focus daily on following that one simple idea, then maybe just maybe the world would finally begin viewing the church as the salt of the earth and light of the world that Jesus had in mind.

Loving Your Neighbor; A Practical Guide to Keeping the Second Great Commandment Rev. Dave Boston, 2023-05-22 Loving Your Neighbor: A Practical Guide to Keeping the Second Great Commandment explores what God actually means by the word love. Often in our culture we use the word love to mean like very very much as in I love pizza. But then there are Bible verses that command us to love our enemies; clearly the Lord cannot be asking us to like them very much. This book looks first at the heart of love as evidenced by God and others. From these scriptural records we can see that spiritual love really means a selfless caring for the other. When we love we must start with a motivation that focuses solely on the well-being of the other and not on any benefits to self. Next, as this is a practical guide, this book examines pictures of love words that give the reader a picture of how this love might actually practically work in our lives. Often these biblical words have both a physical and a figurative usage. The physical usage gives us the picture and the figurative usage shows us how to practically apply this in loving our neighbor. Finally, the author shows that God has given us tools in the Bible to help us get better at loving our neighbor. God gave us the commandment, but then He was loving enough to help us love and to help us grow in loving our neighbors.

God's Greatest Commandment Andrew Oghena, 2023-09-05 About the Book God's Greatest Commandment A Guide discusses in detail the two greatest commandments given by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ that will enable all humans to live a godly life during their earthly pilgrimages. The book's objective is to provide steps on how to love God with all your heart, soul, and mind, and love your neighbor as yourself, as well as to outline rewards that you will receive by loving God and neighbor. Readers of this book will be reminded that we are all one; that we all came from one God, just like the billions of rays of sunlight all come from one source, the sun. Since all humanity is from God the Father, we should endeavor to love our Creator and also love all created people. If we all love each other, then our communities, our countries, and our world will be better places to live without war but with peace and harmony.
