Second Sight Australian Photography In The National Gallery Of Victoria:

Photography and Australia Helen Ennis, 2007 Photography and Australia focuses on those aspects of photographic practice that can be considered distinctively Australian. It argues that the colonial experience has been crucial in shaping photographers' concerns.

Nineteenth-century Australian Art in the National Gallery of Victoria Terence Lane, National Gallery of Victoria, 2003 For the first time some of the major 19th century Australian works of art from the National Gallery of Victoria have been published in one book. Includes paintings, watercolours, drawings, furniture, silver, textiles and sculpture.

Mark Kimber Jim Moss, 2013-03 This book encapsulates the photographic career to date of Mark Kimber, whose track record as an artist has its origins in the early 1980s when only one year after graduating from art school six of his prints were collected by the Art Gallery of South Australia. Since that time his photographs have been collected nationally and internationally and his curriculum vitae is evidence of a rich photographic legacy spanning a fascinating time in the history of the medium. The essay by Jim Moss that accompanies Mark Kimber's photographs relates episodes from Mark's youth and early adulthood, drawing an animated profile of a complex and motivated individual. As a photographic artist, Kimber is able to reap the fields of his imagination that were sown in the western suburbs of Adelaide, demographic aspects of which he has recreated with an uncanny crepuscular precision. Other territories and citizens come under Mark's gaze and in more recent work he displays a proclivity for the creation of fictive worlds. Jim Moss's essay also sketches in a sense of the critical and technological evolution that has permeated photographic discourse and practice in the years since Mark Kimber first peered through a viewfinder. Throughout this period of change, a sensibility that has remained constant at the heart of Mark's repertoire is his battle of wits with what has been described as the uncontrollable intrusion of reality that is intrinsic to the photograph. The age of the photograph as a discreet object unto itself has passed, but in the world of art the photographic image persists as an intriguing and often complex document. This book bears witness to an ongoing fascination with photography as a medium of creative expression while simultaneously it celebrates the contribution of Mark Kimber to photographic art.

A Modern Vision Helen Ennis, 2008 Charles Bayliss was probably one of Australia's greatest nineteenth-century photographers. In his day Bayliss's work was highly regarded and he received numerous prestigious government commissions. His photography has been praised since, but in contemporary terms Bayliss has not yet received his due. This beautiful publication, drawing on the National Library of Australia exhibition of the same name, is the first to highlight the various strands of Bayliss's photographic practice.

The Photograph and Australia Judy Annear, 2015 Catalog of an exhibition held March 21–June 8, 2015 at the Art Gallery of New South Wales and July 4–October 11, 2015 at the Queensland Art Gallery.

Intersections Helen Ennis, 2004 Using photographs from the National Library's collection, Ennis introduces us to Australia from the 1840s to the present as we have never seen it before: at peace and at war, and in all its splendour and ordinary dailiness as seen through the cameras of Charles Bayliss, Samuel Sweet, Peta Hill and many others. Large format.
