Governance, Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution Cedric Hilburn Grant, R. Mark Kirton, 2007 Decades after our contemporary international system witnessed the end of the Second World War the events that followed in its aftermath has fashioned an international system characterized by global conflict in the guise of the Cold War Although wars were part of the struggle between the two rival super powers the US and USSR their main theatre was the Third World and hostilities during the Cold War era were global It is against this backdrop that Governance Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution addresses conflict in the Caribbean and elsewhere exploring the linkages between conflict and development The book is divided into eight sections and offers diverse views on conflict conflict resolution and governance Part 1 Governance and Conflict Management in a Global Context Part II Management and resolution of Conflict in the Regional Context Part III Perspectives on Social Stratification Political Rivalry and Ethnic Insecurities Part IV High Intensity Conflicts Part V The Management and Resolution of Territorial Conflicts Part VI Poverty Economics and Conflict Management Part VII Advancing Conflict Resolution through Education and Part VIII Civil Society Governance and Social Consensus

Track Two Diplomacy in Theory and Practice Peter Jones, 2015-09-02 Jones provides a nuanced perspective on both the promise and limits of this unheralded form of unofficial diplomacy Stephen J Del Rosso Director International Peace and Security Carnegie Corporation of New York Track Two diplomacy consists of informal dialogues among actors such as academics religious leaders retired senior officials and NGO officials that can bring new ideas and new relationships to the official process of diplomacy Sadly those involved in official diplomacy often have little understanding of and appreciation for the complex and nuanced role that Track Two can play or for its limitations And many Track Two practitioners are often unaware of the realities and pressures of the policy and diplomatic worlds and not particularly adept at framing their efforts to make them accessible to hard pressed officials At the same time those interested in the academic study of Track Two sometimes fail to understand the realities faced by either set of practitioners A need therefore exists for a work to bridge the divides between these constituencies and between the different types of Track Two practice and this book crosses disciplines and traditions in order to do just that It explores the various dimensions and guises of Track Two the theory and practice of how they work and how both practitioners and academics could more profitably assess Track Two Overall it provides a comprehensive picture of the range of activities pursued under this title to provoke new thinking about how these activities relate to each other to official diplomacy and to academe This book will be a classic that defines the field of Track Two diplomacy an exemplary work Esra Cuhadar Bilkent University

River Basin Organizations in Water Diplomacy Anoulak Kittikhoun, Susanne Schmeier, 2020-11-19 Will tensions and disputes among states sharing international water courses and lakes turn into active conflicts Addressing this question the book shows that these concerns are more prominent due to the locations and underlying political dynamics of some of these large rivers and the strategic interests of major powers Written by a combination of leading practitioners and academics this book shows that states are more prone to cooperate and manage their transboundary issues over the use of their common water resources through peaceful means and the key institutions they employ are international river basin organizations RBOs Far from being mere technical institutions RBOs are key mechanisms of water diplomacy with capacity and effectiveness varying on four key interrelated factors their legal and institutional development and the influence of their technical and strategic resources The basins analyzed span all continents from both developed and developing basins including the Columbia Great Lakes Colorado Senegal Niger Nile Congo Jordan Helmand Aral Sea Mekong Danube and Rhine Contributing to the academic discourse on transboundary water management and water conflict and cooperation the book provides insights to policy makers on which water diplomacy engagements can be successful the strengths to build on and the pitfalls to avoid so that shared water resources are managed in a cooperative sustainable and stable way

Factors of Success in UN Mission Communication Strategies in Post-conflict Settings Hanja Eurich, 2010 Communication in the broadest sense gains increasing importance in UN peace missions However a gap between demand and reality can be observed that points to a multitude of problematic issues These are taken up by the thesis and it is finally argued Successful communication strategies need to be aligned to the goals and tasks of the UN mission on all levels in order to be credible they need to be conflict and context responsive inclusive and participatory consider cultural peculiarities and cross vertical as well as horizontal conflict lines In the tradition of conflict transformative approaches a framework for analysis and evaluation of communication strategies is built and applied to the UN peace missions in Timor Leste and Nepal Derived is a dynamic model for the design of communication strategies that covers all relevant fields of action and performances

Conflict Mediation in the Arab World Ibrahim Fraihat, Isak Svensson, 2023-10-30 The Middle East and North Africa region has been plagued with civil wars international interventions and increasing militarization making it one of the most war affected areas in the world today Despite numerous mediation processes and initiatives for conflict resolution most have failed to transform conflicts from war to peace Seeking to learn from these past efforts and apply new research Fraihat and Svensson present the first comprehensive approach to mediation in the Arab world taking on cases from Yemen to Sudan from Qatar to Palestine Syria and beyond Conflict

Mediation in the Arab World focuses on mediation at three different levels of analysis between countries between governments and armed actors inside single countries and between different communities In applying this holistic method the editors identify similarities and differences in the conditions for conflict resolution and management Drawing upon the work of experts in the field with a deep understanding of the increasing complexities and changing dynamics of the region this volume offers a valuable resource for academics policy makers and practitioners interested in conflict resolution and management in the Middle East and North Africa Peace Issues in the 21st Century Global Context John Duncan, Shreesh Juyal, 2017-08-21 Since the two Hague Netherlands multilateral peace conferences of 1899 and 1907 the fundamental issue of world peace and its long term realization has engaged scholars diplomats statesmen and students of international relations This book presents a new endeavor in this direction through a collection of papers selected from the recent conferences of the Canadian Peace Research Association and independent scholars Descriptive analytical constructive and balanced ideas and solutions in this text represent alternatives for the global community to be collectively secure and peaceful This volume examines world peace in its foundational descriptive conceptual and prescriptive aspects and as a social and human concept in positive and negative contexts including the nonviolent perspective of peace women theorists on peace and war empowerment of women as peacemakers and peace research and education under siege On violence and war the topics included are the theory of violence the new faces of war including military robots electromagnetic and information weapons the cyber warfare and the militarization of neuroscience In the area of case studies Iran and nuclear deterrence the Baha i faith and Iran the Western Sahara Sudan and South Sudan and the challenges of a Palestinian Nation are analysed In addition there is focus on the need to establish a Department of Peace in Canada and an attempt to seek establishment of world peace through direct democracy This book will advance an understanding of the historic struggle and failures as well as the accomplishments and shortcomings for peaceful change and a just world order It will be of direct interest to students of political science diplomacy history social science international law human rights and other cognate disciplines

Transforming conflict through social and economic development Sandra Buchanan, 2016-05-16 Transforming conflict through social and economic development examines lessons learned from the Northern Ireland and Border Counties conflict transformation process through social and economic development and their consequent impacts and implications for practice and policymaking with a range of functional recommendations produced for other regions emerging from and seeking to transform violent conflict It provides for the first time a comprehensive assessment of the region's transformation activity largely amongst grassroots actors enabled by a number of specific funding programmes namely the International Fund for Ireland Peace I II and III and INTERREG I II and IIIA These programmes have been responsible for a huge increase in grassroots practice which to date has attracted virtually no academic analysis this book seeks to fill this gap In focusing on the politics of the socioeconomic activities that underpinned the elite negotiations of the peace process key theoretical transformation concepts are firstly explored followed by an examination of the social and economic context of Northern Ireland and the border counties The three programmes and their impacts are then assessed before considering what policy lessons can be learned and what recommendations can be made for practice This is underpinned by a range of semi structured interviews and the author s own experience as a project promoter through these programmes in the border counties for more than a decade The book will be essential reading for students practitioners and policymakers in the fields of peace and conflict studies conflict transformation peacebuilding post agreement reconstruction and the political economy of conflict and those interested in contemporary developments in the Northern Ireland peace process      Routledge

Introduction to Conflict Resolution Sara Cobb, Sarah Federman, Alison Castel, 2019-07-02 The field of conflict resolution has evolved dramatically during the relatively short duration of the discipline s existence Each generation of scholars has struggled with the major puzzles of their era providing theories and solutions that meet the needs of the time only to be pushed forward by new insights and at times totally upended by a changing world This introductory course text explores the genealogy of the field of conflict resolution by examining three different epochs of the field each one tied to the historical context and events of the day In each of these epochs scholars and practitioners worked to understand and address the conflicts that the world was facing at that time This book provides a framework that students will carry with them far into their careers enriching their contributions and strengthening their voices Rather than a didactic approach to the field students will develop their critical analytical skills through an inductive inquiry Students will broaden their vocabulary grapple with argumentation and develop critical reading skills      Role and Impact of Tourism in Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation da Silva, Jorge Tavares, Breda, Zélia, Carbone, Fabio, 2020-08-07 Though conflict is normal and can never fully be prevented in the international arena such conflicts should not lead to loss of innocent life Tourism can offer a bottom up approach in the mediation process and contribute to the transformation of conflicts by allowing a way to contradict official barriers motivated by religious political or ethnic division Tourism has both the means and the motivation to ensure the long term success of prevention efforts Role and Impact of Tourism in Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation is an essential reference source that provides an approach to peace through tourism by presenting a theoretical framework of tourism dynamics in international relations as well as a set of peacebuilding case studies that illustrate the role of tourism in violent or critical scenarios of conflict Featuring research on topics such as cultural diversity multicultural interaction and international relations this book is ideally designed for policymakers government officials international relations experts academicians students and researchers
