Second Wind Coming Home To My Own Life:

Coming Home and Other Stories Edith Wharton, 2016-01-25 Coming Home I The young men of our American Relief Corps are beginning to come back from the front with stories There was no time to pick them up during the first months the whole business was too wild and grim The horror has not decreased but nerves and sight are beginning to be disciplined to it In the earlier days moreover such fragments of experience as one got were torn from their setting like bits of flesh scattered by shrapnel Now things that seemed disjointed are beginning to link themselves together and the broken bones of history are rising from the battle fields I can t say that in this respect all the members of the Relief Corps have made the most of their opportunity Some are unobservant or perhaps simply inarticulate others when going beyond the bald statistics of their job tend to drop into sentiment and cinema scenes and none but H Macy Greer has the gift of making the thing told seem as true as if one had seen it So it is on H Macy Greer that I depend and when his motor dashes him back to Paris for supplies I never fail to hunt him down and coax him to my rooms for dinner and a long cigar Greer is a small hard muscled youth with pleasant manners a sallow face straight hemp coloured hair and grey eyes of unexpected inwardness He has a voice like thick soup and speaks with the slovenly drawl of the new generation of Americans dragging his words along like reluctant dogs on a string and depriving his narrative of every shade of expression that intelligent intonation gives But his eyes see so much that they make one see even what his foggy voice obscures Some of his tales are dark and dreadful some are unutterably sad and some end in a huge laugh of irony I am not sure how I ought to classify the one I have written down here
