Second Revolution Afrikanerdom And The Crisis Of Identity:

The Second Revolution Willem Abraham De Klerk, 1984 State Security in South Africa James Michael Roherty, 1992
This work is a study of civil military relations in the Republic of South Africa while Pieter Willem Botha was prime minister 1978-89. The author's controversial thesis is that Prime Minister Botha, recognizing that his country had reached the historical juncture when it needed to establish a new political order encompassing all of its diverse peoples, moved effectively to prepare the ground for fundamental constitutional change. What was needed above all were stabilization measures to assure the support of the white population for reform. Botha used the South African defence force as his primary instrument. By 1989, Professor Roherty maintains, a striking degree of stabilization had been achieved within the country and throughout South Africa and the groundwork for epochal change had been prepared. The author makes use of exclusive interviews with South Africans from the political, military, intelligence, corporate and academic worlds. State, Resistance and Change in South Africa Philip Frankel, Noam Pines, Mark Swilling, 2022-10-05. Originally published in 1988, this book describes and analyses the factors that were operative in South Africa during the 1980s at a time when Apartheid was under intense pressure. It focuses not only on the central arenas of political action but also on the non-institutional arenas which were increasingly the central forums of political action. Organised around the three linked themes of state action, popular opposition and possible alternatives, the work examines the manner in which such key institutions such as government, business and the military responded to Apartheid in its crisis, as well as the role of the ANC, the black trade unions, Inkatha and community movements in the townships. The final section deals with the South African left and the Freedom Charter.

African Studies Review, 1989 The Second (r)evolution Willem De Klerk, 1984 Las iglesias cristianas ante el apartheid en sudafrica Márquez Beunza, Carmen, 2014-12-30. Esta obra se centra en el análisis del documento Kair, un texto de carácter ecuménico y contextual elaborado en 1985 cuando Sudáfrica vive uno de los momentos más trágicos de su historia reciente bajo el régimen del apartheid. La confrontación de la Iglesia con una situación de nacionalismo político no es algo nuevo en la vida de la Iglesia. Pero en pocos lugares la religión ha jugado un papel tan determinante en el último siglo como lo ha hecho en Sudáfrica, donde se entrelazan de forma muy característica el nacionalismo blanco con la religión. Llegándose a hablar de la matriz religiosa y cristiana del apartheid. En ese sentido, Sudáfrica se convierte en ejemplo paradigmático de las relaciones entre teología e ideología política. El documento Kair reacciona fuertemente ante el peligro de una teología convertida en ideología y advierte de los riesgos de toda nacionalización de la religión. Definir el papel y el lugar del evangelio en esa crisis, discernir en definitiva la voluntad de Dios en ese preciso momento y lugar es la difícil tarea a la que se enfrentan los redactores del documento y en último término los cristianos de Sudáfrica. En ella afloran cuestiones de gran calado: la reconciliación, la justicia y el problema del recurso a la violencia, la tiranía y el problema de la desobediencia civil o la discutida implantación sudafricana del calvinismo y su posibilidad de redención. Pese a tratarse de un documento de carácter coyuntural el texto nos sita ante cuestiones nucleares y permanentes de la teología al tiempo que plantea una crucial pregunta: ¿cómo debe ser confesada la fe en nuestro mundo?
